AMERICANS ENDANGERED IN CHINA

URGE GUIDANCE OF VOCATIONAL MINDED YOUTH

Head of Reemployment Speaks at Club Meeting

MANY DRIFTING

The need for offering vocational guidance to the youth of today was stressed by Arthur J. Wunderlich, manager of the National Reemployment service at the Exchange club luncheon Wednesday noon in the Hotel Kankakee.

Young people do not know what to expect of life," he said. "They often are so interested in seeing the top that they forget the lower rungs, the years of climbing and effort it takes to reach the top."

Of the 50,000,000 wage earners in the U. S. today, nearly half are either dissatisfied or inefficient in their work, according to Wunderlich. When workers are vocationally maladjusted, unhappy and dissatisfied, life for them becomes a grind, he pointed out.

Greatest Quest

The greatest quest in life, averred the speaker, is that of "finding oneself." A youth should find out about himself, learn of his strong and weak points, then study occupational opportunities not with the attitude of "What vocation am I fitted for?" but rather, "For what occupation may I fit myself?"

Too many people get ahead by their own efforts, the speaker asserted. A user choice could be made by reading about them, asking questions of persons so engaged, study the lives of successful men, actually engage in different kinds of work, explore opportunities and profit by mistakes of others.

Two common philosophies of life are expressed frequently," Manager Wunderlich contended. "One, the philosophy of luck, is based on the foolish theory of getting along on the power of luck. The other philosophy is quite different. It recognizes that people get ahead by means of intelligently directed efforts and that the individual himself is responsible for his actions."

There is No Luck

"Young men must not depend on luck. Everything has a cause even though they may not see it. Most

LEADS CHINESE

Abandoning hope of peaceful settlement of the Far East crisis, Gen. Sung Chen-Yuan, chief of the North China government, summoned all troops in the northern provinces to the defense of Peiping. Soldiers from Nanyuan moved northward to the ancient capital to man the 25 mile wall and 13 gates which surround Peiping.

FAROUK FIRST INVESTED KING OF EGYPTIANS

Eighteen Year Old Youth Takes the Oath Today

Cairo, Egypt, July 29.—(AP)—A 18-year-old youth of 18, his majesty Farouk the first, was invested today as the first king of an independent Egypt since the Mamluk rulers were overthrown by British forces in the 19th century.

With a dignity far beyond his years, the husky-shouldered monarch took oath before his assembled chamber and senate.

15 Million Subjects

He became king of 15 million subjects of the Sudan and sovereign of Kordofan and Darfour to the south, and of 15,000,000 subjects and a display of fanfare and ritual within this ancient capital.

He vowed "by almighty God to respect and obey the constitution and laws of the Egyptian people, safeguard my country's independence and defend its territory."

Shouts of "Yehia El Malek!"—"long live the king!"—throughout his land echoed the acclaim that broke out among the select assembly in the parliament building.

No Crown

There is no crown of Egypt and the ceremony was in investiture rather than a coronation in the western sense. The suggestion that Farouk should be crowned with the 3,000-year-old diadem of Tutankhamen had been overruled because the actual crowning of a king is not in accord with Islamic law.

Farouk is the first invested king of Egypt. His father, Fuad, the first, who died in April, last year, had changed the title from the traditional one of sultan to king.

Grandsons Share in Gerrish Will

The will of Harriet R. Gerrish, Kankakee, who died July 17 in Chicago, was filed today for probate. It awards $10,000 to a daughter-in-law, Ethel K. Gerrish, and $500 each to two grandsons, Howard C. and Paul W. Gerrish, to be used for their education.

All the remainder of the estate is bequeathed to a son, Howard G. Gerrish who is named executor of the instrument drawn Aug. 15, 1936.

Pesky Starlings Should Have Returned Here Before July 4

The starlings are back again! For the fourth successive year, these extremely sociable birds have flocked here by the thousands for a brief sojourn before migrating further southward.

The residents in the vicinity of Evergreen, Hickory and Station streets, however, think them much too sociable for any use. They roost in great numbers in trees and on light poles and wires and drive neighbors distracted with their incessant chirruping and insatiable habits.

Last night the fire department went out to see what it could do about the nuisance. The firemen pointed their hose into the trees

BARBER SHOPS WILL PROBABLY REOPEN FRIDAY

Union Pickets Add 16 Establishments to Ranks

ONLY 6 REMAIN

BULLETIN

At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon Secretary Rene Dupuis of the Barbers' union announced that the last non-union barber shop had signed. All 41 shops in the city will open for business tomorrow 100 per cent organized, he said.

Shaves and haircuts remained at a premium in the city today as all barber shops were closed for the second successive day while the owners and their employees continued their work of mass organizing at the remaining non-union establishments.

When J. A. Hanes of Bloomington, organizer for the A. F. of L. affiliate came here yesterday to take command of the "persuasive" drive to unionize all shops in Kankakee, 16 establishments displayed union cards. Last evening 35 shops had signed up and closed doors to join with the others and call on the non-union places.

Hanes and Rene Dupuis, secretary of the barbers' local No. 666, said this morning that only six more shops remained to be called on. They are attempting to organize every shop in the city which cuts hair, including the one-chair places in private homes.

Standard Prices

No increase in prices will be made, they stated. The standard price of 50 cents for haircuts and 25 cents for shaves will continue to prevail in all union shops. In other places, haircuts in the past have been obtained for 25 cents and shaves for 20 cents.

The union's organizing plan was novel but effective. All union boss barber shops closed yesterday morning and they and their journeymen employees, numbering about 40, went in a body to each of the non-union establishments, sat down in their chairs, overflowing some of the smaller places, and peacefully urged the owners to sign up with the union. They reported little opposition.

The drive was expected to be finished sometime today. As soon as it is completed, the shops are to be reopened on regular schedule.

Believes Slayer of 3 Men Surrounded

St. Paul, July 29.—(AP)—Melvin C. Passolt, chief of the Minnesota crime bureau, said today he believed Jens Thompson, 34, charged with the murder of three Austin, Minn., brother-farmers, was surrounded near Caledonia, Minn.

Passolt sent another crime bureau operative to the wooded hills near Caledonia to assist Sheriff Heimer Myre of Freeborn county, describing the killings occurred last Thursday, and Ed Jensen, bureau investigator.

Deputy sheriffs and volunteer searchers have been concentrating their attention on the hills area of Caledonia since reports that a man who answered Thompson's description was seen in an apple orchard there.

Thompson is charged with the murder of Anton, Joe and Louis Lukes as they worked in grain fields.

Gets Permit for Apartment House

Mrs. Olive H. Larkins of 1725 East Court street has been granted a permit by Building Inspector William H. Spraker to erect an apartment building at 168 South Chicago avenue.

The structure will be of brick veneer construction and will house three apartments, one large one on the main floor, and two above.

Workers expect to finish the brick addition to the Monument works of Ed Reeb at 676 East Court street within a week, it was stated. The addition is built just to the east of the Economy Fruit market.

Heroine of Civil War Fame is Dead

Santa Barbara, Calif., July 29.—(AP)—Funeral services will be held tomorrow at the Episcopal church for Dr. Arabella Macomber Reynolds, who, for her deeds of mercy on the battlefield at Shiloh, was given a major's commission by the governor of Illinois.

Dr. Reynolds, or Major Reynolds as she was known, died yesterday after a year's illness. She was 97.

As a young woman, Dr. Reynolds was permitted to accompany her husband, a sergeant, to Shiloh, during the war between the states. Under fire, she dressed the wounds of union soldiers.

When Governor Yates heard her accounts of the battle, according to the diary the woman kept, he declared: "She deserves a commission more than half the officers!"

Shortly after the civil war, Dr. Reynolds went to Chicago to study medicine. She practiced for 30 years. She was an organizer of the Ladies of the G. A. R. in Chicago.

Former Policeman Must Die in Chair

Pittsburgh, July 29.—(AP)—Martin J. Sullivan was sentenced today to die in the electric chair for slaying five neighbors in Duquesne, Pa., where he had been a policeman more than 20 years.

Judge J. Frank Graff refused the 70-year-old patrolman a new trial. The date of execution will be fixed by Governor George H. E. E.

A jury had convicted the reformed Sullivan of fatally shooting Mrs. Laura Bacon, Duquesne social worker, last December.

Sullivan later pleaded guilty to slaying four others off the same trial.

The state contended Sullivan committed "mass murder" against the neighbors because he blamed them for his arrest on a morality charge involving a little girl.

W.L. Purkey Of Lumber Firm Called

William Lester Purkey, 58, of the J. E. DeSelm Lumber company, died suddenly Wednesday evening at his home, 288 South Schuyler avenue, Bradley, of a heart attack. He was ill only a few hours.

Funeral services are incomplete pending word from relatives. The body is at the Phillips and Friday funeral home where friends may call from 7 to 9 o'clock this evening and Friday afternoon and evening.

Mr. Purkey spent nearly all his life in this community. He was born Sept. 18, 1878 in Marshall, Mo., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Purkey and came here at the age of 8. He attended Kankakee schools and was married to Minnie J. Stockler of Kankakee in 1900.

He worked for the express company for 15 years, and afterwards was associated in the grocery business with I. T. Ashton at Court and Harrison avenues. For the past seven years he has been with the lumber firm.

He was a member of the Masonic lodge, Gwazo council, past commander of the Ivanhoe commandery, and past high priest of the Kankakee chapter No. 78. He was also a member of the Elks for many years.

Besides the widow, he leaves one son, R. D. Purkey of Danville and a sister Mrs. Michael Chelky of Detroit.

Italians Will Pay Tribute To Inventor

Mass For Marconi Saturday at St. Rose AT CONVENTION

The annual state convention of the Order Sons of Italy will get under way at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon in the gold room of the Hotel Kankakee when Mayor Albert F. Hattenturg will give the address of welcome.

George J. Spatz of Chicago, grand venerable of the order, will assemble the delegates appoint credentials and resolutions committees, and receive reports of officers.

During one session of the three-day convention, probably on Saturday, the supreme honorary venerable John D. Silvestro of Philadelphia, is expected to come here to address the delegates, according to John Cardosi, general chairman of the convention.

Solemn Requiem

At 9 a. m. Saturday morning the delegates will adjourn to St. Rose church where a solemn requiem mass for Guglielmo Marconi, famous Italian inventor of wireless telegraphy who died recently, will be sung by the Rev. Curran Martino of Italy who is visiting here.

The election of officers will be held Sunday morning, followed by a picnic at Waterman park in conjunction with the local lodge's annual outing.

Victor N. Cardosi, chairman of the decorations committee together with Barney Settlecase and Louis Vellutini are decorating the light poles today. Merchants are asked to display welcome banners.

Say Green Apples Caused Drowning

Testimony to the effect that Charles Malone, 18-year-old Memphis colored youth who was drowned Wednesday afternoon in the city quarry on North Schuyler avenue, had eaten green apples shortly before entering the water for a swim was recorded at the inquest conducted this morning by Coroner A. E. Kerger.

Malone and three companions, all from Memphis, were bunning their way on trains to Chicago and stopped off here.

Bradford, 23, testified that Malone had eaten the apples. This, it is believed, gave him the cramps in the water and caused him to drown.

Firemen Delmar Memenga and Louis Osenglewski, called to the scene with their grappling hooks and boat, recovered the body without using the boat.

Local Guard Units Leave on Saturday

Preparations for the transporting to Camp Grant at Rockford of 76 officers and men, representing practically all members of the local units of Illinois National guard, have been completed.

Trucks will arrive early Saturday morning at the armory to pick up Co. L, 129th Infantry and Headquarters Co., 3rd battalion. They expect to leave shortly after 8 a. m. for their annual two weeks period of intensive camp training.

Maj. A. D. Goudreau, commanding officer of the post here, left today for the camp. Three other men are already at camp making advance arrangements—Leo Prince, Paul Ray and John Marquart.

C.M.T.C. Visitors

From the Citizens Military Training camp of Ft. Sheridan today came word that Saturday has been designated as visitors' day. Kankakeans who have relatives at that camp will visit them at that time. The occasion will be celebrated with an athletic meet, military show and parade at which medals and awards will be made for excellence in training and athletic prowess.

TRIPLETS ARE 78 TODAY

Alfalfa Day Events Will Start At 9

Personal instruction in the practical aspects of alfalfa, soybeans and other legume crops will be given at the second annual alfalfa day demonstration which will be held Saturday at the Lawrence Lowe farm north of Aroma Park.

Charles R. "Alfalfa Hutch" Hutchison, nationally known alfalfa authority, will conduct the day's activities which will begin at 9 a. m. and will last until 5 p. m. Members of soil conservation committees in eastern Illinois and western Indiana as well as many hundreds of farmers are expected to attend this field day, the largest of its kind scheduled here this year.

In connection with the demonstrations, which will include every phase in the preparation of seed beds, planting, cultivating and harvesting of the hay and forage crops, a series of exhibits by nationally known manufacturers of farm machinery and equipment will be displayed.

The National Reemployment Service office will have a booth on the grounds to register farmers and farm hands and enable the latter to obtain jobs through its free service.

Exhibits will be in place between 9 and 10 a. m. and the demonstration machinery will start one hour later. After lunch the speaking program will begin. Haycutting demonstrations and combining of a new rust resistant variety of wheat and several types of hybrid seed corn will be shown also.

William Doan Asks Divorce from Wife

William Doan seeks a divorce from Mary Le Sage Doan on grounds of desertion, according to a bill filed in circuit court today by A. J. J. R. Johnston.

The bill states that the couple was married Aug. 12, 1906 at Watseka and that Mrs. Doan deserted on May 2, 1936. They have two daughters, both adults and married.

Alcatraz Convict Chops Off a Hand

San Francisco, July 29.—(AP)—From Alcatraz Island, came a story today that one of the convicts in the prison deliberately had chopped off his own hand with an axe.

The story, which prison authorities did not deny, was published in the San Francisco Chronicle and caused the prisoner only as "Personal."

Secretly obtaining an axe, he filed the edge to razor-sharpness. Then, last night, the Chronicle's story said, he held the axe in his right hand and with a single stroke chopped off the left.

He is said to have handed the axe to another prisoner with the plea: "Cut off my right hand."

The second convict called guards.

GRASSHOPPERS ATTACK THE FARMER'S PANTS

Marland, Neb., July 29.—(AP)—From Lawrence Trussell came new reports of grasshopper devastation today.

Lawrence said he was busy running a grain binder and generally minding his own business when suddenly he glanced down to see grasshoppers busy devouring his pants.

The lower part of the trousers, he said, were torn to shreds.

DEVASTATING BOMBARDMENT OF TIENTSIN

Many of Principal Buildings Set on Fire

SUDDEN ATTACK

BULLETIN

Washington, July 29.—(AP)—Secretary Hull conferred with President Roosevelt today on the Sino-Japanese crisis in North China.

The secretary told newsmen later that the situation continues to be serious in the far east. He indicated, however, no specific action by the United States government was contemplated at this time.

Hull told newsmen that plans now under consideration for evacuation of American citizens from Peiping also include if they are put into effect, the 550 American nationals living in Tientsin, scene of the latest fighting between Chinese and Japanese troops.

The secretary added, however, that the possibility of a large scale evacuation of Americans from the two cities still was in the study stage.

Among Americans registered in Tientsin are Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Malen, Decatur, Ill., and their five children, all allies.

THIRD SOVIET POLAR FLIGHT STARTS TODAY

Levanefsky, Known as Lindbergh of Russia, Pilot

Fairbanks, Alaska, July 29.—(AP)—Daylight around the clock and ideal weather conditions most of the way lay ahead of a third Soviet transpolar airplane flight, scheduled to start from Moscow today for an unannounced destination in America.

An American-trained pilot, Sigismund Levanefsky, known as the "Lindbergh of Russia," set the take off for 7 a. m. (est). Three to five other persons will accompany Levanefsky in a four-motored plane.

Fairbanks was listed as a refueling stop. A group of Russian engineers hastily completed establishing a refueling station here, where plane can land, take on gas and they fly on—possibly to Chmichago or New York.

Perfect Weather

The U. S. signal corps' giant northland radio network was busy again long before the flight started, sending out reports of good weather most of the way and of ideal temperatures prevailing on the American coast.

CLAIMS FOWL ARE LURED AWAY AND ARE "HOOKED"

Jolet, Ill., July 29.—(AP)—Anglers were told today to confine their fishing to waters and keep their worm-baited fishhooks out of John Voight's chicken yard. Deputy Sheriff Gordon Green issued the warning after being told by Voight that his fowl were being lured away and hooked.

Mound Grove Has 14 Miles New Roads

Resurfacing of 11-14 miles of road in the grounds of Mound Grove cemetery with asphalt has just been completed by the Shidler construction company.

This work completes a program of improvements which have extended over a year at a cost of over $10,000, according to Charles H. Bass, superintendent of the cemetery association.

On Saturday the grounds will again be open to the public. Besides the road improvements, two new entrances have been constructed and rest rooms remodelled.

Many 1937 Model Autos in Used Car Sales This Week

There are used cars among the automobiles displayed by local dealers that look like the very latest models. It is difficult to see the difference between some of them and the current model car. This is because local dealers have been in business a long time and have established a clientele, which changes after being told by Voight that his fowl were being lured away and hooked.

These cars are always in tip-top mechanical condition, because they have received the best of care, and they have yet to deliver the bulk of their mileage. Their owners desire the very latest in style and are willing to make a sacrifice to obtain it. Other cars this year's models, are those that have been repossessed for lack of payment or because of some condition over which the owner had no control.

It is cars like these that Kankakee dealers have put on the market for this week's special selling.

First they wish to provide everybody with a better car than they have now and to do it the dealers are cutting prices, accepting the old car as first payment and arranging attractive term payments. It has been pretty well established that old model cars are expensive to operate; so much so that all the pleasure of driving is destroyed by the thought of it.

They are also a hazard on the road and to make traveling safer should be taken off the highways and really, with the cars Kankakee dealers are offering this week, there should be no valid excuse for a man driving a car that does not give him pleasure in driving.

Scan over the classified pages tonight and see if some dealer has not the car you want. Then go see him and close a deal which in the end will save you real cash.

Belgrade Police Fight Attendants at Funeral Rites

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, July 29.—(UP)—Hundreds of casualties were reported today as police forcibly dispersed crowds who made funeral services for the Patriarch Varnava, head of the Greek Orthodox church, the occasion for riotous demonstrations in protest against the government's concordat with the Vatican.

At Sarajevo church services for the dead Patriarch were accompanied by riots in which 10 persons and 20 policemen were injured. Angry crowds leaving the church smashed windows of the house of the minister of posts and damaged the office of a pro-government editor.

The casualties occurred when gendarmes fired on a crowd gathered in front of the postoffice.

The worst fighting in Belgrade occurred in the vicinity of Slavica. Police broke up the larger demonstration and pursued smaller groups up side streets.

Following services at the cathedral and cemetery, the Patriarch was escorted by the former minister of the Holy Synod, a Rumanian, Albanian and Bulgarian Patriarch, to the cathedral for a funeral service.

They drank toasts to the holy church and sang songs of mourning.

Authorities feared a religious war was dangerously near as thousands of Orthodox Christians participated in the funeral and mourning ceremonies.

Seeking Cure for a "Phobic Polion"

Madison, Wis., July 29.—(AP)—While working job today, William Elmer Leonard, a white-haired University of Wisconsin professor, was reported seeking a psychiatrist who could help him cure a "phobic polion."

He said he had been told to take any and every medicine he could get, but that he had not been helped.

The Milwaukee Sentinel quoted Leonard as saying:

"I have been told to take any and every medicine I could get, but that I have not been helped."

FLORENCE WINS 2-1 AS TAMMEN STOPS URBANA

Urban: July 29—(RN Special)—With Leo Fanning in superb form, the Florence "Tangers" football team dedicated the newly lighted field.

Urbana July 29—RNC Specialty With De Lannan in the lead, the Florida "Ranger" lighted trail dominated the Wednesday night with a victory riding out a 2 to 1 winner over Urbana before a crowd of 1,200.

Lannan whiffed 13 opposing batsmen, and allowed only a hit. Al Henderson, playing the home team, batted out a terrific home run in the seventh inning with the score tied 1-1 to win the game for the Kangaroos. RNC Superintendent of the Florida aggregation garnered 14 hits but 4 appearances at the plate.

Now, Urbana Rally

Leaning over his brother pitching beautifully, pulled a catchers glove to nip an Upright relay. With 2 out, a man on third base, Catcher Cachill threw the ball hard toward second base. Tammen leaped into the air, caught the ball and trapped the man at third base to end the inning.

Tomorrow night the Rogers play Naperville at Florence Field. Previously this season Florence whipped Naperville 4 to 3, a team that holds a 6 to 3 record over Roseau.

Foley to Promote Trotting Horses

Chicago, July 25.—Joe Foley, co-promoter with Max Jacobs, of the heavy-weight championship battle in which Joe Louis won the title from James J. Braddock last month, was in the market today bidding for the proposed match race between the world's two track trotting horses, Greyhound and Mapleone.

Polley said he had the support of Italian Consul Franco Fontana, Sheldon Clark of the Sporting Club of Illinois and Tom Hogan, Chicago harness racing enthusiast, in his effort to bring the race to Chicago. He said a purse of $10,000 for the winner would be guaranteed. Mac-donell, bred in the United States, is owned by Gino Malana, while Greyhound races for E. J. G. of the Chicago, Ill.

Springfield, Mass. — Steve Casey, Ireland, defeated Rube Wright, Texas, straight falls.

Ontario, Ont. — Yvon Robert, Montreal, defeated Dr. Freddie Meyers, Chicago, straight falls.

STORIES IN STAMPS

LAND OF LAST COLONIES

TWENTY years after the World War, which jolted German territorial ambitions, the Nazi cry for colonies was ringing around the globe once more. Regaining her possessions in Africa became one of the first aims of Herr Hitler.

As early as 1888, Germany's ambitions in the east central portion of Africa were recognized by European nations. Operating secretly, German agents had concluded "treaties" with several native chieftains, thereby obtaining large mainland acquisitions.

The extension of German authority in the interior, however, met with bitter opposition. Revolts flared and a rebellion of the Wangoni in 1905-6 entailed the loss of 120,000 lives. Not until German colonial agents adopted British settlement policies did African colonization develop satisfactorily.

And then came the great war, resulting in the conquest of German East Africa by British and Belgian troops. Belgium was assigned a mandate over part of the German lands conquered.

The stamp below, surcharged, was issued after Belgium assumed its mandate over the 22,550 square miles of territory on the eastern limits of the Congo.
