EARLY HISTORY OF CITY FOUND IN OLD BOOKS

NOW IN MUSEUM

The history of the 85-year-old city of Kankakee has always been one of constant growth and achievement, but that growth was little short of phenomenal during the city's "formative" years.

Until 1853 when the Illinois Central railroad was completed through here, the town site was known only as a convenient place to ford the river. Five years later "the place where the railroad crossed the river" was a bustling little city of 5,000.

The railroad gave the town its first name—Kankakee Depot—simply because it erected a tiny station at this whistling point and had to designate it in some manner. The center of activity previous to 1853 was Bourbonnais, whose villagers had waged a successful battle to keep the puffing, fuming, noisy "iron horse" out of their town.

Indian's Paradise
Kankakee county, the heart of the Kankakee river valley, was considered a paradise by the Pottawatomie Indians before the white man came. A placid stream bordered by groves of stately oak, hickory, maple and cedar trees meandered through a rolling landscape which in some places gently sloped to the water's edge and in others ended abruptly in sheer bluffs of limestone.

The river abounded with many varieties of fish, the woods and prairies were thickly populated with game and the soil was so fertile that anything produced in the temperate zone grew here.

Little wonder that the Indians called it "Ti-yar-ackee" (wonderful land, wonderful home), later known to the French as "The Ak-ki-ki" which was corrupted to "Kankakee."

All this land and much more was ceded to the federal government in 1832 at the treaty of Camp Tippecanoe, drawn up by 61 Indian chiefs and four United States government commissioners.

Settlers Arrive
As soon as the news of the transfer of this desirable land reached New York, Vermont and other eastern states, young men flocked here to establish homes.

Noel LeVasseur, credited by several historians as being the first white settler in Kankakee county, arrived in 1832 with his Indian wife, Watcheke, for whom the city of Watseka Severe Magnetic Storm in Parts of Country This A. M.

New York, April 16—(AP)—One of the most severe magnetic storms of the twentieth century swept across North America today, disrupting communications systems for several hours in many sections.

Scientists said the storm was caused by sunspot activity. They described the accompanying display of Aurora Borealis in the northern tier of states as the most brilliant in 35 years.

The rare "northern lights," gleaming like a giant neon tube in the heavens, flickered in bright streaks that ranged from dim pink to "almost blood red" in color, Harvard Observatory reported.

Relatively few persons saw the aurora, however, for the display died for several hours.

Easter Rabbit Comes Early to Kankakee

Rita Gene Bregener, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bregener of 384 North Dearborn avenue, wanted to make sure the Easter rabbit didn't forget her, so she did her hunting a day early. Rita found a whole nest of eggs and a big handsome albino rabbit (lucky girl!). In many Kankakee homes where there are young children, the tots will go a-hunting tomorrow morning.

Weather Man is Promising Good Easter Weather

Chicago, April 16—(AP)—If you're going to be in Illinois tomorrow, you can don your Easter finery and have no qualms about the weather.

Forecaster J. R. Lloyd said Illinois would have clear skies and temperatures in the middle sixties. He added that there might be a few clouds in the early morning, but by the time the family starts to church, father can leave his topcoat open, junior won't even need to cover his new suit with the old winter overcoat, and the sun will shine brightly on mother's and sister's new bonnets.

There will be a light rainfall in some parts of the middle west Easter morning, Lloyd predicted, but Illinois will have its rain late today and tonight in the form of local thundershowers.

The body will arrive at 11:10 o'clock Sunday morning and will be removed to the Hertz Memorial temple where friends may call until Monday morning when it will be removed to the Buckingham Methodist church for services at 2 p. m. Monday with the Rev. G. P. Sneider officiating. Burial will be in the family lot at Eldridgeville cemetery.

Iroquois Hospital Gets New Manager

Watseka, April 16—(RN Special)—Merton E. Knisely of Chicago, newly appointed superintendent of Iroquois hospital here, expects to arrive Tuesday to go over his new work with Stanley L. Sims, whose resignation was announced Thursday.

Sims will leave May 1 to accept a similar position at the Lutheran hospital, LaCrosse, Wis. Sims was head of the local institution for two years and made many friends while here.

The new administrative head of the local infirmary has been an adherent of the University of Chicago hospital clinics for nearly four years. Recently he was awarded his bachelor's degree at that institution.

Kniesley accepted the contract tendered him Thursday night by the board of trustees, J. D. McCarthy, Stephen G. Malo and I. M. Goldstein.

Farmers In This County Being Duped

Washington, April 16—(RN Special)—Pointing to tremendous increases in imports of corn, wheat and other Kankakee county products, Congressman Albert G. Rutherford of Pennsylvania charged that the American farmer is being sold down the river by the administration's reciprocal trade agreement program.

He pointed out that imports of corn increased from 347,627 bushels in 1932 to 86,337,248 bushels in 1937; that wheat imports jumped from 3,395 bushels in 1932 to 17,434,837 in 1937; and that there were similar gains in other products competing with American produced foods.

"The New Deal says we must have imports from other countries feeling kindly toward us, yet the President and his friends have asked congress to spend the largest peacetime fund to build up the biggest navy that we ever had," he said. "If the reciprocal trade program will do the trick, why build a navy?"

Arrest Boy, 16 Years Old, as Gun-Toter

Vivian Denton, 16-year-old Momence boy who has carried a gun, was a prisoner in the county jail today, charged with disorderly conduct.

The warrant for his arrest yesterday at Momence was issued at the request of Mrs. Luella Tanner, county probation officer. Deputy Sheriff Gene LaFontaine made the arrest.

A dependent child, and therefore a ward of the county court, Denton had been living for several months at the home of Mrs. Charles Bell at Momence. Recently he ran away from there and returned to his former home at Momence, but his father took him back to the Bell home.

The Bell family was not at home on this occasion but when they returned they found the house ransacked and the boy gone. He hitchhiked to Ludington, Mich.

It was later learned that he had sold some of the clothing of the Bell children in Kankakee.

Deputy Sheriff LaFontaine learned that Denton, enroute to Michigan, had stopped at the village "bum room" at Grant Park over night and had hidden a .38 caliber revolver under the mattress.

WATSEKA WIFE BLAMES MATE IN BABIES' DEATHS

Says Husband Beat
Her for Refusing Abortion

BROKE HAND

Watseka, April 16—(RN Special)—Herman E. Barwick of Chicago, former piano and furniture store operator here, is accused of habitual drunkenness and cruelty in a bill of divorce filed in circuit court this morning by his wife, Laura. Four instances of cruelty are cited.

She charges him with being responsible for their second child's death as a result of a whipping administered to her during pregnancy. This beating occurred July 10, 1934 in Watseka, she alleged. The child died shortly after birth.

Mrs. Barwick states that a similar attack also occurred on Feb. 5, 1933 when he became intoxicated and struck her because she refused to have an abortion. That child also died in infancy.

Hit Her Hard
In April of 1935, she asserted, he ran away to keep from being arrested on disorderly conduct charges preferred by her. She later rejoined him in Detroit and on Dec. 20, 1936 she alleges that he hit her with such force that he fractured his own hand. Another attack occurred Jan. 18, 1937 and she left him last April 9.

They were married Jan. 3, 1931 in Waukegan. Mrs. Barwick is represented by Attorneys Stephen Maje and Wallace Bell.

Watseka, April 16—(RN Special)—Howard Smith, 15, of Cullom, was in the custody of Sheriff Phil Brown today after admitting the theft of three automobiles last evening.

The boy stole the first in Piper City, drove to Onarga, abandoned it and took another, then went to Momence with a third vehicle.

Sheriff Brown broadcast reports over the state police radio system and the youth was apprehended in Momence by William Bulowski, night policeman. The Onarga car was owned by Roy Calley of that village.

Howard will be arraigned in juvenile court.

Amnesty Extended to One Thousand Prisoners

Praha, Czechoslovakia, April 16—(AP)—President Eduard Benes, delivering his annual Easter speech before parliament today, reasserted the Czechoslovaks' earnest desire to come to an understanding with Germany and underscored his words by proclaiming the most inclusive amnesty yet extended to political offenders.

The 3,500,000 Sudeten Germans, many of whom under Nazi leadership have been demanding autonomy and whose rights Chancellor Adolf Hitler has declared he will protect, will profit chiefly from this amnesty.

Peaceful Nation
"We are anxious that nothing be done by us that might increase the international tension between the great powers," said President Benes.

"We are sincerely searching for a lasting understanding with all our neighbors. We have special faith in an understanding between ourselves and Germany and this too in the spirit of the communications that have come to us from the responsible German factors."

"We decline to line up on this side or that of an ideological front and decline to be forced into such a lineup."

"We believe that peace can be preserved only if the various regimes respect each other and if no state interferes directly or indirectly with the affairs of another state."

"Czechoslovakia will contribute to the maintenance of European peace by a just solution of the nationalities problem."

Appeals to All
"I appeal to our citizens irrespective of party membership, to the Czechs and the Slovaks, to the Germans and the Hungarians, to the Ruthenians and the Poles."

EASTER ACCORD SIGNED BY TWO NATIONS TODAY

Ending Three Years of Disagreement
Between Them

AWAIT FRANCE

Rome, April 16—(AP)—Italy and Great Britain tonight signed an Easterlike pact to end nearly three years of often dangerous differences and bring peace to Europe.

The accord was signed by Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano and the Earl of Perth, the British ambassador, in Chigi palace while diplomats and newspapermen looked on.

It Duce and Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain already have approved the treaty to end Anglo-Italian friction which started when British-backed sanctions were applied by the league of nations against Italy Nov. 18, 1935.

Principal provisions of the pact were to bring speedy recognition of the Italian conquest of Ethiopia, withdrawal of Italian troops from Spain, and to recognize and protect each other's rights in the Mediterranean.

May Establish Peace
The hope this pact eventually would bring peace to Europe was based on the plan to have France reach a similar accord with Italy, which then would bring Great Britain, Germany and Italy into a possible working agreement to stabilize the continent.

Called Eden's Resignation
The treaty was fruit of talks Ciano and Perth started March 2, carrying out the British prime minister's revised foreign policy of seeking agreements with Europe's dictators.

It was over this policy that Anthony Eden quit as British foreign minister February 20.

The agreement consists of a protocol with eight annexes, an appendix, a declaration and an exchange of letters. Two copies each of the document were signed by Perth and Ciano.

The Egyptian minister, Mustapha El Sadek Bey, signed those sections concerning relations with Egypt.

Provisions Announced Tonight
The text of the agreement was kept secret for announcement at midnight tonight (6 p. m. est).

Formalities or signing took place in the Chigi palace victory room where the same representatives of Italy and Britain signed a "gentlemen's agreement" Jan. 2, 1937 which failed to attain the desired result (Continued on page two)

A. L. Bowen to Talk to Local Doctors

Members of the Kankakee County Medical society and their wives, as well as physicians from surrounding towns, will be guests of the medical staff of the Kankakee state hospital at 7 o'clock Thursday evening in the new diagnostics building at the institution.

Three speakers will appear on the program, A. L. Bowen, director of the state department of public welfare, Springfield; Dr. Lewis J. Pollock, head of the department of nervous and mental diseases at Northwestern university; and Dr. Norman G. Becker of the Kankakee state hospital staff.

the associated employers organization of Illinois and was a member of the employers' joint technical committee during the course of hearings conducted on the measure which was later adopted by the state legislature.

Payroll Tax Expert
He has handled payroll tax problems of many Chicago corporations, attended many hearings at Washington and in neighboring states, and was special lecturer at John Marshall law school on the subject of payroll taxes.

He holds a doctor of law degree from the University of Chicago and is connected with a prominent Chicago law firm. Several Kankakee businessmen who have heard him talk in other cities have advised members of the industrial committee that his appearance here will provide a real opportunity for every employer in the county to obtain valuable information on the problem.

Following his talk an open forum will be conducted.

"THE GOLDWYN FOLLIES" HERE FOR 3 DAYS

Musical Extravaganza to Open Sunday at Paramount

Presenting a dazzling array of stars and a variety of talent that staggers the imagination, "The Goldwyn Follies," the glorious technicolor musical extravaganza which marks the first entertainment in Goldwyn's 25 years of picture-making to carry the producer's name, begins a three day engagement at the Paramount theater on Sunday.

The musical, which also marks the producer's swing to the color standard, has been produced on a scale more lavish, more opulent and more magnificent than anything the screen has ever known. Goldwyn invaded every field of entertainment to find stars to augment the screen cast headed by suave Adolphe Menjou, The Ritz Brothers and the beautiful, rising young star, Andrea Leeds.

Parade of Stars
From radio he took Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy, the comedy sensation of the world; Kenny Baker, Jack Benny's silver-voiced romanticist; irrepressible Phil Baker and his accordion; from grand opera, lovely Helen Jepson and the sensational newcomer, Charles Kullmann; from the world of the dance, the beautiful Zorina and George Balanchine's American Ballet of the Metropolitan Opera; and from musical comedy goggle-eyed Bobby Clark to clown with petite Ella Logan.

Then there are the hand-picked Gorgeous Goldwyn Girls as well as Hollywood's 12 loveliest and most talented tap dancers; Jerome Cowan, Nydia Westman, Frank Shields and a hundred more who fit into the pattern of one of Ben Hecht's best stories—a comedy of Hollywood which casts Menjou as a film producer out of touch with his public, and Andrea Leeds as the typical American girl whom he hires as "Miss Humanity" to keep him posted on what the public wants.

Luna Feature Depicts Boss Rule In City

The veil of mystery is torn off the man behind the throne in the typical American boss-ruled city in "Dangerous to Know," the thrill-packed drama, which will have its first local showing at the owl show tonight at the Luna theater. The film stars Gail Patrick, Akim Tamiroff and Anna May Wong.

Tamiroff, last seen as the pirate chief's lieutenant in Cecil B. DeMille's "The Buccaneer," shows the private life of a political racketeer in this story of a boss who loses his life when he loses his head over a beautiful society girl.

The political ringmaster is not only the mass murderer and the mechanic behind the puppet-show in City Hall, but a lonely and depressed human whose desire to forget his humble origin amounts almost to a mania. In his efforts to win a beautiful socialite, who can open the doors of high society for him, Tamiroff makes the first serious mistake of his career. He thrusts aside Miss Wong, a life-long friend who has carefully guided him to the peak of power, and pays for it with his life.

Miss Wong, who recently played an espionage agent in "Daughter of Shanghai," has another of her sleek oriental roles as Tamiroff's friend and mentor, who takes her own life in order to make the boss pay for his career of terror and murder. Often called "Hollywood's most sophisticated actress," Miss Wong moves quietly behind the scenes of the city's political show, bending powerful men to her will.

"Dangerous to Know" has many well known character players in the supporting cast, such as Lloyd Nolan, Anthony Quinn, Roscoe Karns and Porter Hall.

Good Appearance Advertisers Good Service

At last, the service and wrecker truck has gone modern. This striking unit plays a double role, serving as a mobile advertising billboard as well as a rescue car. "Tugboat Annie" is so well known around her home town of Mankato, Minnesota, that people in that vicinity automatically send for her, when they are forced to run up the S.O.S. signal. Firestone Ground Grip tires in the rear provide the super traction that is required in towing and wrecking service.
