APPROVE PARK

Formal election of a slate of officers proposed by the nominating committee and tentative plans for next year was the principal business considered by the Kankakee Business and Professional Women's club Wednesday evening.

The business meeting, preceded by a picnic supper, was held at the home of the late Dr. A. S. Small on the south side where former Gov. Len Small was born. The meeting place had been kept a secret from the members and the disclosure proved a happy one. Supper was served on the porch and the business session followed.

Endorse Project
The club has endorsed the Hopkings Park conservation project whereby several thousand acres will be made into a forest preserve and wild life haven. The club is planning a visit to Pembroke township this month.

The Kankakee club was recently admitted to membership in the International Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs which has representatives in countries all over the world.

New Officers
Mrs. Fannie Still was reelected president of the club in the formal election. Other officers are: Miss Ruby Heller, first vice president; Miss Helen Shuman, second vice president; Miss Florence Cole, recording secretary; Miss Ruth Cotton, corresponding secretary; Miss Rebecca H. Day, treasurer and Mrs. Lillian C. Jones, parliamentarian.

Miss Elva Parker was chairman of the nominating committee. Miss Annette Goussert, who has served as treasurer for the past two years and who has called all members for reservations for each meeting, was presented with a gift by the club.

Guests at the meeting included Mrs. J. M. Simpson of Seattle and Mrs. Herbert Sobotka of Portland, sister-in-law and niece of Mrs. Still.

J. D. Levin, federal project engineer for the Bradley postoffice, has completed a survey for the new Kankakee postoffice building and will be in charge here when operations begin.

Architects are now studying Levin's survey preparatory to drawing tentative plans for the $220,000 structure.

POSSE RESUMES ITS SEARCH IN SOUTH FLORIDA

Countryside Combed by Farmers and G-Men

HOLD SUSPECTS

Princeton, Fla., June 2.—(AP)—Federal agents called upon reinforced posses today to help solve the kidnaping of James Bailey Cash, Jr., although there was no development upon which to base even a hope the five-year-old tow-headed boy was alive.

The augmented searching force took the field at dawn, concentrating on areas north of the Cash home, the countryside southward having been combed yesterday.

Nine police radio cars from Miami cruised back roads, picking up instructions broadcast from headquarters established in a vegetable warehouse here and relaying them to posses.

The federal men centered efforts on tracking down the abductors, who accepted a $10,000 ransom payment without returning the victim. In their custody were several persons—no outsider knew exactly how many—and a number of funds regarded as clues. But if the government's "kidnap squad" already knew who took young Cash from his bedroom Saturday night it was a closely-guarded secret.

Fear Child Dead
An indication of what the FBI men think the chances are, was contained in final instructions of E. J. Connelley, head of the justice department forces, to the posse.

"We must face the strong possibility this little boy will be found dead," Connelley told the posse leaders. "If you see signs of freshly disturbed dirt—dig. Take your time and dig deeply. Look well in every canal you pass, and in every clump of bushes. Overlook nothing."

J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the FBI, took charge of the case today while small boats and divers augmented the huge posse.

Arriving at Miami from Washington, Hoover hastened immediately to the FBI office in a downtown skyscraper where agents have been questioning suspects for 24 hours. He refused, like his subordinates, to Search Woods For Iroquois County Youth.

Watseka, June 2.—(RN Special)—A searching party today was combing the woodlands east of Woodland, small village south of here, in an effort to find Lloyd Walker, 17-year old high school student who has been missing since 9 o'clock yesterday morning.

Sheriff Phil Brown ordered the searchers into the woods when he learned from the boy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Walker, that the boy is a nature lover, like to hunt for insects and small animals and go on hikes through the woods and along streams.

If the search through the woods is unsuccessful, Sheriff Brown indicated that Sugar Creek, which flows through the forest land east of Woodland, may be dragged.

The boy wore strange attire when he left home yesterday morning. He was dressed in basketball shorts, an athletic jersey and tennis shoes.

The parents told the sheriff that their son did not indicate where he was going and that his behavior was not different than usual.

Woman Hit and Run Driver Hits Child

Martin Edward Koerner, 6, of 826 South Third avenue, is a patient in St. Mary hospital with a broken leg sustained late yesterday when a hit-and-run driver struck the boy and ran over him.

The accident happened at 5:45 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Martin and other children were walking across the intersection at Third and Water streets near the south side park when two persons in a brown colored car approached them. Martin was unable to get out of the way and one wheel of the car passed over his left leg. The occupants of the car, believed to be two women, slowed up, but drove on, it was said.

Failure to report an accident in which anyone is injured is in violation of state law, police reminded today. It is the responsibility of the driver to report such accidents immediately.

Patient, 80 Years Old, Asks Release at State Hospital

Circuit Judge W. R. Hunter yesterday granted a writ of habeas corpus effecting the release of "Harry" Skoglund, 80, from the Kankakee state hospital.

The petition was filed by Walter E. Samson of Rockford, a nephew of Skoglund, who was represented by a Rockford attorney and Attorney Elmer C. Wilson.

The petition asserts that Skoglund is sane and that his commitment from Cook county last March was the result of a dispute between him and his daughter Mrs. Jane Wallingford of Chicago.

Dr. C. W. Morrow, head of the state hospital, was represented by State's Attorney Samuel H. Shapiro who did not oppose the petition, the opposition being by the daughter.

Borland New President of Civic Group

Harold Borland of 950 East Merchant street, vice president of the Exchange club, was elevated to the office of president for a six months term at the club's semi-annual meeting held Wednesday evening at the Casper Jaffe river cottage.

The new president will succeed Anthony Yonke to office June 29 at an installation and "ladies night" meeting. Other officers chosen include Clarence Kennedy, vice president; Carl Smith, secretary-treasurer; and Chapin Ellis, M. L. Baker and Morris Jaffe, members of the board of control.

The latter three will serve with holdover members, Rev. John F. Norman, William Palenskee and Ferdinand Bacus.

Last night, as the payoff for winning an attendance contest during May, the "Cubs" team treated the "Sox" to a steak fry. Chapin Ellis, who is governor of this Exchange district, was presented with a service pin for his efforts in behalf of the organization. D. C. Ray, secretary, reported that to date $300 had been expended by the club in its benevolent work of providing needy school children with eyeglasses.

MAN RELEASED YESTERDAY STATE ASYLUM

Beats Wife and Two Little Children with Hammer

THEN COLLAPSED

Charles Jakus, 51, who was released yesterday from Kankakee hospital, arose early this morning at his home in Chicago to beat death his two children and severely injure his wife with a claw hammer.

He had been in the state hospital since 1934 as an alcoholic. Last Oct. 16, when he arrived at his Chicago home last night, he began drinking whiskey, according to reports from Chicago police.

Their skulls crushed, Leonard and Eleanor, 18 months, died several hours after police found bleeding and unconscious in beds. Their mother Anna, 29, slipped out of the house to seek help, suffered a jaw fracture. Hospital physicians said her condition is not critical.

Killer in Daze
According to police, Jakus found lying on the floor of his home. He appeared dazed and was unable to rouse him.

"I went to bed at midnight," Dr. G. W. Morrow, acting chief of the state hospital, said this morning that Jakus was a "good" patient during the months he was in the institution.

"We kept him longer than average alcoholic patient," said Morrow. His behavior led us to believe he would get along all right. He was paroled to his wife.

Wife Wakes Up
She awoke this morning. Police Officer John Hanrahan said he was awakened by some hitting me, a sort of shock. I saw and saw my husband standing over me with the hammer in hand.

"He hit me a couple more times and I got up and fought him. He hit me again and I managed to get away from him. I got my shoes and ran out to get the police. I didn't think he'd hit me. I wouldn't have gone if I'd known that."

Extremely Jealous
She said her husband was killed after she had him at because of his extreme jealousy. She said he was continually accused her of going with other men, she said.

She told police he always been a heavy drinker and much of his salary as a manager for whiskey. While he was in the hospital she was on relief.

"He came home yesterday, told me he was cured," she said.

FDR Tells Naval Graduate Why He Slept During Address

Annapolis, Md., June 2.—(AP)—President Roosevelt advised the naval academy's graduating midshipmen today to acquire a well-rounded knowledge of "modern civilization" in addition to their training as officers of the navy.

"That applies," the president said, "to all of world thought and world problems but it applies, of course, with special emphasis to the thoughts and problems of our own nation."

The president stood before the white-bloused graduates as their commander-in-chief and told them they would never "reach the top" and stay at the top unless they became well-rounded in their knowledge of all factors of civilization "that lie outside of your own special profession."

He gave this a political twist when he recalled an incident in a conversation he once had with President Theodore Roosevelt.

He related that a conversation with Theodore Roosevelt, had been defeated in congress by a coalition of members who saw no special advantage to their own congressional districts.

"I wish," the president said, "the present chief executive quoted Teddy Roosevelt saying, 'we could have a constitutional amendment requiring that person could run for congress 48 states in the union.'"

Simplicity is Newest Trend in Tombstones

Salt Lake City, Utah, June 2.—(INS)—The modern trend in tombstones is toward simplicity, according to James S. Walker of Salt Lake City, who has been cutting and polishing grave markers for the past 38 years.

"We solemnly staff Captain W. I. Penneke," have sworn off fish stories. No more will members of the association issue pointed and phony accounts of the size and amount of fish we caught."

LIQUOR FIND SPEEDS WORK

Patella, Ida, June 2.—(UP)—WPA workers, including a food near hiker, unearthed a cache of a pre-prohibition bootlegger. The quick-moving, modern trend, they are more streamlined than they once were," Walker explained.

Once the demand was great for the extra trills such as fling doves or angels, but now conforming to the times, our market designs are more simple.

The old custom of inscribing the deceased's life history on his grave stone also is going out of style.

"Now county and city governments keep records of birth and death, so that a person's history doesn't have to be carved in marble," Walker pointed out.

Kidnaped Boy Shy

Little James Bailey Cash, kidnaped from his home at Princeton, Ill., was afraid of strangers as is evident from his expression in this exclusive photograph. He is shown pedaling his velocipede.

Letter covers 7,000 miles. Lawrence, Mass.—(INS)—A letter mailed in Lawrence travelled 7,000 miles before delivery here two days ago.

The letter, sent out in Mass., nearly missed Boston, but was picked up by Walter A. Griffin travelling by air busy 29th as their birthday.

See Television Linking Britain and U. S. Soon

London, June 2.—(U.S.)—British television experts, cooperating with American technicians, believe that in two years time America and Britain will be able to "look into each other's affairs."

An expert connected with the British Broadcasting company, and television ad. manufacturers, said that he is convinced that in another two years America and the BBC will cooperate to perfect the reception of each other's television broadcasts. It has been found that radio waves which were supposed to leave the air altogether now return at great distances from the original station. Television signals, from Alexander Palace—the first station to be picked up all over the world, Capetown, Philadelphia and many other distant points are receiving these signals while being relayed to the television screen.

SHEEP GRASS—LONG LEGS

Colorado Museum Adds Dangerous Lizard Specimens

Denver, June 2.—(U.S.)—Two interesting but ugly and dangerous specimens of lizards were recently added to the collection in the Colorado Museum of Natural History.

They were Gila monsters, from the mountains of southern Arizona. With the exception of one other species found in the same region, the Gila monster is the only poisonous lizard.

Their venom is similar in effects to some types of snake poison. They are found in the lower as well as in the upper, and there are 16 of them.

These lizards are ugly and dangerous, and when a wild specimen is approached suddenly, it usually opens its mouth and hisses audibly.

"It bites with a jerky motion and jabs on with a sticky grip, opening savagely in order to imbibe its toxin as deeply as possible."

The Gila monster, Bailey said, was undoubtedly the ugliest living creature.

BIG RISE IN LIVING COST IN FRANCE

By THOMAS W. HUSON, JR.

Living costs in France are rising at a faster rate than in any other country in the world. The cost of living in Paris is more than 100 percent higher than it was in 1913. The cost of living in the provinces is also rising, but at a slower rate.

LAFFEY SIGNS COACH AT BRADLEY HIGH SCHOOL.

LEAVES ST. PATRICK POSITION AFTER FIRST SEASON

James "Pete" Laffey, coach of St. Patrick high school, today accepted a similar position at Bradley high school filling a vacancy created when James J. Cook tendered his resignation several weeks ago to take over the physical education department and coaching job at Balausta. Laffey, one of the greatest athletes in the history of St. Victor college, graduated from the Bradley normal institution in 1933 after which he took over the coaching task at Bonfield high school. He served Bonfield for two terms, bringing the school along athletically. He then signed a contract to become head coach at Chesham.

Before his Chesham contract went into force, Laffey was offered the coaching job at St. Patrick where Laffey had been holding forth successfully until he decided to quit. Laffey sought release from his contract and this was granted. He then took over the job at St. Patrick where he had little, if any, material with which to mold his teams this year.

Catching a Few Off First:

By ORREN ALLAN

St. Patrick high school continues to do as it has done with marked success in the past, pick its coach from St. Victor college. The school has considerable material from which to make a selection this time.

Clarence J. "Puff" Romary, the first hired-by-the-year minor in the history of St. Patrick, hailed from St. Victor and successfully coached the same old Comstock team the same process that carried him through college on the state of athletic brilliance. Several years after taking the St. Patrick job, Romary took the same old Comstock team to the national Catholic basketball tournament. He then quit coaching to devote his entire time to business.

Athletic Director Father Corcoran reached out then and grabbed himself another Victorian. This time it was Pete Laffey. A paucity of material greeted, or shall we say, haunted Laffey as he took over the reins. But that fact proved no bar to the ever-smiling Chicago teacher. He plodded and pined and came out on top in his first season. The result: He took the job, and took it yesterday in the form of a Bradley contract.

Father Corcoran now must sit down and ponder a replacement for Laffey. Discussing the possibility of Laffey taking the Bradley job before the contract had been signed, Father Corcoran said he didn't figure it would be too difficult a job to find a good man. He then quit coaching prospects—right in our own back yard.

This "n" that Laffey's name was picked from a weller of applications for the Bradley job. It is a name that has been heard in the football world for a long time. Laffey's football season was a success and he followed this with a surprisingly successful basketball season, whipping the vaunted Bradley basketball team once, and nearly knocking them again in the two regular games between the two institutions.

In addition to coaching and instructing in physical education, Laffey has been in charge of the football team, and he made the announcement today, said Laffey would teach the mathematics classes.

Stamped as Successful Laffey has stamped himself definitely as a successful coach. He entered Bonfield with athletics at a low ebb and although never winning with his teams, he made Bonfield one of the strongest small school teams in this section of the state.

He took over the athletic situation at St. Patrick with only modest material on hand, following the most successful season in the history of the high school and developed his teams to the point where they ranked with the best in the state. Catholic league of high St. Patrick is a member.

7 WINS IN LAST TEN GAMES GIVE A'S FINE CHANCE

By ED FIEDER

Associated Press Sports Writer They laughed when old Comstock McGillicuddy hinted he might do something with his apathetic Athletics this season. They laughed when he tossed a couple of ex-college boys into his lineup, and they wanted to know if he thought a Ph.D. or two could change a situation that looked like the cellar from Philadelphia to Moscow and back.

But they're laughing out of the other side of their faces now. For the venerable Mr. McGillicuddy—here's the same old Comstock team—looks like he really might have something there in Philly. "You don't get the wrong impression into the scrum of the pennant winner that the team leader has been arranged for the 1938-39 U.S. Open, but if even so excellent a tactician as cagy Comstock can pull his boys out of second-division darkness.

Indians Latest Victims But several of the young strikers recently that Mr. Mack finds them in the American leagues. Sam place today, with seven wins in their last 10 starts, the latest A's triumphing over the Chicago Cubs yesterday. The record shows 75 runs, 103 hits in the last 11 games and even Bill Terry is looking enviously at that power. The A's are deep in a hitting slump—so deep in fact, that they've managed to score just one run in the 27 innings of their last three starts. All of them losing efforts. Even against their customary cousins, the Pittsburgh Pirates, the National League leaders looked pretty good yesterday.

Fortier Scores Unusual Win in Softy League

By GARY TAYLOR

Fortier Grocers scored one of the most unusual triumphs in independent softball league history here Wednesday evening when they tallied nine runs on eight walks and a pair of hits in the last inning to overcome and eighth-run lead and whip the Fifth Ward Boosters, 11 to 10.

Three other games were played in the Independent league last evening. Timely hitting and brilliant pitching by Johnny Stanski enabled American, Asphalt to lock Ruid-Swannell, 6 to 1. The hard-warren threatened only once in the third inning but Stanski fanned three batters to quell the uprising.

Brooklyn Factory chalked up a 7 to 2 win over Sons of Italy and the West Side Boosters, current unbeaten league leader, scored the ball freely to swamp the U.T.C. 10 to 1. Les Tammen, twirling for the leaders, yielded only one hit, nearly cracking into the hall of fame again this week. He twirled a no-hitter in last week's games.
