British Plan No Retaliatory Action Because of Bombings

London, June 14.—(AP)—Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain told the house of commons today that Britain planned no retaliatory action because of the bombings of British shipping in the Mediterranean but was trying to work out a system of safety zones to end the attacks.

In his eagerly-awaited statement at the first session following parliament's whitewash recess, Chamberlain said two proposals had been made which "might go some way toward cessation of these attacks."

Safety Zones
The first provides for establishing safety zones in certain harbors, which "although it presents considerable difficulties is being actively investigated," the prime minister said.

The second plan, he continued, was proposed Saturday by the Spanish insurgent government: That "a port in Spanish government territory should be selected outside the zone

Brooke, above, infantry instructor at Fort Benning, Ga., was arrested after the body of Mrs. Brooke, mother of three children, was found in the hallway of her home. ## HOUSE PASSES THE WAGE-HOUR MEASURE TODAY

Senate Action Next Before Bill Goes to White House

Washington, June 14.—(AP)—The house approved the compromise wage-hour bill today.

Only favorable senate action was needed to send the measure to the White House.

The bill would establish minimum wages for interstate industry starting at 25 cents an hour and gradually increasing to 40 cents in seven years. Graduations and exceptions would be worked out by industry committees.

Different wage standards would be permitted between the north and south but their establishment solely for geographical reasons would not be allowed.

The vote came after Speaker Bankhead had overridden a Republican attempt to block final house action.

"Exceeded Authority"
Representative Taber (R-N.Y.) claimed senate and house members who met jointly and drafted the

SEEK FEDERAL FUNDS FOR NEW AROMA PK. DAM

County Board Told River Level is Too Low

T. B. PETITION

A resolution asking members of congress of this district and the state at large to seek federal financial aid for the rebuilding of the dam in the Kankakee river at Aroma Park was adopted at yesterday's session of the county board.

Since the dam broke through some time ago, the resolution states the water level between Aroma Park and Monmouth has been lowered several feet, with the result that large areas of decaying vegetation have been exposed, river property damaged and breeding grounds for fish destroyed.

The board referred to the welfare and election committees a proposal for a special referendum at the November election for the levying of a special tax to create a fund for the care of tuberculous patients in the county.

1,500 Signers

A petition signed by some 1,500 people calls for the special election on the question of special taxation of not more than one and a half mills per dollar of assessed valuation of property.

Louis R. Miller, 153 North Enterprise avenue, was seated as a member of the board to succeed Fred C. Krumm, who died several months ago.

The board also appointed precinct judges and clerks for the coming election, a list of which is now being compiled.

Officers' Reports

Reports of county officers for the past six months were received as follows:

Circuit Clerk Albert Tetrault—receipts $6,957.55, disbursements $3,865.78.

County Sheriff John Stack—receipts $9,961.91, disbursements $6,609.31.

GANG KILLING IN ROADHOUSE; THREE VICTIMS

Pennsylvania Police Investigate Mysterious Case

Tamaqua, Pa., June 14.—(AP)—A mysterious triple killing was disclosed today when state police investigated the shooting of a man who staggered off a highway into a tearoom and died.

County Detective Louis Buono said the men apparently were victims of a "gang killing" in a roadhouse.

Two bodies were found in the abandoned roadhouse, near the tearoom, where the first man died as he sought incoherently to tell his story.

State Policeman Lester Lucas and County Detective Buono said the dead in the roadhouse were believed to be Peter Biscietti and Gustine Starace of Philadelphia. The man who struggled into the tearoom was not identified immediately.

All had been shot in the head. Police found the bodies of Biscietti and Starace in the roadhouse check-room.

The first man staggered into the tearoom while two women were at breakfast.

Later a bloody hat was found about 200 feet from the tearoom. A trail of blood led to the door. The bodies of Biscietti and Starace were discovered when investigators sought the cause of the first man's death.

Auto "Race" on River St. is Called Off

"No cause for action" was the decision given by Police Magistrate Edward Hoenicke late yesterday at the conclusion of evidence in the trial of C. D. Van Arsdale of 153 East Walnut street, charged with driving his truck recklessly on East River street last Wednesday.

The magistrate concluded that Van Arsdale's truck and that of Barney Azarelli, with whom he was accused of racing, did not exceed a speed of 25 miles an hour during the time in question although each truck passed the other one.

The complainant, William Pepin of 1235 East River street, testified that their speed was 45 miles an hour. His testimony was supported in part by John Kosaro of 584 South Elm avenue and William Walkington, 1245 East River street.

The prosecution was conducted by City Attorney Victor Cardosi.

Attorney Vernon Butz represented the defendant, Azarelli and Orville Baron, a passenger of Van Arsdale's truck, also testified. They substantiated the defense version that Azarelli passed Van Arsdale's truck and then slowed down because of loose board rattling on his truck, whereupon Van Arsdale then passed him in turn.

She ran over and grabbed one. A piece of his shirt and suspenders came off in her hands as he struggled free. The boys ran down the street.

Detective Daniel Bergan and Officer Elmer Nelson answered the call. They have the shirt and suspender patterns as evidence.

Brown was identified by Mrs. Annie Lahe, colored, of 630 North Rosewood avenue as the man who was loitering around the Lane henhouse and garage shortly after 5 a. m. She said her husband, William, accosted the man and asked him if he was trying to get into the garage, whereupon the stranger was said to have "sworn at him and trotted off."

The prisoner was picked up in Fred Spurlock's tavern where he said he was "socializing" during the time indicated by the Lanes. Police Magistrate Edward Hoenicke was to hear the case late this afternoon.

Michigan U. Fraternity House Destroyed; Student is Killed

Ann Arbor, Mich., June 14.—(UP)—Flames swept the Alpha Rho Chi fraternity house at the University of Michigan today, killing one student and forcing nine others to flee for their lives.

Richard A. Pollard, 28, Buffalo, N. Y., a senior in the college of architecture, was killed by the smoke and flames.

Only eight students and two guests were in the house when the fire broke out.

Most of the fraternity members fled down the stairway or a fire escape, but Pollard, who had retired only an hour before the fire started, had to be aroused by two companions who were occupying the same room. They carried him to a window but were forced to leave him there when overcome by smoke.

Firemen rescued Pollard's companions but were unable to reach him.

FEAR 150,000 ARE DROWNED; BREAK DIKES

Chinese Fear One of the Worst Catastrophes in History JAPS RETREAT

Shanghai, June 14.—(AP)—Japanese military authorities said tonight they believed 150,000 Chinese civilians had been drowned by flood waters of the Yellow river now spreading over a wide area in northern Honan province.

Flood conditions were said to be worst in the Chungmow area, about 25 miles east of Chengchow, the railway junction which has been the objective of Japan's recent offensive, now stalled by the Yellow river's overflow.

Japanese officers here said they had no information concerning the fate of large Japanese forces scattered through the flooded area.

Most of the victims, they said, were Chinese farmers and their families.

Reports from the war zone along the Lunghai railway, course of Japan's westward push, said dikes of the Yellow river had been broken badly at three main points.

Chungmow city itself was under three feet of water and scores of villages were inundated.

The Japanese asserted their own army engineers were working day and night to fill breaks in the dikes, assisted by hundreds of Chinese farmers, but the work was hampered by Chinese troops firing on the repair crews.

Filling Lowlands
At one point there was said to be a break 500 feet wide in the dikes, through which the flood was racing into the low plains.

Even before the Japanese military reports were received engineers familiar with the Yellow river expressed fears one of the greatest catastrophes of the century was imminent.

Chinese reports from the front said the Japanese had been forced to withdraw as far as Kaileng, 43 miles east of Chengchow on the Lunghai railway.

These reports said the boiling Yellow water was 10 feet deep north of Chungmow, about 25 miles east of Chengchow, that numerous villages were inundated, and that the flood was two and three feet deep at several points where it crossed the Lunghai railway.

Engineers and relief workers familiar with the destruction that can be wrought by "China's sorrow," as the stream is called because of its frequent floods, said the present upsurge was only preliminary to the heavy flow that normally is not at its height until mid-July.

Deliberate Destruction
Deliberate destruction of the dikes, which in many places confine the Pompton Lakes, N. J., June 14.—(UP)—The Joe Louis-Max Schmeling heavyweight title fight a week from tomorrow night has been sold so far as the champion is concerned. Louis will tear out and try to nail his man from the opening bell.

"Any no use fooling around in the 10th round," Joe said. "If he'll stand up and fight me, I'll knock him out before the second round ends. If he doesn't, I'll take four or five."

Joe said he was beaten as a fighter, but I came back to win later from everyone of em. Schmeling ain't no different from the rest. I'll know how to fight him now. I'll beat him in the 10th round. I'll beat him in the 10th round. I'll beat him in the 10th round.

"No fighter can ever be a great fighter until he takes one good licking and learns enough not to let it happen again," Blackburn said. "Joe had his and he ain't gonna take another one, at least not from Schmeling. He learned too much to let Schmeling keep on straight rights this time, and that's why he's picking Joe to win by a knockout."

Joe plans to box four rounds with two sparring partners today.

A GAME GUY WITH A GREAT GAME

There is nothing peculiar about Ralph Guldahl's game. He's just a great player. He's everything right. He has a beautiful box on his nose.

Giants Continue Setting Pace for Kids' Softy Loop

The Giants continued their winning streak by beating the Cubs 10 to 4 Monday night. The Giants tamed the Cubs in the second game 9-2 behind some excellent pitching by Hartung.

Joe said he was beaten as a fighter, but I came back to win later from everyone of em. Schmeling ain't no different from the rest. I'll know how to fight him now. I'll beat him in the 10th round. I'll beat him in the 10th round. I'll beat him in the 10th round.

Louis' trainer, Jack Blackburn, was equally positive that "Chaplin" will be a good fight. Blackburn said he was tagged by Schmeling's right in 1935.

"No fighter can ever be a great fighter until he takes one good licking and learns enough not to let it happen again," Blackburn said. "Joe had his and he ain't gonna take another one, at least not from Schmeling. He learned too much to let Schmeling keep on straight rights this time, and that's why he's picking Joe to win by a knockout."

Joe plans to box four rounds with two sparring partners today.

MAX RESUMES BOXING
Spectator, N. Y., June 14.—(UP)—Max Schmeling, German challenger, who will meet Joe Louis for the heavyweight title June 22, resumed boxing drills today.

Max announced that Doc Casey, boxer fight handler who has been in his corner in most of his American fights, would be one of his sparring partners today.

Max said he would also protest Louis wearing gloves especially made in Chicago with longer thumb.

75TH CONGRESS PREPARING FOR FINAL SESSION

Compromise on The Wage, Hour and Relief Measures APPROPRIATION

Washington, June 14.—(AP)—Administration leaders asked the senate and house to give prompt approval today to compromises on the wage-hour and relief bills, last major legislation before the 75th congress.

If no hitch develops on those measures, they said, a host of less important bills can be cleaned up in time for adjournment about midnight tomorrow.

Senate Leader Barkley (D-Ky) was not certain the relief and public works bill could be reached by the senate today because two items in the $3,763,000,000 measure appeared likely to encounter house opposition.

Proposals Approved
They were a $212,000,000 appropriation for parity payments to cotton, corn and wheat farmers and $1,000,000 addition for the rural electrification administration. A joint committee approved both proposals before reaching a final agreement late yesterday.

Although administration chieftains decided to sidetrack legislation to give financial aid to railroads, senate sponsors made a final appeal to the finance committee to consider liberalizing RFC loans to the carriers.

The house passed yesterday a bill to create a separate unemployment insurance system for rail employees. Senate sponsors sought to bring it up in that chamber this afternoon.

Behind the wage-hour and relief bills on the house calendar were resolutions for investigating of monopolies, the radio industry, and problems affecting the merchant marine.

Waiting Action
Among the measures awaiting action in both chambers was a compromise version of the $375,000,000 flood control bill, which would authorize the federal government to bear the entire cost of building reservoirs and dams.

Congress sent several measures to

How happy all sufferers would be if they could but see the men and women, radiant with glorious health, who daily tell how Hoyt's Compound relieved them of their problems. Has not the accomplishments of Hoyt's Compound become the sensation of the drug trade? Is it not true that every day of delay in giving Hoyt's Compound a trial, may mean another day of needless suffering? Take for instance the case of Mr. Fred Coash, R.R. 1, Kankakee, Ill., who states as follows: In the last 20 years I had suffered severe attacks of kidney disorders, pains in my legs and stiffness of muscles. I had been continually bothered by getting up at night from 6 to 8 times each night and was always in misery from backache and pains throughout my body. My system gradually grew weaker and my condition became so run down that rheumatism and neuritis set in. My knees at times were so stiff and sore that I could not even bend over to tie my shoes. I could not find a thing that would give me relief.

After reading about Hoyt's Compound I decided to try it to see if it would do me any good, and now I am glad I did for now my kidneys are in the best of shape and I do not have to get up at all during the night, and all the stiffness and soreness has left my legs. There is no trace of rheumatism or neuritis in my body, for which I am thankful to the manufacturers of the greatest medicine I have ever taken, Hoyt's Compound. For the past 25 years I have been employed at the Krollier Furniture factory at Bradley and even the men I work with have remarked of the wonderful change there has been in me since taking Hoyt's Compound and say that I act younger and look better. I am only too glad to have the opportunity to endorse Hoyt's Compound the greatest medicine I have ever found for rheumatism, neuritis and kidney trouble.

Hoyt's Compound is sold and recommended by the I. C. Pharmacy, 200 East Ave., Kankakee, and by all leading druggists everywhere. Be sure to get genuine Hoyt's Compound. Accept no substitutes. adv.

Offensive Nicknames in Youth Held Responsible For Inferiority Complex

Portland, Ore., June 14.—(INS)—"Hey, sissy!" "Did they call you 'sissy' or 'skinny' or by some similar nickname when you were young? If they did, and you have an inferiority complex now, the two facts probably can be linked together, according to Rev. John Delauney, dean of men at Portland university.

Speaking before the Progressive Business Men's club in Portland, Father Delauney declared that a "weak ego" in the adult often-times is caused by a sense of inferiority growing out of a nickname that proved secretly offensive in youth.

The weak ego, he said, shows itself in many different lights. For instance, he cited the case of a woman who refused to play golf because she preferred the self-imposed martyrdom of staying home to darn her husband's socks. Other types of weak ego include "hen pecked" husbands and "yes men."

The type which probably has the worst time in later life, Father Delauney said, is the sensitive person who considers even the most casual remark a direct reflection on himself. That type has a "terrible time."

Persons with a coallick red hair, freckles, a squint, or any one of dozens of similar things which might cause an inferiority complex, had best forget it entirely, because there is nothing that can be done to remedy it—and no good to be done by brooding about it, Father Delauney said.

He pointed out, however, that persons suffering an inferiority complex because of inability to dance, or engage in conversation easily, usually can overcome their weakness by hard work and study.

No Longer a "Man Without a Country"

Baltimore, June 14.—(AP)—Bernard Malkowski is no longer a "man without a country."

After becoming involved with immigration authorities and spending most of the last three years aboard ships, Malkowski has obtained a visa to enter the United States.

He plans to spend a long vacation on the "Yack," N. Y., farm of Captain Thomas Flannery, master of the freighter Steel Traveler, aboard which Malkowski arrived here yesterday.

In 1933, Malkowski applied for citizenship papers while visiting Polish friends here. Immigration officers decided two years later the papers had been falsified and Malkowski was taken to Ellis Island for deportation.

He was refused entry to Germany and Poland and finally got a berth aboard a vessel in the round-the-world service. He made 12 voyages around the globe in the Steel Traveler while friends worked to get him a legal immigration visa.

A report comes of a woman who saved an injured turkey's life by grafting a piece of chicken on him. At some family's house next fall, for no apparent reason, Thanksgiving just isn't going to seem quite like Thanksgiving.

The Boutonniere for Father's Day Isn't a Wallflower

You wore a carnation for Mother and now you're going to do something for Dad.

And there's one thing you don't want to forget . . . that your Dad isn't a wallflower . . . that he wants to sit in the same seats at the games and in the same trousers . . . that he's not too old to put one of these shirt arms around a slender waist to Benny Goodman's orchestra.

Give your Dad youthful things to wear for you won't want to be "the old man" when you're only his age.
