CRISIS ABROAD DRAWS NEAR

WARSHIPS ARE ORDERED INTO THE NORTH SEA

Developments In Czech-Sudeten Controversy

By RICHARD D. McHILLAN
London, Aug. 27.—(AP)—The British government, deliberately and reluctantly, prepared today for a European crisis of the first rank.

It was disclosed that 42 warships of the home fleet had been ordered, to proceed to the North sea, battle station of the British navy, coincident with the meeting of the German Nazi party at Nuremberg during the week of September 1.

A few hours later a most unusual if not unprecedented, semi-official statement was issued, praising the conciliatory attitude of the Czechoslovak government in the present phase of minority negotiations and deploring a proclamation by the Sudeten German party removing from its members an admonition against retaliation to attacks on them.

Those two portentous developments came a few hours before Sir John Simon, chancellor of the exchequer, made a speech in behalf of the government re-defining British policy in light of a threatened explosion in central Europe.

Warning to Nations

The semi-official statement on the Sudeten party proclamation was regarded as meaning that the government had stepped boldly into the arena of European events with a warning to all parties—conceded Germany included, to avoid heightening the tension that hour by hour now was gripping Europe.

It was argued in diplomatic quarters that the statement never would have been issued almost as Simon stepped on the platform, unless the government considered the European situation electric and potentially fraught with danger.

Rev. Robertson succeeds the Rev. A. H. Anderson, pastor here for two years who was transferred to Neenah, Wis.

Is Nailed To A Cross And Left To Die

Reho, Nev., Aug. 27.—(AP)—Ed Collins, 27-year-old ex-convict, was strapped, nailed to a cross and left to die with his clothes burning at his feet because, he said, "I know too much."

Rehined he told officers before going to sleep today under the influence of hypodermics that he was nailed to the cross, last night by two former "pals" involved in a San Diego, Calif. pay roll holdup for which he was sent to San Quentin prison.

When he refused to join them in a robbery and insisted upon "going straight," Collins said they told him: "All right, if you want to be a little Jesus Christ, we'll make one out of you."

Collins screams and the fire which seared his feet attracted Earl Dabney, a Negro, to the spot near the county hospital. He summoned police.

They found Collins face upward, spread-eagled on the crude cross. A ten-penny nail was driven through each hand and each foot. Doctors said he would recover unless the nail holes in his feet and hands became infected.

Youth Injured in Fall of 30 Feet

William Spence, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Spence of 519 South Poplar avenue, suffered injuries to both of his feet when he fell 30 feet from a scaffold Thursday morning at the William Salzman farm northwest of Manteno.

The young man was repairing shingles on the barn when the scaffolding broke. He dropped to the ground, landing on both feet. The heel on his right foot was broken and crushed and his left foot was sprained. He is a patient at St. Mary hospital.

Signs Statement Accusing Friend of Slaying Man

Fairfield, Ill., Aug. 27.—(AP)—Deputy Sheriff Adam Gloeckner said today Mrs. Jean Brooks, 41, slender Tennessee mountain woman, had signed a written statement accusing her buxom companion, Mrs. Beulah Honeycutt, 25, of firing the two shots that killed Felix Shannon.

Shannon, 56, was shot to death in his home near Mount Erie Sunday night after he had picked up two women hitch-hikers on the road. The two women were captured Tuesday at Hopkinsville, Ky.

Gloeckner said the principal details of the written statement were the same as Mrs. Brooks' oral confession, in which Sheriff Ernest Burkett quoted her as saying she was in another room when Mrs. Honeycutt shot Shannon.

Mrs. Honeycutt, a taciturn blonde, admitted orally that she was at Shannon's home, but accused Mrs. Brooks of firing the shots, Burkett said.

Mrs. Brooks said in her confession that she was married when she was 12 years old and was the mother of four children, Gloeckner reported. "My husband sent me to high school for three years," Gloeckner quoted her as saying.

Two Witnesses Jailed In Policy Racket Case

By E. C. DANIEL
New York, Aug. 27.—(AP)—With two of his witnesses in jail on charges of returning to the policy racket as soon as they had finished testifying, District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey looked toward Connecticut today for corroboration of testimony that James J. Hines, Tammany district leader, was on a gangster's payroll.

Fix or more residents of the vicinity around Bridgeport, Conn., were reported among the 30 or 35 witnesses who will be called by the state in its effort to prove that Hines furnished the political protection which made it possible for the late Dutch Schultz to build up a $20,000,000-a-year policy racket.

The second week of the trial ended late yesterday on a note of rustic tranquility. Dudley Brothwell, Fairfield, Conn., riding master, testified that Hines was a member of a small party that accompanied the gangster Schultz on an inspection of his stables one Sunday in August, 1935.

Another witness, George Weinberg, former Schultz lieutenant, said Hines conferred with Schultz in Bridgeport in the same year.

Although he refused to disclose his plans, Dewey was understood to have subpoenaed a half-dozen other witnesses who may have some knowledge of Schultz's activities while he was hiding out in Connecticut.

Police meanwhile prepared to arraign eight persons seized in a raid on an alleged Harlem policy "bank" last night. Among the prisoners were two women identified by Police Lieut. James W. Hennessey as Leslie Ware, 38, and William Hammond, 28, both of whom testified for the state early in the trial.

Lieutenant Hennessey said the raid had no connection with the trial.

Hotel Would Have Been Much Better

Francis Stoner of Aroma Park was terribly sleep last night. He had driven all the way from Mount City, Ill., and as he neared Kankakee on highway 17 west of town about 10 p. m., Francis just couldn't keep his eyes open any longer so pulled his car to one side of the road or thought he did—and succumbed to the persistent wooing of Morpheus, god of sleep.

As it turned out, a hotel room would have been cheaper for the motorist. When Albert Goodknecht, special deputy, came along about 10:15 o'clock last night, he found Stoner's car parked nearly halfway in the middle of the pavement. He was jailed on a charge of obstructing traffic and this morning was assessed $5.25 by Police Magistrate Edward Hoenicke for the offense.

Easton's Fate Rests With an Indiana Jury

Memphis City Ind., Aug. 27.—(AP)—A jury of 12 men was expected to get the murder case of Orelle J. Easton, 26-year-old Valley City, N. D. farm boy, in LaPorte superior court late today at the end of the second week of his trial for the slaying of State Policeman N. Raymond Dixon, 27, of South Bend.

State's Attorneys and Defense Counsel Paul Krieger of Memphis City had three hours each today for closing arguments.

Dixon was shot on a country road near Effie on the night of June 26, a 16-year-old young man in a slatted automobile.

The two men then kidnapped two LaPorte county deputy sheriffs and made the officers drive them to Illinois.

The next day a posse captured Orelle and shot and killed his brother, Clifford, 27, on a farm yard near Decatur, Ill.

Authorities charged them with a series of robberies through the mid-west.

ANNUAL PICNIC SUNDAY AT ST. JUDE SCHOOL

Thousands of City Police Expect to Attend

Between 2,500 and 3,000 members of the Chicago police branch of St. Jude league are expected to be present Sunday at the annual picnic to be held at St. Jude seminary north of Monroeville. An invitation is extended to the people of the community to attend.

A full day's program has been arranged by the committee in charge, which is headed by Capt. John Egan. High mass will be celebrated on the grounds at 12 o'clock with the Rev. John W. R. Maguire, assistant provincial of the Viatorian order and president emeritus of St. Viator college, delivering the sermon.

Statue Dedicated

During the day a marble statue of St. Jude will be dedicated by the Rev. Alphonse Ellacuria, superior of the seminary. It has been placed in a niche above the front entrance of the seminary.

A corned beef and cabbage dinner will be served after mass and other refreshments and entertainment will be available on the grounds.

St. Jude seminary was established by the congregation of the Missionary Sons of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, better known as the Claretian Missionaries, as a preparatory school for boys and young men aspiring to enter the order.

Large Membership

The Chicago police branch of St. Jude's league has aided materially in the establishment of the seminary, its donations being used to pay for the buildings, its equipment and maintenance. It was organized in 1832 and its membership now is around 3,000. The Rev. Catalina is spiritual director of the branch and John P. Stege, president.

Betty Betourne Wins "Lord Jeff" Prize in Contest

(Picture on Page 8)

Betty Ann Betourne of 317 North Indiana avenue compiled more than 3,000 votes to win the "Lord Jeff" contest sponsored this week by the Republican-News and Paramount theater.

Her vote total was nearly double that of her nearest competitor although close to 50 contestants presented sizable totals and the running order after the winner showed only a few votes separating each.

Mickey Rooney, co-starred with Freddie Bartholomew in the picture of the title which inspired the contest, sent personal congratulations from Hollywood in a wire to Kankakee's "Lord Jeff."

Arrangements are being made to take Betty to Chicago where she will see a stage and screen attraction and will be taken aboard the S. S. Roosevelt on a lake cruise as guests of the theater and this newspaper.

All of the contestants were guests of the theater management at the showing of the picture yesterday and Betty is to appear on the stage of the Paramount tonight to be presented to the audience. She will have an important part in the stage activities of the evening.

Friends Church at Watseka Has New Minister

Watske, Aug. 27.—(RN Special)—The Rev. Stacy Wesner, who had charge of a church in Hutsonville, has been assigned to the Friends church here, it was announced today at the western yearly meeting of Friends at Plainfield.

He succeeds Miss Bertha E. Day who has been pastor here for past seven years. Miss Day will preach her last sermon in "the little church with the big welcome" Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

During her pastorate she has added over a hundred members to the congregation and regular attendance has been more than doubled. Though she served during the worst of the depression the church and parsonage have been redecorated, new furnaces installed, the parsonage roofed and addition made to the church building. Despite the added financial burden of these improvements, the church has been able to remain free from debt with a sufficient balance in the treasury to pay all current bills.

Accuse Each Other of Killing

Sheriff Ernest Burkett of Fairfield, Ill., said Mrs. Jean Brooks (left), 23, Elizabethtown, Tenn., and Mrs. Beulah Honeycutt (right), 25, Johnson City, Tenn., made oral statements accusing each other of the slaying of Felix Shannon, 56-year-old farmer of Mt. Erie, Ill. Shannon's son, Carlyle, 8, gave much of the information which led to the arrest of the women in Hopkinsville, Ky.

"Hair-Do Strike" Among Women of America Feared

Chicago, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Are American women on a "hair-do strike" against the high-up coiffures that hairdressers and stylists are trying to popularize for general wear?

Mrs. Gartman, president of the Illinois Hairdressers association, said today he believed they were.

"For one thing it is aging—and what woman will risk that?" he asked.

"Hairdressers in New York and Paris may say midwest women are slow in taking up a new style. But I refer them to photographs of prominent women and screen stars in actual life—not posed style pictures—in newspapers and in national magazines.

"They won't find many with their hair 'ups' he said.

Gartman predicted a compromise between the "ups" and the "downs" would result in new styles being introduced at the Illinois Hairdressers' association's annual fall and winter coiffure revue August 31.

Hitchhiker Finally Dies At Hospital

Leroy Nichols, 45, Cleveland, O., hitch hiker struck by a truck on highway 17 one mile west of Kankakee last Aug. 15, died at 12:40 o'clock this morning at St. Mary hospital where he had lain unconscious most of the time since the accident.

How he was able to live 12 days with a crushed skull and ruptured intestines baffled physicians. He was only given a few hours when first brought to the infirmary. Nichols, who was unable to see well, was standing on the pavement waving his cane at passing vehicles when a truck struck him, knocking him to the ground.

The truck was driven by Paul Weakley, 21, of Moweaqua, Ill., who said he hugged the black line in attempting to clear the hitch hiker as well as another vehicle passing in the opposite direction at the time.

Coroner A. E. Kerger swore in an inquest jury this morning and set the inquest for next Friday.

Parole Violators Are Caught Here

Two parole violators were arrested yesterday by Sheriff John Stack and Deputy Gene LaFontaine.

Robert Turner, 18, colored, of 867 North Rosewood avenue, released from the Lincoln home for feeble-minded to his mother for a short period several weeks ago, failed to return to the institution at the proper time. Brought before County Judge John H. Beckers yesterday, he was ordered back.

Paul Clark, about 50, of 173 North Dearborn avenue, was picked up at the request of John Bowles, state parole officer. Clark was arrested by the sheriff about six years ago when the latter was chief of police. At that time Clark was sentenced to serve 12 years on a rape charge and was recently paroled.

Kellogg Pact to Outlaw War Ten Years Old

By ANDRUE BERDING
Washington, Aug. 27.—(AP)—A little gray-haired man in a cutaway coat picked up a gold pen and signed "Frank B. Kellogg" at the foot of a legal paper while 1,000 persons, nearly suffocating in the Salle de l'Horloge of the French foreign office, applauded and cheered.

And thus, 10 years ago today, there came into the world the famed Kellogg pact to outlaw war. It was a colorful scene in the same gilded room of the Quai d'Orsay where Woodrow Wilson brought the league of nations into being.

One by one the representatives of the 15 nations signed, using a gold pen presented to Kellogg by the city of Havre.

A newspaperman remarked that, at the signing of the pact to outlaw war, 3,000,000 men were under arms.

Dead today are Kellogg and Briand. Stresemann, Coolidge and President Doumergue, as the tenth anniversary of the pact finds more than 3,000,000 men under arms and active fighting in China and Spain. The Kellogg pact, historians say, has outlawed war but not prevented it and has led, in fact, to the undeclared, and even the concealed war.

COUNTY MEETING HERE

Kankakee county council of American Legion will meet at 8 o'clock Monday evening, in the Legion home here.

Hospital Has Record Birth Total in Year

Old Doc Stork beat a firm path to the door of St. Mary hospital last year, making 294 trips to the institution and thereby exceeding by 25 per cent the record high of 217 births established the previous year.

For four successive years activity in the obstetrics ward at the infirmary has been steadily increasing, with births rising from 127 in 1933 to 175 in 1934, 186 in 1935 and 217 in 1936, reflecting a changing trend in the attitude of the public toward hospitals.

Best of Care

Formerly considered places of pain and agony, the hospitals are now recognized as institutions offering the best care and treatment obtainable anywhere, which actually saves thousands of lives each year.

A total of 2,401 patients was served last year at St. Mary's and this figure also exceeds the previous high mark of 2,189 established in 1936. Last year's patients were given 24,989 days' care, 937 operations

GREAT BRITAIN WARNS NATIONS TO BE CAREFUL

Aid Czechoslovakia in Case of Aggression

London, Aug. 27.—(P)—Great Britain issued a plea today to "all quarters" to lessen the tension in Czechoslovakia.

A government statement welcomed the "conciliatory attitude" of the Czechoslovak government in offering a new basis for negotiations with Nazi-supported, autonomy-seeking Sudeten Germans.

British officials expressly condemned the actions of the Sudeten German party in relaxing the discipline of its members in a proclamation yesterday that freed them to use force in "self-defense."

Of the Praha government's concessions, the statement said: "It is to be hoped this contribution may meet with a constructive response and that every effort will be made in all quarters concerned, directly or indirectly, to refrain from any action which may heighten the tension."

Issue by the Sudeten (German) party of a proclamation relaxing the discipline of its members, hitherto displayed, is much deplored.

The government statement given out a few hours before the speech of Sir John Simon, chancellor of the exchequer, on the same subject, was received with some surprise and was generally accepted as an indication of the British government's increasing anxiety over the Czechoslovak situation.

Warns the World

Lanark, Scotland, Aug. 27.—(P)—Sir John Simon, chancellor of the exchequer, served notice on an anxious world today that Great Britain might have to fight if Germany started a war in central Europe.

The former foreign minister repeated, "as holding good today," Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's declaration before the house of commons March 24 that "if war were to break out it would be unlikely to be confined to those who have assumed such obligations"—to aid Czechoslovakia against aggression.

An hour before the chancellor was scheduled to speak he revised his speech to put his own punch behind Chamberlain's March warning that Britain might be forced to fight.

School Opens in Ashkum Monday

Ashkum, Aug. 27.—(RN Special)—All Ashkum grade and high school students will begin the first semester next Monday morning.

A new system is in force this year by having the seventh and eighth grades in the high school department.

The teachers are—Glen Raymond, principal, general science, hygiene, geometry and arithmetic; Miss Catherine McGrath, Latin, English II and III, algebra and arithmetic, 7 and 8; Miss Florence Weir, geography, English I, 7 and 8; ancient history, history 7 and 8; Mr. Ham-bene, typing, bookkeeping, junior business training, American history; Miss Evelyn Lanoue, 4, 5 and 6 grades and Miss Barnett, 1, 2 and 3.

Incidents were performed and 187 auto accident cases handled.

Revenue Lower

Hospital statistics show the average stay of patients is about 12 days. Although the local institution had more patients, its revenues were less last year, inasmuch as a large number of them could pay only a portion of the fees and others, none at all. The deficit created by charity work is what the hospital endeavors to make up through its tag day sponsored annually with the approval of the city council, chamber of commerce and other groups. The tag day this year will be Saturday, Sept. 17.

Since St. Mary's is a humane institution, all who are admitted are entitled to every service available, whether they can pay for it or not. Relief clients get full treatment but the federal government pays only a fraction of the cost of such services.

LOVE WOLF BAD MAN

What a shoddy desperado this Floyd Hamilton turned out to be!

Blazoned in the headlines as "Public Enemy Number One," Hamilton looked much more like a discouraged, penniless chicken thief when he finally fell into the hands of the law. At the time of his arrest he was trying to bum his way out of town on a freight train and had just $6.23 to his name.

Obviously, crime didn't pay for this chap. Unless he gets some satisfaction out of his brief prominence, he must be reflecting sadly that he would be happier, better dressed, better fed and more respected if he had gone to work for WPA instead of trying to carve out a career as a bad man.

There would be little point, however, in going on to sermonize heavily on the wages of sin. For the bad man of the Hamilton type never was anything very special in the way of menace to our institutions. It is the city gangster who has been the real difficulty.

And when we reach that point we begin to touch a sore spot—the extent to which the public itself is responsible for its real public enemies.

The big city gangsters—the Dutch Schultz, Al Capone type of fellows—have never been common with bad men of the kind Floyd Hamilton tried to imitate, except for the fact that they were ready to resort to murder whenever necessary. They weren't lone wolves—far from it. Instead of defying society, they sought out society's corrupt elements and formed an alliance.

Because those alliances were possible, those men were genuine menaces; not so much for themselves as for the things they stood for.

The operated with the connivance of officials sworn to enforce the law. They supplied the public with divers commodities and services which the public had made illegal, but nevertheless wanted. They were by-products of a very bad political system. Their mere existence indicated our whole scheme of big city society.

There was no dodging from pillar to post for them. They numbered big-shot politicians among their friends, came and went openly, and never had to run away from anybody except business associates.

We always have had our Floyd Hamiltons, and we always will. They aren't important. The time to worry is when we start producing big city gangsters instead of small-time bad men.

PAGEANT OF THE YEARS

A barber in Vermont celebrated his 99th birthday the other day. He had been snipping, clipping, combing, dousing and massaging since the age of 17.

What an extraordinary pageant of social history had passed before his eyes during those years behind his chair! What remarkable changes in the character of the American scene he had witnessed, mirrored in that little shop!

Once the talk was of bareheaded baseball. Then it was talk about baseball with knickerbockers.

Trouser cuffs went from wide to narrow, to wide, and back to narrow again.

The customers panned new administrations almost every four years.

Collars went from hard to soft and back to hard, and back to soft; high, low, high again, low.

Hair went from long to short, and the part traveled all over the head.

Which had in fancy bottles progressed to witch hazel in steam-heated bottles.

And over the customers' shoulders he watched the old Police Gazette, with its pictures of lovely girls in tights, give way to the modern periodical, with its pictures—of lovely girls.

SIDE GLANCES

By George Clark

It is all right for a wicked child to skip part of his primary work in the first couple of years or for him to catch up with the elementary class that has passed him by, but extra study in order to make a leap to their level; but it is not a good plan to put him under the perpetual strain of doing two terms work in one.

Besides, there are basic facts and basic functions in each year's work that cause confusion later on if missed. It is hard for instance, to make up fractions and all the other things that come in the way of a few days' attention. It takes repetition and more repetition to make them register.

Arithmetic is not, I think, a subject that can be taught in a few days. It is a subject that must be taught in a series of small steps, each step leading to the next. It is a subject that must be taught in a series of small steps, each step leading to the next. It is a subject that must be taught in a series of small steps, each step leading to the next.

ESTABROOKS IN WESTERN FINAL AGAINST BERG

Chicago, Aug. 27.—The last obstacle between Patty Berg, the Minneapolis reformed, and her first woman's western golf championship is a sturdy, courageous 17-year-old girl from Dubuque, Ia., respected Edith Estabrooks.

They met today in the final 36-hole round for the title, played in this morning and another 18 this afternoon at Olympia Fields.

This a pair of schoolgirls carried a brilliant field of 124 that started Monday for the championship last year.

Berg, Strong Katorie, Miss Berg, who has won eight of her eleven tournaments, started this year, is strongly favored over her more youthful opponent, who proved to be the heroine of the tournament yesterday in fighting through 23 holes to defeat Miss Bert Weil, Cincinnati, one up in their semi-final match.

Miss Estabrooks, daughter of a tea course operator at Dubuque, faces her first major opportunity, although in addition to holding the 1937 western junior title she has been a contender in several important tournaments.

The Minneapolis reformed clinched five days of superb golf by defeating Shirley Ann Johnson, Chicago 3 and 2, with sub-par golf.

Quist-Bromwich Face Budge-Mako in Finals Today

Brookline, Mass., Aug. 27.—Inspired by 19-year-old memories, Australian Quist and Bromwich of Australia today had high hopes of gaining their fourth straight title over Don Budge and Gene Mako, this time in the final round of the national tennis tournament at Longwood.

This match will be a dress rehearsal of the Davis Cup doubles at Philadelphia next week and the Australians would regard a Brookline victory as a good omen for their challenge round chances. The last time the national doubles titles was won by Australia, by Gerald Patterson and John B. Hawkes, was in 1919, the last year they won the Davis Cup.

The Australians gained the title yesterday by defeating their countrymen, Harry Hopman and Leonard Scharrer, 6-3, 6-3, 6-3, in a full match. Budge and Mako, the 1936 titlists, qualified by defeating Van Ryn, the two-time winners, 6-1, 6-2, 3-6, 10-8.

Miss Estabrooks and Miss Sarah Palfrey Fabry were scheduled to defend their women's doubles title against Rene Mathieu, France, and Jadwiga Jedzejowska, Poland.

CUBS ONLY CLUB TO GAIN GROUND ON SLIDING BUCS

KEY MAN IN YAK'S CUP HOPE

Associated Press Sports Writer

It is being suggested around town that Messrs. Ford and McGraw take up talking between April and October next year, while the 1939 world series is being played, and hold an elimination to decide the victors for getting a C. A. C. in the 1939 world series.

The idea may not seem popular, but if you take a look at the Yankees, who are the American and National League champions, you will see that they are the only club to gain ground on the sliding Bucs.

Consider, for example, the National League club of recent years, which finds the first four games separated by only 6 games, and all of them appearing down the list to educate the Bucs in how not to win the day.

Yanks' Bold 12-Game Edge

Then look at the American League where the Yankees are the only club to gain ground on the sliding Bucs. The Yankees have won 12 games in a row, and the Bucs have won only 1 game in a row.

Turning once more to the National League, you have the Cubs, who have won 12 games in a row, and the Bucs have won only 1 game in a row.

And a statue at the Pittsburgh Pirates. Given an odds on chance of winning the pennant in the last month, the Bucs not only have dropped three straight to the first place Phils, but dropped them to 10th place in the league.

Telling a rousing story of romance at a vacation camp, "Having Wonderful Time" comes with Ginger Rogers and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. in the co-starring roles and with a notable group of players in support, starting Sunday at the Paramount.

The film, adapted from Arthur Koeb's Broadway stage success of the same name, has its principal setting at a mountain resort. Scores of working people from New York, pleasure-seeking youngsters, young and old married couples, elderly gossips, young college men working their way at the camp, are gathered in a variegated group, and against this informal background the main theme of the film is presented.

It is a suspenseful romance between Miss Rogers, as a hard-working little stenographer and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., as an ambitious but penniless law student who has taken a job as a waiter at the camp. Encountering the common problem of thousands of young people in such a situation—the lack of money on which to marry—they try to solve it in a manner that makes for a strong dramatic element along with the sparkling comedy of the story.

"Having Wonderful Time" brings its two stars fresh from recent triumphs. Miss Rogers' work in "Stage Door" and "Vivacious Lady," and Fairbanks' in "The Prisoner of Zenda," and "Joy of Living," have earned them swift increases in popularity, and they are said to have even finer opportunities in the new offering.

"Block-Heads" stars Laurel and Oliver Hardy, who are coming to the Paramount theater on Sunday, the comedians find themselves in a swank, modern apartment house. The dignity of the surroundings, however, offers no bar to their continuous merriment. In fact, the austerity of the background makes their famous gags all the more ludicrous, and the current comedy contains an abundance of side-splitting incidents.

In addition to the active imaginations of Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy, who can endow the most trivial of incidents with laugh-compelling qualities either in real life or before the camera, they have been assisted in the new venture by a group of Hollywood's best known comedy creators.

Timeliness has been the watchword of the Warner Studio ever since it first set a new fashion in screen entertainment with "Public Enemy" and "Little Caesar," and now "Racket Busters," which opens with the owl show tonight at the Luna theater carries on that tradition of live pictures about live topics.

Since one great essential of this type of picture is that it seems a veritable factual document, "Racket Busters" was cast with an eye mainly to the convincingness of its characters, and the studio executives are sure they did a swell job when they put Humphrey Bogart, George Brent, Gloria Dickinson, Allen Jenkins and Walter Abel in the leading roles.

While the city in which the plot of "Racket Busters" unfolds is obviously New York, the film treats of a condition which is common to virtually every large American city. And it is not so much the story of what any one man has done or can do to eradicate the manifold evils of racketeering as it is the story of what an aroused citizenry can do to put an end to this civic cancer.

It depicts the ruthless methods employed by a sinister racketeer, played by Bogart, to exact tribute from the trucking business of a great city. It tells of the efforts of a special prosecutor, played by Abel, to end the racket.

But, mainly it tells of the heroic fight against the mobsters put up by a small number of truckmen and how eventually this fight is successful when Brent, first a leader in the fight and then forced by domestic troubles to make peace with the racketeers, takes up the battle again when the racketeers endeavor to cut off the whole city's food supplies.
