New Storm Howls Across West

Norway Consults U. S. On Pact

Expect Acheson To Urge Lineup With West

Confers With Foreign Minister Lange Today; Reds Make New Offer

Washington, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Norway's foreign minister turned to the state department today for the U. S. side of the issue: should he back the Russian or the American plan for guarding his country against aggression?

Secretary of State Acheson was expected to urge him, in effect, to line up with the United States, Canada and western Europe in a firm North Atlantic alliance.

The Norwegian diplomat, Halvard M. Lange, arrived here yesterday amid mounting concern in his country over a sudden offer by Russia to conclude a non-aggression pact with the Norwegian government.

Acheson arranged to see him this afternoon.

U. S. officials doubted in advance that Acheson would offer any specific advice on the course Norway should adopt toward this Russian move. They saw the secretary's job as making it clear, by presenting facts, that Norway could best protect its interests by rejecting Russia's offer.

No Bases Required

Acheson and the American government were reported ready to assure Lange that no bases will be required on Norwegian soil if Norway decides to join the North Atlantic defense arrangement.

Russia's apparent unwillingness to accept Norway's assurance that it does not contemplate offering such bases has stirred anxiety in Norwegian government circles.

The Soviet government has denounced the formation of the North Atlantic alliance and repeatedly claimed it in effect represents an aggressive move not in keeping with the United Nations.

American government officials promptly labeled Russia's offer of a non-aggression pact a none-too-subtle effort by Moscow to frighten the Norwegians into staying out of the North Atlantic alliance.

Foreign diplomatic officials meanwhile disclosed that the ambassadors of Sweden and Denmark also are tentatively scheduled to call at the state department, to explain their views on how best to defend Scandinavia against any attack.

Separate Pact Falls

The Swedish and Danish envoys returned from their home capitals only a few days ago after attending an unsuccessful conference that tried to set up a separate defense pact in northern Europe, made up of Norway, Sweden and Denmark.

These talks collapsed about ten days ago after Sweden insisted the alliance be based on neutrality. The American government served notice that if this were the case, no American arms would go to any of the participants since there was only enough to go to countries cooperating in collective defense arrangements with the United States.

Norway then decided to examine the possibility of joining the North Atlantic alliance.

Sweden vowed to remain neutral regardless while Denmark indicated she was uncertain about what her next step would be.

BULLETIN

By The Associated Press
A heavy outpouring of cattle at the nation's livestock markets today sent steer prices to the lowest levels since early 1947. Commodity markets were generally lower.

Kansas City stockyards were jammed with an estimated 19,000 head of cattle, including 300 loads of grain fed steers. Stockyards officials said it was the largest run of grain fed steers on record.

Steer and heifer prices at Chicago fell $1.00 to $2.00 a hundred pounds as farmers unloaded 18,000 head, largest since this Monday a year ago when the same number arrived. Hog and lamb prices also declined at Chicago.

At South St. Paul, the nation's largest center for trading in calves, prices of weaners dropped as much as $4.00 a hundred pounds. Top grades sold at $33.00 a hundred pounds.

Cash grain prices at Chicago held relatively steady, but loose lard fell 50 cents a hundred pounds in the cash market to a new six year low of $11.50. This compared with a high of $39.00 in 1946.

In commodity futures trading, most prices were lower. Wheat, corn and soybeans fell 2 to as much as 5 cents a bushel in Chicago. Many contracts were at new lows since trading in them started.

Stocks were lower after a steady start at New York.

Other commodity futures which declined included butter and eggs at Chicago, cotton, cottonseed oil, cocoa, hides, coffee and rubber at New York.

Chokes To Death On Piece Of Steak

New York, Feb. 7.—(UP)—Nathan McClure, 52, prominent Chicago banker, choked to death on a piece of steak, an autopsy revealed today.

McClure, vice president of Harriman, Ripley & Company investment brokers, died at the annual banquet of the governors of the Investment Bankers association on Saturday night.

Firemen were called when McClure began choking during the meal, but their attempts to revive him with oxygen failed.

Dr. Andrew A. Eggston, assistant county medical examiner, said an autopsy revealed "an exceptionally large" piece of steak in McClure's throat.

McClure is survived by his widow Louise and their four children, who live at Geneva, Ill.

Five Killed By Train At Crossing

Onawa, Ia., Feb. 7.—(UP)—Bad visibility at an unprotected railroad crossing was blamed by police today for the death of five persons killed when their auto was smashed by a speeding Northwestern passenger train.

The dead were Clarence Dahl, 25; his wife Kathleen, 23; two sons, Richard, 4, and Dennis, 2; and Phyllis Dahl, 15, sister of Clarence, all of Whiting, Ia.

Police said visibility at the crossing is "very poor and trains go through here pretty fast."

House Gets Bill To Extend Marshall Plan

Calls For $5.5 Billion; GOP Members Ask Full Probe Of Spending

Washington, Feb. 7.—(UP)—A new round in the foreign aid battle opened in Congress today with the introduction of a bill calling for a 15-month, $5,580,000,000 extension of the Marshall plan.

Chairman Sol Bloom, D., N. Y., of the House foreign affairs committee introduced the bill amid Republican demands for a "full investigation" before the vast European recovery project is renewed.

Paul G. Hoffman's Marshall plan administration spent $5,055,000,000 on the first 12 months of the program and its current spending authority is scheduled to expire April 2.

Sen. Styles Bridges, former chairman of the congressional "watchdog" committee on foreign aid, charged earlier that Hoffman and his aides have made "constant mistakes" in administering the program. He asked for a congressional investigation.

Bridges said congressional intent has been violated many times in the program. He was particularly critical of grants made to the French government. He said the aid program is underwriting a French deficit and making tax collections in that country unnecessary.

The Senate and House foreign committees will begin joint hearings on the renewal tomorrow, with Hoffman and Secretary of State Dean Acheson as the first witnesses.

Other congressional developments:

REORGANIZATION — Former President Herbert Hoover said his commission's plan for reorganizing the government could save the taxpayers an estimated $3,000,000,000 annually. He urged "strong and radical" action to enact the plan and he warned that "some federal officials might try to kill it to protect their jobs."

LABOR — Former War Labor Board Chairman William F. Davis urged at a Senate labor committee hearing that President Truman be given specific power to seize struck plants if necessary to deal with a national emergency. He said injunctions alone won't work. General counsel Robert N. Denham of the labor board told the committee he believes the Taft-Hartley law is "basically sound," even though President Truman wants it repealed.

BUDGET — The House voted, 230 to 142, to give congressional fiscal experts an extra 75 days to figure government expenditures and revenues.

Attlee Spurns Plea For Stalin, Truman Parley

Commons Hears Suggestion For Meeting In London

London, Feb. 7.—(UP)—Prime Minister Clement R. Attlee today turned down a suggestion in the house of commons that Britain seek to arrange a meeting in London between President Truman and Premier Josef Stalin.

His rejection came a few moments after Minister of State Hector McNeill had given a sharp negative to a suggestion that Russia be invited to join the proposed "Atlantic security" pact. McNeill charged that Russian obstructionist tactics had made the pact necessary.

Labourite Member Ronald Chamberlain raised the question of a possible Truman-Stalin meeting when he asked Attlee whether, in view of the apparent willingness of Mr. Truman and Stalin to meet somewhere sometime, the British government would arrange for the meeting in London.

No Intervening

"As no official communication has been addressed to me by either President Truman or Marshal Stalin, I see no purpose in intervening," suggested Attlee replied.

Chamberlain also suggested that only a top level conference could break the international deadlock. He argued that a London meeting would be the answer to the refusal by Mr. Truman and Stalin to leave their respective territories. But Attlee rejected those arguments.

"Do you not think that the government of Great Britain should take the lead in world peace?" Labourite Emrys Hughes asked.

Attlee replied that Britain wanted to do everything possible for world peace, but insisted that the suggestion of a Stalin-Truman conference in London was not the best method.

Attlee said that Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin "again and again has taken the initiative. He does not think the members see to it that all the initiative must come from this country. A little initiative from the other side of Europe would do a lot."

During the question period, Labourite Member J. A. Platt-mills attacked the proposed alliance as an "aggressive pact" and asked whether the government would support an invitation for Russia to join it.

"No," McNeill replied, "and for this reason: the negotiations for the North Atlantic pact would have been necessary had not all attempts to organize collective security directly under the United Nations been made impossible—temporarily, it is hoped—by the obstruction, suspicion and non-cooperation of the Soviet government."

Patron Shoots Up Saloon In Western Style

Nashville, Ill., Feb. 7.—(P)—The shooting up of a saloon, robbery and terrorizing of patrons in old wild west style was investigated today by Washington county authorities.

State's Attorney Wilbert Hoidt said complaining witnesses gave this version of the wild affair:

A patron of the tavern on Route 13 near Marissa had been drinking heavily. Efforts to persuade him to leave were futile. He went to his car and returned with a pistol and a box of shells. He ordered a waitress, Pearl Faulber, to get the money out of the cash register and count it. As she counted he bragged of his marksmanship and began demonstrating.

He picked up liquor bottles along the back of the bar, ordered the waitress to stack up silver coins and tried to shoot them down. He drove a bartender, Vaughn Gorman, into a corner and shot at him, grazing another employee but missed. After firing about 30 shots he left, taking an undetermined amount of money.

It happened Friday night but it was not reported until Sheriff Ted Lehde received an anonymous telephone report Saturday. After a preliminary questioning at the scene, officers arrested the man in bed at the Tilden, Ill. home of his sister.

Hoidt identified that man as Lloyd Hammond of DuQuoin. He was charged on two counts of assault with intent to kill and with armed robbery. Hammond was held in the Washington county jail under $15,000 bond pending a hearing here Feb. 11.

Seabee Vets Pick Kankakee For 1950 Meet

Kankakee was chosen as the 1950 convention city of the newly-organized department of Illinois of the Seabee Veterans of America and two Kankakee county residents were elected to state offices in the organization during a convention at Springfield over the week-end.

Charles Marson of Aroma Park, president of Kankakee Island X-14 of the Seabee group, was elected vice president of the department in charge of 20 counties in northeastern Illinois and Attorney Fred R. Stith Jr. of Kankakee was chosen as state counselor.

Kankakee will have the convention in 1950 probably during the early part of August, it was decided at the Springfield meeting.

Name State Officers

Harold Peterson of Chicago was elected state president. Other officers are C. L. Stanley of Elgin, treasurer; Robert Dunlap of Edwardsville, historian; P. H. Rosenbaum of Joliet, chaplain; Howard R. Lescher of Elgin, master-at-arms, and Mrs. Edna Rosenbaum of Joliet, state president of the auxiliary.

Attending the convention as representatives of Kankakee Island X-14 were Mr. Marson, Amel Peeler and Ray Dill, delegates, and Jack Caruthers and Gilbert Spies, alternate delegates.

Kankakee will hear a report of the state convention at a meeting tonight at the Iron Workers' hall, 253 West Court street. Seabee veterans attending tonight's meeting will become charter members of the Kankakee group.

Icy Roads Blamed For Auto Crashes

Highways Are Still Covered With Half-Inch Layer Of Ice

Icy pavements in this area were blamed for a number of automobile accidents in Kankakee and surrounding territory during the week-end.

Three persons were reported injured in traffic mishaps in Kankakee county.

Highways in the Kankakee area are still heavily coated with ice and dangerous driving conditions exist, it was reported this afternoon by Albert Goodknecht of Kankakee, state road maintenance supervisor.

Little Change Noted

"There has been little change in the condition of most of the highways in this area in the past 36 hours," he stated. "The mixed rain and snow which fell yesterday added more ice to the half-inch coating of packed snow on the roads."

Mr. Goodknecht said that most curves have been sprinkled with clabbers or salt.

Two separate accidents within half an hour of each other Sunday involved families en route to the University of Illinois at Urbana for mid-year graduation exercises.

Chicago Woman Hurt

Mrs. Henrietta Trandel, 45, of Chicago, suffered head and face lacerations and a possible eye injury in a crash at 10:50 a. m. Sunday about three miles north of Bourbonnais on U. S. highway 45.

Mrs. Trandel's head was plunged through the windshield when a car driven by her husband, John, skidded, left the highway and crashed against a concrete culvert, according to State Patrolman Carlyle Guenther. Mr. Trandel, 54, a machinist, escaped with a cut on the knee. Three other persons in the car were uninjured. They were the couple's sons, Ray and Gene, and Miss Pat Graybill of Chicago. Gene was a member of yesterday's graduating class at the university.

About 10:20 a. m. Sunday

Patrolman Guenther witnessed another accident about a mile north of Bourbonnais on route 45. A car driven south by John E. Thompson of Evanston skidded, went out of control and overturned in a ditch. Neither Thompson or his mother were hurt. They were en route to Champaign to attend graduation exercises for Thompson's brother.

In a Collision Saturday Night

On U. S. highway 45 near the Kankakee airport, two U. of I. students were operators of cars involved in a crash. Floyd Demanes of Urbana was treated at St. Mary hospital for a cut over his left eye. His car collided with a vehicle driven by Rae Nehls of Chicago. Demanes' wife and year-old son were not hurt. State Highway Patrolman Stanley Bricker investigated the collision.

Eileen Whitcraft, 27, of Chicago, escaped without injury when her automobile, proceeding north on state highway 49 about four miles south of Kankakee, skidded and careened against a bridge Saturday night.

John Stefanich, 427 North Wabash avenue, Bradley, reported to Sheriff Gene LaFontaine that his car was struck on Grand avenue near Broadway in Bradley early Sunday by a car whose driver did not stop.

Catholic World Unites In War To Finish With Communism

New York, Feb. 7.—(UP)—The Roman Catholic world united today in a war to the finish with communism, touched off by the trial of Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty in Hungary.

Cardinals, bishops and priests, convinced that Cardinal Mindszenty is to be hanged as a martyr, called upon their congregations in Sunday sermons throughout the United States to unite in protest and pray for the soul of the Hungarian prelate.

Francis Cardinal Spellman, archbishop of New York, set the keynote at his first appearance since V-E day in the pulpit of St. Patrick's cathedral. Five thousand parishioners jammed the cathedral to hear the cardinal.

"If we fail to learn a lesson from Cardinal Mindszenty's martyrdom," Cardinal Spellman warned, "we shall fall ourselves and ourselves face Communist conquest and annihilation."

Victim Of Drugs

He declared his conviction that Cardinal Mindszenty had been the victim of "torturings and drugings that put him beyond the reach of human help." He entitled his sermon: "Rebellion to tyrants is obedience to God."

In Washington, Archbishop Patrick A. O'Boyle told a mass in the Cathedral of St. Matthew that the trial was a "vile business" and a "mimicry of justice." He said Catholics everywhere should disregard the cardinal's confession because it followed the pattern of Communist trials everywhere.

Also In Washington, the Rev. Dr. Frederick B. Harris, U. S. Senate chaplain, said the trial was the signal for "war to the hilt" between Catholicism and Communism.

"It is the signal for war between an anti-Christian colossus and any church which refuses to submit to its supremacy and regimentation," the Rev. Harris told his congregation at the Foundry Methodist church. (It is only the first of a series of onslaughts that may be expected.)

Arthur A. Prince Found Dead In Shop

Arthur A. Prince, 67-year-old Kankakee furnace repair man, was found dead Sunday in the shop at the rear of his home, 819 North Chicago avenue.

According to Mr. Prince's wife, Elizabeth, her husband went out to his shop early yesterday afternoon. About 5:30 o'clock Mrs. Prince went out to summon him for supper and found his body lying on the floor.

Deputy Coroner Morris Yates asserted that Mr. Prince died about 3 p. m., apparently of a heart attack. The time of the inquest has not been set, although it will probably be held tomorrow. Deputy Coroner Yates said. The body was removed to the Senesac funeral home.

Services Wednesday

The funeral will be at 10 a. m. Wednesday at St. Rose church, with interment in Mount Calvary cemetery. The body will be removed this evening to the residence, where friends may call after 8 o'clock. The Rosary will be recited at 8 p. m. tomorrow.

Mr. Prince was born March 20, 1881 in Loretta Village, Winnipeg, Canada. In 1901 he was married in Kankakee to Elizabeth Ostrowski. The last of a family of 16, he was engaged in the sheet metal business in Kankakee for the past 50 years and a number of years ago operated the Standard Hardware company, then located at 253 East Court street, in partnership with Robert Langlois. Mr. Prince was a member of the Canadian Order of Foresters and the Builders' club.

Surviving are his wife; three daughters, Mrs. Rosella Hirt and Mrs. Bernice Heinze, both of Kankakee; and Mrs. Laura White of Kankakee; four sons, Edward, Leo, Albert and Arthur Jr., all of Bradley; a step sister, Mrs. Margaret Rogers of California and 21 grandchildren. One son preceded him in death.

Mindszenty Awaits Verdict Of Court

Judgment To Be Handed Down Tomorrow Morning

By Endre Marton
Budapest, Hungary, Feb. 7.—(P)—Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, the 66-year-old leader of Hungary's 7,000,000 Catholics, today awaited the verdict of a people's court on charges of treason against the Communist-dominated government.

President Judge Vilmos Olthys and four lay-jurists who heard the dramatic three-day trial of Cardinal Mindszenty and six others accused with him are to hand down their judgment tomorrow at 9 a. m. (2 a. m. est.).

If found guilty the cardinal faces possible death by hanging.

The verdict will come 44 days after the cardinal was jailed. Besides treason he was accused of spying and black market money deals. His arrest followed a long and bitter battle between Cardinal Mindszenty and the government, over state seizure of Catholic schools and other issues.

The Hungarian Communist press strongly denounced the cardinal as the court weighed its verdict. The official Communist newspaper Szabad Nep termed the trial a "defeat for the west" in the cold war.

Prominent Hungarian Catholics meanwhile voiced skepticism about the whole proceedings.

Some Tricks Many Believe

A group of important and fervent Catholics told this reporter they were simply unwilling to acknowledge that Cardinal Mindszenty was anything other than a very strong defender of his faith.

They said they felt there must have been some sort of trick, and declared they did not believe the "confessions" uttered by the cardinal in court.

The cardinal, alone in jail, had his "last word" before the people's court Saturday at the conclusion of the trial.

He prayed then "may the Lord give wisdom to the court when they pass their sentence, which may help a settlement at home and abroad."

He pleaded partly guilty but denied he had ever been "the enemy of the Hungarian people."

Whatever the verdict, Cardinal Mindszenty or his lawyer may appeal within three days. If there is an appeal, the papers are forwarded immediately to the appeals court, which must return its verdict within a week.

May Appeal

A convicted defendant, with permission of the people's court, may also appeal directly to President Arpad Szakasits for clemency.

Members of the press, chiefly Hungarian journalists, who covered the historic trial believed unanimously the sentence would be, at least life imprisonment. Many believed he would be sentenced to death.

Sentence will be pronounced tomorrow also on the others. They are:

Duke Paul Esterhazy, wealthy royalist; the Rev. Ondras Zaker, former secretary to the cardinal; Prof. Justin Baranyay, a professor of church law; the Rev. Miklos Nagy, secretary of Catholic action, a lay organizer; Laszlo Toth, a journalist who worked for Father Nagy; and the Rev. Bela Ispenky, a priest.

New Drifts Pile Up; Order Trains Cancelled

Many Roads Again Closed; Greater Cattle Losses Threatened

By United Press
Icy winds howling down out of the Rocky mountains whipped snow into huge new drifts today, forced cancellation of many crack transcontinental trains and threatened grave new cattle losses.

Wide areas of the west, struggling against the worst winter in history, reeled under the impact of the new storm.

In Idaho, Gov. C. A. Robins declared a state of emergency and called on the national guard and the federal government to help clear snow-choked roads and restore communications.

At Chicago, the Chicago and North-Western railway cancelled all through trains to the west except the streamliner City of Denver.

At Omaha, Neb., Maj. Gen. Lewis A. Pick, commander of the fifth army's "operation snowbound," said reports from county agents indicate heavy new livestock losses in the great plains blizzard area.

Blizzards and bad weather throughout the nation since the first of the year already had killed, directly or indirectly, a total of 610 persons, a United Press survey showed.

Roads Closed Again

New storms today had struck at California, Oregon, Utah, Nevada, Wyoming, and parts of Nebraska, South Dakota, Idaho and Washington.

Pick reported that all roads previously opened by army bulldozer crews in 12 Wyoming counties had been closed by high winds which whipped old snow into towering new drifts. In many areas fresh snow added to the burden of rescue crews.

"We must redouble our efforts to reopen roads to people and livestock," Pick said.

In Wyoming, Campbell county alone reported the loss of 7,500 head of cattle and 13,500 sheep, out of a total livestock population of 75,000 head of cattle and 90,000 sheep.

In the eight counties surrounding the cattle center of Broken Bow, Neb., Pick said, a cumulative report shows the loss of 4,180 head of cattle out of a total population of 349,000.

In all of the western blizzard areas, there were an estimated 4,700,000 animals in danger.

Motorists Trapped

The new storms trapped hundreds of motorists and isolated dozens of cities and towns. Buses bogged down in drifts and trains were running as much as 20 hours behind time.

The Chicago and North-Western said storm conditions along the route of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific, with which it operates jointly forced cancellation of the City of Los Angeles, the City of San Francisco, the Overland Limited, the Los Angeles Limited and the Gold Coast. All are crack transcontinental trains.

Service between Chicago, Omaha, and Sioux City, Ia., was not affected, the railroad said.

The new storms threatened to undo in a few hours all the back-breaking work which had gone into clearing hundreds of thousands of miles of roads to relieve human suffering and to save livestock from

Miss Loiselle Wins Midwest Show Trophy

Miss Doreen Loiselle, Kankakee equestrienne who has gained renown throughout the midwest with her performances, gained another honor Saturday night at the annual meeting of the Mid-Western Junior Horseman association at Aurora when she was presented the trophy for horsemanship covering the Junior horseman with the most points in equitation won during the 1948 show season.

The success of Miss Loiselle and her great mount, "Born to Glory," in the 35 classes in which they showed in Indiana, Missouri and Illinois during the 1948 season is responsible for her securing the coveted trophy. Points in achieving the award are based on 10 points for first places, eight for second places, six for third places, four for fourth places and two for fifth places.

Miss Loiselle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Loiselle, 654 South Rosewood avenue, did not compete at the Kankakee County fair last year but was seen in an exhibition in horsemanship.

Saturday night Bobby Gippert of the Sunset stables in Iowa was adjudged the winner of the three and five-gaited trophy, he having received the most points in the three and five-gaited classes.

Railroad Negotiators In Session

Chicago, Feb. 7.—(UP)—Negotiators representing the nation's railroad workers met today in session at a presidential fact-finding board on the number of employees required for multiple unit diesel engines.

The wage-hour question was considered by negotiators for 18 non-operating railroad unions, and the board already had received a report on the subject.

Members of the board, William L. McLeary, chief of the board, and George L. Brown, chief of the board, were recalled as individuals in an unprecedented step in railroad labor-management relations.

The negotiators failed to reach an agreement on the basis of the board's findings, and the three men as a fact-finding board. They recalled their efforts to clarify some points at issue.

George L. Brown, chief of the board, said that he was not a negotiator for the "last ditch action."

He reiterated that there was no strike in the picture at present, and said that "we don't want to do anything like that."

TEMPORARY RELIEF: As a student at the University of London, Churchill had already developed a reputation for his oratorical eloquence. One day, while in his chamber, Lord Churchill paid a surprise visit to the school.

"As I was walking about the grounds with the headmaster, the other Churchill noticed a familiar figure running across the playing field."

"Isn't that Winston?" he asked.

"Yes," said the other.

"Why is he running on such a warm day?" the other knew he was so fond of exercise.

"Oh, he's not doing it for exercise," said the other. "He's doing it just his idea at all. He talks so much and so often. As a result, whenever he gets tired, he runs. And the other boys make him run around

Transfer Parts Of School Unit In Iroquois Co.

Watseka, Feb. 7.—(JNS)—Certain sections and parts of sections from LaHogue and Piper City community consolidated school districts in Douglas township have been transferred to the community unit district No. 2 of the Gilman-Danforth-LaHogue area through a petition filed Saturday.

The transfer was in response to a petition filed January 29 with the county superintendent of schools' office and signed by 11 patrons residing in the area. The petitioners comprise more than two-thirds of the patrons in the area, it was reported.

Relatives Flee Fire

Three relatives of a local resident were among those who were rescued early Friday morning when flames destroyed an apartment building in downtown Springfield. Fourteen families were routed from their beds.

Mrs. Marguerite Glover, sister of Mrs. Clarence Jenkins of this city, and Mrs. Glover's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Atterbury, all were rescued by fireman on ladders from their smoke-filled apartments.

Addition Sought

A petition seeking addition of about seven sections of land to the Sheldon community unit district is to be presented to the Iroquois county school survey committee according to the County Schools superintendent R. P. Roberts.

Rickards Receives Life R. R. Pass

J. C. Rickards, 416 North Greenwood avenue, who retired recently as a conductor on the New York Central railroad after almost 50 years of service with that company, is now the possessor of a gold lifetime pass which may be used on any trains on the system. The presentation is being made by T. W. English, (right) superintendent of the Indiana division of that railroad. The awarding of gold passes are rare, officials of the company disclosed.

County School Survey Committee

According to the County Schools superintendent R. P. Roberts, the petition, filed with his office, requests that the land described is south of the Iroquois river in Concord township and now is located in the Iroquois-Donovan-Beaverville-Martinon unit district. The petition was signed by 61 persons residing in the described sections.

Prevent Railroad Wreck

Titusville, Pa., Feb. 7.—(AP)—A railroad wreck was prevented yesterday by three teen-agers who discovered a broken rail and flagged down a freight train with red handkerchiefs.

The boys, Robert Cochran, 16, Edward Meyer, 15, and his brother, Gordon Meyer, 17, discovered the broken rail at Hydetown, two miles north of Titusville.

Engineer Ira Kibbe, who estimated he was traveling at 30 miles an hour, stopped the locomotive about 100 feet from the damaged track.

Killed By Food Package

Window Rock, Ariz., Feb. 7.—(AP)—An Indian woman was reported killed yesterday by a food package dropped from an airlift plane.

Supt. James M. Stewart of the Navajo reservation said the accident occurred when a package, tossed from a plane carrying supplies to snowbound Indians, fell directly into the door way of a Navajo's hogan and hit the woman. Normally packages fall about 300 yards distant.

It was the first such casualty in the Arizona grublift which has carried thousands of pounds of supplies to snowbound Indians.

Constitution Returns

San Francisco, Feb. 7.—(AP)—The Constitution, giant navy transport plane, completed its inaugural transcontinental round trip early today, arriving at nearby Moffett Field from Washington.

Because of strong headwinds the time of the return flight to the west coast was almost double that of the eastward flight Thursday.

It took 18 hours and eight minutes to return, including an hour-and-a-half stop at Olathe, Kan. The plane refueled there.

Thursday, the constitution made a nonstop trip east in nine hours and 35 minutes.

Rain Hinders Search

Inyo, Calif., Feb. 7.—(AP)—Rain clouds sweeping down from the north today are expected to hinder or halt an aerial search for a plane missing since Thursday with seven men aboard.

A missing plane carried five civilian scientists and two pilots when it left Inyo near naval weapons testing center.

Three Burn To Death

Elsmark, W. Va., Feb. 7.—(AP)—A 22-month-old girl, her mother, and a bedfast cripple—three generations—burned to death when flames consumed a three-room farm house in 20 minutes near this Grant county town yesterday.

The dead were Milford Wheeler Cosner, 72-year-old cripple; his daughter-in-law, Juanita Grace Cosner, 19, of Bayard, W. Va., and her child, Elizabeth Valeria.

Atomic 'Primer'

Bethlehem, Pa., Feb. 7.—(AP)—The government is preparing a "primer" to give the American people the story of atomic energy, says David E. Lilienthal, chairman of the Atomic Energy commission.

Lilienthal, speaking yesterday at mid-year commencement exercises at Lehigh university, said the government also is preparing an atomic weapons' effects handbook for public release.

Iron, Steel Production

Geneva, Switzerland, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Russia produced more iron and steel in 1948 than any other European country—but only one-fifth as much as the United States.

Statistics published yesterday by the economic commission for Europe, a United Nations body, listed Britain second in Europe, France third and Germany fourth.

Russian steel production totaled 16,500,000 tons and American output was more than 80,000,000 tons.

30 Killed as Bus Skids

Donauessingen, Germany, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Thirty German skiers were killed last night when a bus in which they were returning from a Black Forest ski center skidded on an icy road and tumbled down a 60-foot crevice.
