Olivet Nazarene College is a community, distinctive and unique. When a student mounts these worn gray steps, he enters a new life. In it he quickly becomes a part of an assimilated culture. This is what the art motif of the 1944 Aurora would portray.

To the Students and Friends of Olivet:

The year 1944 doubtless will go down in the records of time as one of the momentous years of recent history. In it has been a conflict of ideas and of ideals, the outcome of which will profoundly affect the lives of all the generations to come.

Olivet Nazarene College cannot escape the obligation thrown upon her in times like these. Over two hundred of her sons and daughters have entered directly into the world struggle for freedom. Others are preparing for the ministry to meet what probably will be unprecedented spiritual problems confronting the church of tomorrow. The growing seriousness of life is causing hundreds of young people to look toward receiving a training in Olivet.

The liquidation of Olivet's indebtedness on her million dollar plant this year is a wonderful achievement made possible by the loyalty and sacrifice of our churches of this educational zone. We must build new dormitories and a new chapel in the near future. These too will be only a part of the means to the end. The real end and true objective is to instill into the hearts and minds of young people the knowledge and the spirit that will enable them to face life fearlessly and wisely. Under the guidance of God, and with the help of our loyal people here and throughout the country, we shall see that Olivet Nazarene College meets the challenge of the hour.

Yours Truly
A. H. Barrett

DR. C. A. GIBSON
PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD

Dr. C. A. Gibson came to the Ohio District in 1924. During the nineteen years of his superintendency the membership of the Ohio District increased from 2,200 to 13,000. Eighty per cent of the churches in the two Ohio districts were organized under his leadership. Last year Dr. Gibson accepted the superintendency of the Michigan District. For twenty years he has been a member of the Board of Trustees of Olivet Nazarene College, and was Vice-Chairman of the Board at the time of Dr. Burke's death. In February of this year he was elected chairman.

OF TRUSTEES

Olivet Nazarene College is a co-educational institution of the Church of the Nazarene and is governed by a Board of Trustees composed of fifty-six ministers, district superintendents, and laymen from the seven states of the Central Educational Zone. The student body usually sees this group en masse only once a year, but they know that the individual members of the board continually bear the weight of their responsibilities to the college. It is through their faithful guidance and counsel that Olivet has moved forward in "Education With A Christian Purpose".

Olivet owes a special debt of gratitude to those members who have given two decades or more of loyalty, being "instant" in adversity as well as in prosperity. Rev. C. L. Bradley and Dr. E. O. Chalfant are the senior members in years of service. They have been on the board for twenty-seven years. Dr. C. A. Gibson, next in seniority, has served twenty years. Our most sincere appreciation to all of them!

In Mem

DR. EDWIN C. BURKE

With the passing of Dr. Edwin C. Burke, the Church of the Nazarene lost one of her most prominent and influential lay leaders.

In 1916, Dr. Burke was elected a member of the Board of Trustees of Olivet Nazarene College and continued in this capacity until his death, thereby completing a career of most able leadership of twenty-eight years as a member, twenty-six of which he served as Chairman.

DR. LAURENCE H. HOWE

In his earlier years Dr. Laurence H. Howe was active in the administration of the college, serving as vice-president and also taking an active part in alumni activities and sponsoring student organizations. Failing in health in the last few years made it necessary for him to drop many of these activities. At the time of his death, he was professor of historical theology.

Dr. Howe graduated from Olivet Nazarene College in 1921 and received his B.D. from McCormack Seminary in 1931. He received his doctor of divinity degree at Olivet in 1939.

Prior to returning to Olivet in 1932 as a member of the faculty he was pastor of Nazarene churches at Racine, Wisconsin, Harvey, Illinois, and Elgin, Illinois.

STEPHEN S. WHITE
DEAN

Stephen S. White was born January 25, 1890, in Walnut Springs, Texas.

He graduated from Peniel College with the A.B. degree in 1911 and received the B.D. degree three years later at Drew Theological Seminary. In 1916 he was awarded the M.A. degree from Boston University, and in the year 1938 Dean White received the Ph.D. degree from the University of Chicago.

Dr. White prior to 1940 held the following instructional positions: President of Trevecca College 1919-1921, Professor of Philosophy and Theology at Bethany-Peniel College 1921-1930, and Professor of Theology at Eastern Nazarene College 1935-1940. Since 1940 Professor of Theology at Olivet Nazarene College.

The School of Theology

At its annual meeting held on February 9, 1943, the Olivet Nazarene College Board of Trustees, upon the recommendation of President A. L. Parrott, voted to establish a school of theology. Dr. S. S. White was chosen to head the new department.

Plans were begun whereby three years of graduate work could be had by those preparing for the ministry. Special emphasis has been placed upon holiness as a doctrine, experience, and life, and a militant evangelism at home and abroad.

The courses listed in the School of Theology were organized under the following heads: Doctrinal Theology, taught by S. S. White; Historical Theology, taught by L. H. Howe; and Practical Theology, taught by A. L. Parrott and R. L. Lunsford. Next year a department in Biblical Theology will be headed by a newcomer to the faculty ranks, C. E. Demeray.

College of Liberal Arts and Sciences

The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences offers instruction in the humanities, the social sciences, and the natural sciences, in Bible and religious education leading to the degrees of bachelor of arts and bachelor of science in education. In addition, it offers work preparatory to medicine, law, nursing, the ministry, and engineering.

The college received its accreditation by the University of Illinois and by the Illinois State Department of Education in 1939. The College became a member of the American Association of Colleges in 1944. The instructional staff is composed of fourteen teachers of professional rank and two full and part time assistants.

The College is at present planning to add next year a Department of Economics and Business Administration and a Department of Classical Languages.

CARL S. McCLAIN
DEAN

Carl S. McClain was born February 28, 1899, at Swayzee, Indiana.

He is an alumnus of both the Academy and the College, receiving the A.B. degree in 1923. In 1932 he received the M.A. degree from the University of Illinois and at the present time he is taking graduate work at Northwestern University.

Professor McClain has been Dean of the College of Liberal Arts since 1929. He has also held the following positions at Olivet: Professor of English since 1923, Dean of Men 1930-1939, and Coach of Debate 1933-1941. Dean McClain is a member of Phi Delta Lambda, national Nazarene honor society.

MR. R. L. LUNSFORD, DEAN OF MEN
MISS MILDRED DURIGG, DEAN OF WOMEN

Office of Dean of Women

Women students with their individual and collective problems find a constant and able counsellor in the Dean of Women, Miss Mildred Durigg.

Open on call night and day, the office of Dean of Women is located on the first floor of the Dormitory, Room No. 118.

The students seek conferences for advice on diverse problems: cultural, social, scholastic, or spiritual, and each individual or group need is cared for carefully and promptly.

Office of Dean of Men

In his first year as Dean of Men, Mr. R. L. Lunsford has met the difficult and exacting duties of his administrative position calmly and capably.

His is the difficult task of acting as mediator between faculty and student body. That he has acted successfully so, can be attested by both groups alike.

In addition to the responsibilities of discipline and counsel, Mr. Lunsford has oversight of the use of automobiles on the campus, and handles part of the student employment detail.

ADMINISTRATORS

Office of Treasurer

The Office of Treasurer handles all financial arrangements concerning the College and the Student Body. Dr. J. F. Leist is the college purchasing agent. All orders for supplies and equipment for the College are handled through his office.

To these duties are added those of comptroller, auditor, and keeper of the accounts of the Student Organization Fund.

In this office Dr. Leist on four memorable occasions throughout the year wrote out the checks which closed the eighteen-month campaign April 1, 1944, completely liquidating the debt against the College.

From this brief sketch of his administrative activities it can easily be seen the arduous and exacting nature of his duties. In spite of these, Dr. Leist is never too busy to assist a student in difficulty by careful and wise counsel, or to sponsor parties and other social functions during the school year.

J. F. LEIST
TREASURER

LINFORD A. MARQUART
REGISTRAR

Office of Registrar

The office of Linford A. Marquart, Registrar, is an information bureau of the students enrolled in Olivet. The students are guided through school by the up-to-date records which keep them posted as to status in school, courses, requirements, averages and classifications. An evaluation of all credits is made here both of incoming and advanced students.

Most of the contacts with prospective students are made through this office. High school students who plan to enter Olivet College are advised what their program should include to meet the entrance requirements. Prospective teachers are aided in finding positions upon graduation by a Teachers' Placement Service Bureau. Mr. Marquart also keeps various records to supply information upon request to District Examining Boards.

A complete registration list of students, showing their registration and graduation or transfer is nearing completion, and future plans include a personnel record of student extra-curricular effort.

MAINTENANCE

RUSSELL L. MURPHY has been with the college only one year, but already he has proved that he is the man for the job. When he came here to be our Chef and Manager of the Dining Room and Nook, he had to his credit more than a dozen years of experience as Chef, Dietician, and Restaurant Operator. He came to us from Asbury College, Wilmore, Kentucky. Mr. Murphy is a native of West Virginia, which might account for his Southern drawl and dry wit. Those who know him well refer to him as "Chef" or "Doc".

MRS. ERMA KAMPE has for two and a half years been a stand-by in the Nook. To the waiters and waitresses she is known as "Mom" Kampe or just plain "Ma". Cooking is her specialty. Her calm, patient, reserved personality has won her many friends at Olivet.

EDWARD A. BRODIEN has been the Engineer and Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds since 1941. Versatility is his forte. Electrician, Plumber, Carpenter, Boiler Repairman, Refrigeration and Air Conditioning Engineer are but a few of his titles. He came to us with a quarter-century of experience in his field. "Ed" is capable, congenial, and well-liked.

RAYMOND E. TUCKER, the Dining Hall Host, was a draftee from the ranks of the student body. This Senior, who hails from Winchester, Indiana, was distinguished from the rank and file by his immaculate white coat, and proved himself to be a capable as well as affable host.

CLASS OF FORTY - FOUR

Donning their caps and gowns, the class of 1944 is the first class to add to tradition by completing four years of college education at Olivet's new location. Last fall they elected a noble staff of officers, and unanimously chose Ray Knighton to be Honorary President of the class.

A school spirit of top-notch quality was expressed by this class at the basketball tourney. The team fought while the seniors cheered them in an unashamed downfall of their dignity. Finally the team that was said to have had nothing, not even suits to play in at the beginning of the round-robin, came through with a tumultuous victory over the defending champs, the juniors.

Among the many activities that the class participated in was the hilarious Barn Party given the junior class. Last, and probably the greatest event as far as the Class of 1944 is concerned, was the successful banquet given by the Juniors. This made the fitting climax to the memories that the seniors take with them as they leave these college halls.

CLASS OF 1944

CLASS OF FORTY-FIVE

Completing its third year on Olivet's campus, the Junior Class can proudly retrospect a "successful" year.

Highlights of the year began with the Juniors sponsoring a happy, all-school Hallowe'en Party under the leadership of capable Essie Frost. Following on Monday, November 22, while Seniors enjoyed an afternoon siesta, the Class of '45 made a "successful" daylight journey to the big-shouldered city. Here the class was reunited to Sponsor White and President Beeson, who had "snuk" ahead of the crowd. Hill's Cafeteria, all night at Woodlawn Church and Parsonage, the Museum of Science and Industry, downtown for a lunch at the Forum, back to Alma Mater to be welcomed by the Seniors . . . and another Junior Sneak is only memories.

Early in the second semester the class enjoyed an afternoon tea at the home of Dr. and Mrs. S. S. White. Dr. Harry E. Jessop of Chicago Evangelistic Institute was the guest of honor. Climaxing the year, with Norman Bloom leading, the Juniors played the role of host to the Class of '44, at an enjoyable Junior-Senior Banquet, where a "good time was had by all".

CLASS OF FORTY- SIX

Eva Kurtzweil, secretary, stands with pencil poised to record words of wisdom from Roger Ward, treasurer; Clare St. John, president; and James Honaker, vice-president.

The main activity sponsored by the Sophomores was the initiation of the Freshman class in the fall. The traditional green caps were placed on Freshmen heads and for the remainder of the week they were marked persons and subject to the bidding of any upperclassman. All this fun and merriment at the expense of the new students was climaxed with a party given by their persecutors.

The Spring Frolic was another proof of Sophomore genius under the direction of Marjorie Howe. Everyone enjoyed this charming All-School party.

At the head of this class is Clare St. John, president, aided by James Honaker, vice-president; Eva Kurtzweil, secretary; and Roger Ward, treasurer. This year of their college life is closed, and this progressive class stands at the threshold of their Junior year.

CLASS OF FORTY-SEVEN

More than one hundred twenty green freshies arrived from practically every region of our United States to invade the stern halls of Olivet at the beginning of the school year.

After surviving the strenuous ordeal of registration, the Frosh vigorously tackled books and studies and endeavored to acquaint and accustom themselves to the rigorous schedule of college activities, all the while calmly and graciously accepting the severe humiliations and gross discourtesies meted out by the most honorable upperclassmen.

The year's social activities sponsored by the Freshmen included Santa's Funfest, rollicking Christmas party; numerous all-school Singfests; and Harmony Holiday, annual Frosh-Soph party, at which the Freshmen evidenced their hospitality and fellowship.

This Class of '47 has manifested the faith and courage, persistence and determination, ability and integrity necessary for success during this difficult wartime school year. We predict accomplishments and achievements for this worthy class of which Olivet Nazarene College will be justly proud.

BIBLE COLLEGE SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

A spiritual emphasis is the motivating factor in the lives and activities of the students enrolled in the Bible College. Eighty-five per cent of these students have definite calls of Christian service and fifty-eight per cent of the number are engaged in Christian work while they are studying those things that will contribute to their future ministry. Eight are student pastors.

The class party in March provided relaxation from the more serious things in life. Every one enjoyed good music, games and refreshments on this occasion.

The featured social events were the annual banquet that is given at the end of the year and the Bible College Homecoming that honors the graduates and former students of this department at an early morning breakfast.

BIBLE COLLEGE UNDERGRAD CLASS OFFICERS

ELMER DANNER

Elmer Danner has spent three years in Olivet. He was the vice-president of the Bear Brand Club for one year and served as president of the club the following year. He has served as chaplain for one year and had charge of the Worker's noonday prayer meeting. He expects to take a pastorate when he completes his studies.

LAURA HILL

Laura Hill attended the Minnesota Bible College at Minneapolis before coming to Olivet and has been enrolled in the Bible College for one year. She is the secretary-treasurer of her class, and assists in services at the Old People's Home. Upon completion of her studies she intends to devote her time to pastoral work.

PEARL MEYER

Pearl Meyer, Student Council Representative and vice-president of the Senior Class, was also vice-president of the undergraduates in 1943. She was enrolled in the College of Liberal Arts for two and a half years and has spent two years in the Bible College. She expects to devote her energies to the evangelistic field after her graduation.

ROY MUMAU

Roy Mumau, president of the senior class, attended Cleveland Bible College and Ashland Seminary, matriculating to Olivet in 1942. He has three years of pastoral experience and intends to resume pastoral activity upon graduation.

LLOYD PETERS

Lloyd Peters has spent three years in Olivet and has participated in various week-end services. He anticipates many years of service in the ministry.

HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

The Academy this year had the largest enrollment of any previous year. These students enjoyed a Christmas party in the Dining Hall which was appropriately decorated for the season. The most important event for the High School students was the Annual Banquet held in the Gold Room of the Kankakee Hotel under the chairmanship of Betty Brown. In the Spring the graduating class entertained the undergrads at a weiner roast at the Calves.

Irene Copelin was the Student Council representative for the High School.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Ronald D. Jones in his two years at Olivet as Director of Athletics has proved himself resourceful and capable in the face of the many problems of his position.

Mr. Jones is now attending the University of Wisconsin doing graduate work on his Doctor's Degree. Due to his tireless efforts in the past years, the athletic interest at Olivet has been well coordinated with the scholastic and religious aims, enriching the lives of all students.

Interest in tumbling, badminton, swimming, handball and other minor athletic games has steadily mounted. Olivet possesses one of the finest gymnasiums in the country among the colleges of its size. It is the center of activities on each weekend evening. The table tennis tournament was especially packed with thrills and excitement.

RONALD D. JONES
Director of Athletics

STUDENT ADMINISTRATION

Holding the reins for the "horsemen" of Troy has been the able John Hieftje, who pushed Coaches James Rice and Corinne Kauffman to the finish wire in winning style.

Wielding the scalping axe for the fighting redmen has been Chief Frank Watkin issuing wise counsel to Coaches Connie Clendenen and Mable Grubb.

Guiding the battles for the stalwart men of Sparta has been General Roger Ward, who passed his orders to Coaches Kenneth Houst and Marge Howe in a stern fighting manner.

ATHLETIC ADMINISTRATION

This year saw us without the services of Athletic Director Ronald D. Jones, who was granted a leave to continue his graduate work. However, under the able leadership of Director Wilma Shaw, interest in athletics at Olivet has mounted even though many of our athletes are in the armed services. Assisting her in her many duties has been Paul Oman, who has guided the men in their classes and minor athletic games. Mrs. Shaw has done a splendid job with this department and our hats are off to her and her fine assistant for a successful year of athletics. Mrs. Shaw has stressed athletics saturated with clean living and clean playing.

CHEERLEADERS

A new addition to the college this year were the Cheerleaders. These "little misses" dressed appropriately for the occasion, led their respective societies in cheering, and added color and spirit to our Friday night games.

Leading the band this year were two students, Janet Brown and Melvin Lamb, who performed between halves of the basketball games helping to make the Friday evenings more exciting. These two rate a vote of cheers for their fine work with the batons.

Women's "O" Club

These are the women who have shown their valor on the track, diamond, and cage floor. The Club has enjoyed an active season and cooperated with the men in promoting the "O" Club Tip-Off and Alumni Banquet.

June Starr has led the club in its activities, assisted by Sec.-Treas. Marge Howe. This year has been a successful one in all ways for the women athletic stars, who closed the season with a dinner at Hotel Kankakee.

Men's "O" Club

Here are the fellows who have fought and played hard to realize a life's ambition of winning a cherished "O". They have shown their value on the cinders, hardwood, and diamond to prove their worthiness to be members of the college lettermen's club.

This year the club, under the leadership of President Connie Clendenen, Vice-President Kenneth Foust, and Sec.-Treas. John Hieftje, has made great strides in helping the athletic directors form an interesting and effective athletic program.

As an addition to the annual "O" Club "Tip-Off", the First Annual Homecoming dinner was inaugurated and proved to be successful. The spring banquet closed the club's activities for the year.

"O" Club Initiation

The newcomers to the Women's "O" Club, Kurtzweil, Starr, Christiansen, Cross, Fruehling and Martin, were traditionally given the weird initiation treatment by the club's old-timers, Shaw, Kendell, Grubb, Kauffman, Zimmerman, Howe, Bushey, Knight, and Johnston. It was well worth it, though, wasn't it, girls?

The Men's "O" Club received into its midst four new members this year, but not until they had been given "the works". Those receiving the egg ceremonies were Armstrong, Beeson, Gibson, and Kincaid. Issuing the paddlings and administering the shampoos were the veterans Hieftje, Shaw, Clendenen, Oman, Maish, Martin, Foust, Rice, Summers, Parrott, and Green. Remember this, fellows, it is your turn to initiate next year!

Dinner and Tip-Off

Here are the Alumni and the two "O" Clubs enjoying the Alumni banquet that topped off a day of activities and featured the game between the returning Alumni and the All-School squad. The Alumni won, but not until the large crowd had witnessed a thrilling exhibition of basketball skill by both teams. Dr. Laurence Howe was the dinner speaker and, as always, held his audience spell-bound with the sparkle and depth of his after-dinner speech.

TROJAN SOFTBALL

Men

When the Trojan coach called for softball practice and looked into the faces of a full squad of veterans, a pleasant smile crossed his countenance, and he knew this was the year for a Trojan title. From the beginning to the end, the team worked as a good team should to coast into the championship seat. Four members of this team, Fruehling, Hieftje, Rice, and Beeson, were chosen for the All-School team. This team looks strong as title contenders in the coming spring baseball season.

Women

The Trojan girls carried on in the footsteps of their brothers and "copped" the women's softball championship in grand style. Aiding Coach Kauffman were veterans June Starr, Fruehling, and Cross, with DeMint, Jane Starr, and Leitsch adding new spark to the team and helping in the drive to first half honors. With this same team at her fingertips Kauffman should have little difficulty in pushing her girls to the finish line in first position.

TROJAN BASKETBALL

Women

The Trojan girls continued in first place in the basketball race, but had to share the honors with the Indians, thanks to a Spartan victory over the Trojans in the final game. Led by the Starr twins and DeMint, the Trojans fought to the finish and produced thrill after thrill for the spectators. This year's squad, coached by Corinne Kauffman, played a fast passing game that produced the desired results, the title.

Men

With five returning veterans from last year's squad the Trojan coach, James Rice, encountered few difficulties in winning this year's title. Led by All-School men—Forward John Hieftje, Guard James Shaw, and Center Wilbur Beeson, the team "steam-rolled" all opposition until the last game with the Indians. Here they met a tough foe and were subdued by the score of 34-32 in a thrill-packed game. This team, needing little coaching on fundamentals, was guided to the finish line in championship fashion by Coach Rice.

TROJAN "BIG FIVE"

Here is the team that crossed the line as basketball champs—the Trojans. John Hieftje and Dale Fruehling were the fast-shooting forwards. These two were always in the game fighting and constant scoring threats. The towering red-head from Indiana, Wilbur Beeson, was their center who contributed his share of the game-winning points. The guard positions were in competent hands, with James Shaw and James Rice holding opposing forwards in check. This team had that necessary fight and hustle that marks every championship team. From this team Hieftje, Shaw, and Beeson were chosen as members of the All-School team.

INDIAN SOFTBALL

Men

Coach Connie Clendenen was faced this year with a squad greatly reduced by graduation and the "call to arms." The team had returning veterans Green, Bloom, St. John, Clendenen, and Noble, with newcomers Powers, Breedon, Miller, Wilson, and Elwanger adding new life and spark to the team. This team ended the season in a second place tie with the Spartans, but should make it tough for the other two societies in the spring baseball campaign. This team contributed four members to the All-School team, giving Green, Clendenen, St. John, and Noble.

Women

Coach Grubb and her "squaws" did not fare so well this year in the first half race, but should be strong finishers as a result of the addition of some new recruits. The whole squad lacked strength in the field and at the plate. The team, however, with veterans Grubb, Christiansen, Johnston, and the addition of some outstanding rookies, is greatly improved and should prove troublesome in the last half of the title drive.

INDIAN BASKETBALL

Men

Graduation and Uncle Sam left Coach Clendenen with no returning players to begin the cage campaign. Blessed with young, hard-working newcomers, who by spending diligent hours in practice perfected a fast passing attack, the Indian society had a worthy representative for the 1944 season. They gained through experience and finished the season with second place honors. Paced by tall, lanky center Bloom, deceptive guard Green, and hard-fighting forward St. John, the team never said "die" until the final gun. They gave the Friday night crowds many thrills, the climax coming in the final game when the Indians handed the champion 'Trojans their lone defeat. The sensational play of forward Dud Powers, high school junior, had much to do with the final outcome of this game. Coach Clendenen was chosen from this team as All-Star guard.

Women

The Indian girls shared first place honors with the Trojan girls. This team was supported by veterans Kendall, Grubb, and Martin and ably aided by Lindquist, Beals, and Habeggar. They mixed good shooting and fast passing to arrive at the victor's seat and gave its admirers no disappointing moments. Grubb and Beals were the leading scorers for the team, with Martin doing the outstanding guarding.

INDIAN "BIG FIVE"

These are the Indian "Big Five," who represented their society and proved the old saying that practice makes perfect. They began the season as a green, unseasoned squad and developed into "the class" of the 1944 society campaign. Forwards Clare St. John and Dud Powers were constant scoring threats and rebound artists, and set up numerous close shots for center Norman Bloom. Here was the fellow who sparked the Indian drive to second place honors. The diminutive guards, James Green and Connie Clendenen, were always in the hair of opposing forwards and added to the scoring totals of the team. These two played consistent passing games and were clever ball handlers in spite of their size. Of these five, guard Clendenen was a choice for the All-School five.

Second Teams

Not to be forgotten are the second team fellows who play hard to prove their value and to rate a position on the first teams. Starring for the Trojans in their drive to finish first in the second team race were Irving Sullivan, James Holstein, and Lynn Scott. The Indians' "little guns" were "Red" Miller, Don Wayland, and Leroy Shipley. The men of Sparta had Paul Miller, Don Starr, and Chester Pasco. The Spartan second team took second place honors and should add strength to next year's first team Spartans. If Holstein and Red Miller continue their shooting sprees they are sure of a place on their respective first teams for next year. Good luck, fellows!

SPARTAN SOFTBALL

Men

This year found the Spartans sharing second place laurels with the Redmen. Coach Foust was the possessor of a team consisting of six veterans and four raw rookies. Of this number Ward and Gardner made the All-School team. This team was blessed with unusually strong pitching, but lacked hitting power and defensive strength. With the exception of one or two members, Coach Foust has the same team returning for the spring baseball season, when they should be strong contenders for the title.

Women

The Spartan women, led by their unusual coach and pitcher, Marge Howe, finished in second position ahead of the Indians. This team gained in strength as the result of new recruits and was strong at the plate and in the field. However, the team never seemed to find itself in the first round but can be counted on to finish in the last round this spring. Frost, Strahl, Brown, Andrews, and Knight were the consistent team members who will be returning for the spring campaign.

SPARTAN BASKETBALL

Men

As the cage campaign made its debut, the Spartan team seemed, at least on paper, to be the team to back. However, championships are not won on paper and since this team possessed too many individual stars to rate first position, the end of the season found them firmly stationed in the cellar. Coach Foust was faced with the problem of developing a passing game and was never able to find the proper solution. With Oman and Little as his sharp shooting forwards, Foust gained numerous points, but his team lacked defensive strength, as shown by the score of their final encounter with the Indians, when they were literally "swamped" 60-33. Ward, Foust, and Gardner rounded out the cellar dwellers and were the "never die men" who checked the opposing forwards. Harold Little was chosen from this team as All-School forward.

Women

The Spartan women, sparked by Coach Marge Howe, closed the season in grand style when they defeated the Trojans, thus giving the Indian girls a share of first place honors. Coach Howe led all girls in scoring this year and proved a good defensive player as well as a good sport. Frost, Knight and Strahl were consistent performers for the women of Sparta and added hustle and fight to match Howe's scoring ability. This team developed fast and never gave the Spartan followers a dull moment.

SPARTAN "BIG FIVE"

The five "guns" of the Spartan society played exceptionally smooth basketball this season, although the final gun found them in the bottom position. This team had the "hot-shots" of the school, but could never combine this factor with the necessary hustle that "champs" need. Paul Oman, Harold Little, and Kenneth Foust were the scoring threats, with Oman and Little fighting to the finish to close the season in first and second places in the scoring race. Adding fight and good sportsmanship to the team were Roger Ward and Ray Gardner, who proved their worth as rebound men. With a little hustle and teamwork these fellows could easily have been "the class" of society basketball, but instead, they were just another team. Harold Little was a unanimous choice for a forward position on the All-School five.

ALL-SCHOOL TEAMS

Every year a group of fellows is destined to become stars in the different sports activities of Olivet's campus. This year All-School teams were chosen by the members of the men's "O" Club. The All-School men were chosen because of outstanding individual ability and also as a result of their team play. The three societies are well represented on these squads, no one society dominating the sports arena this year.

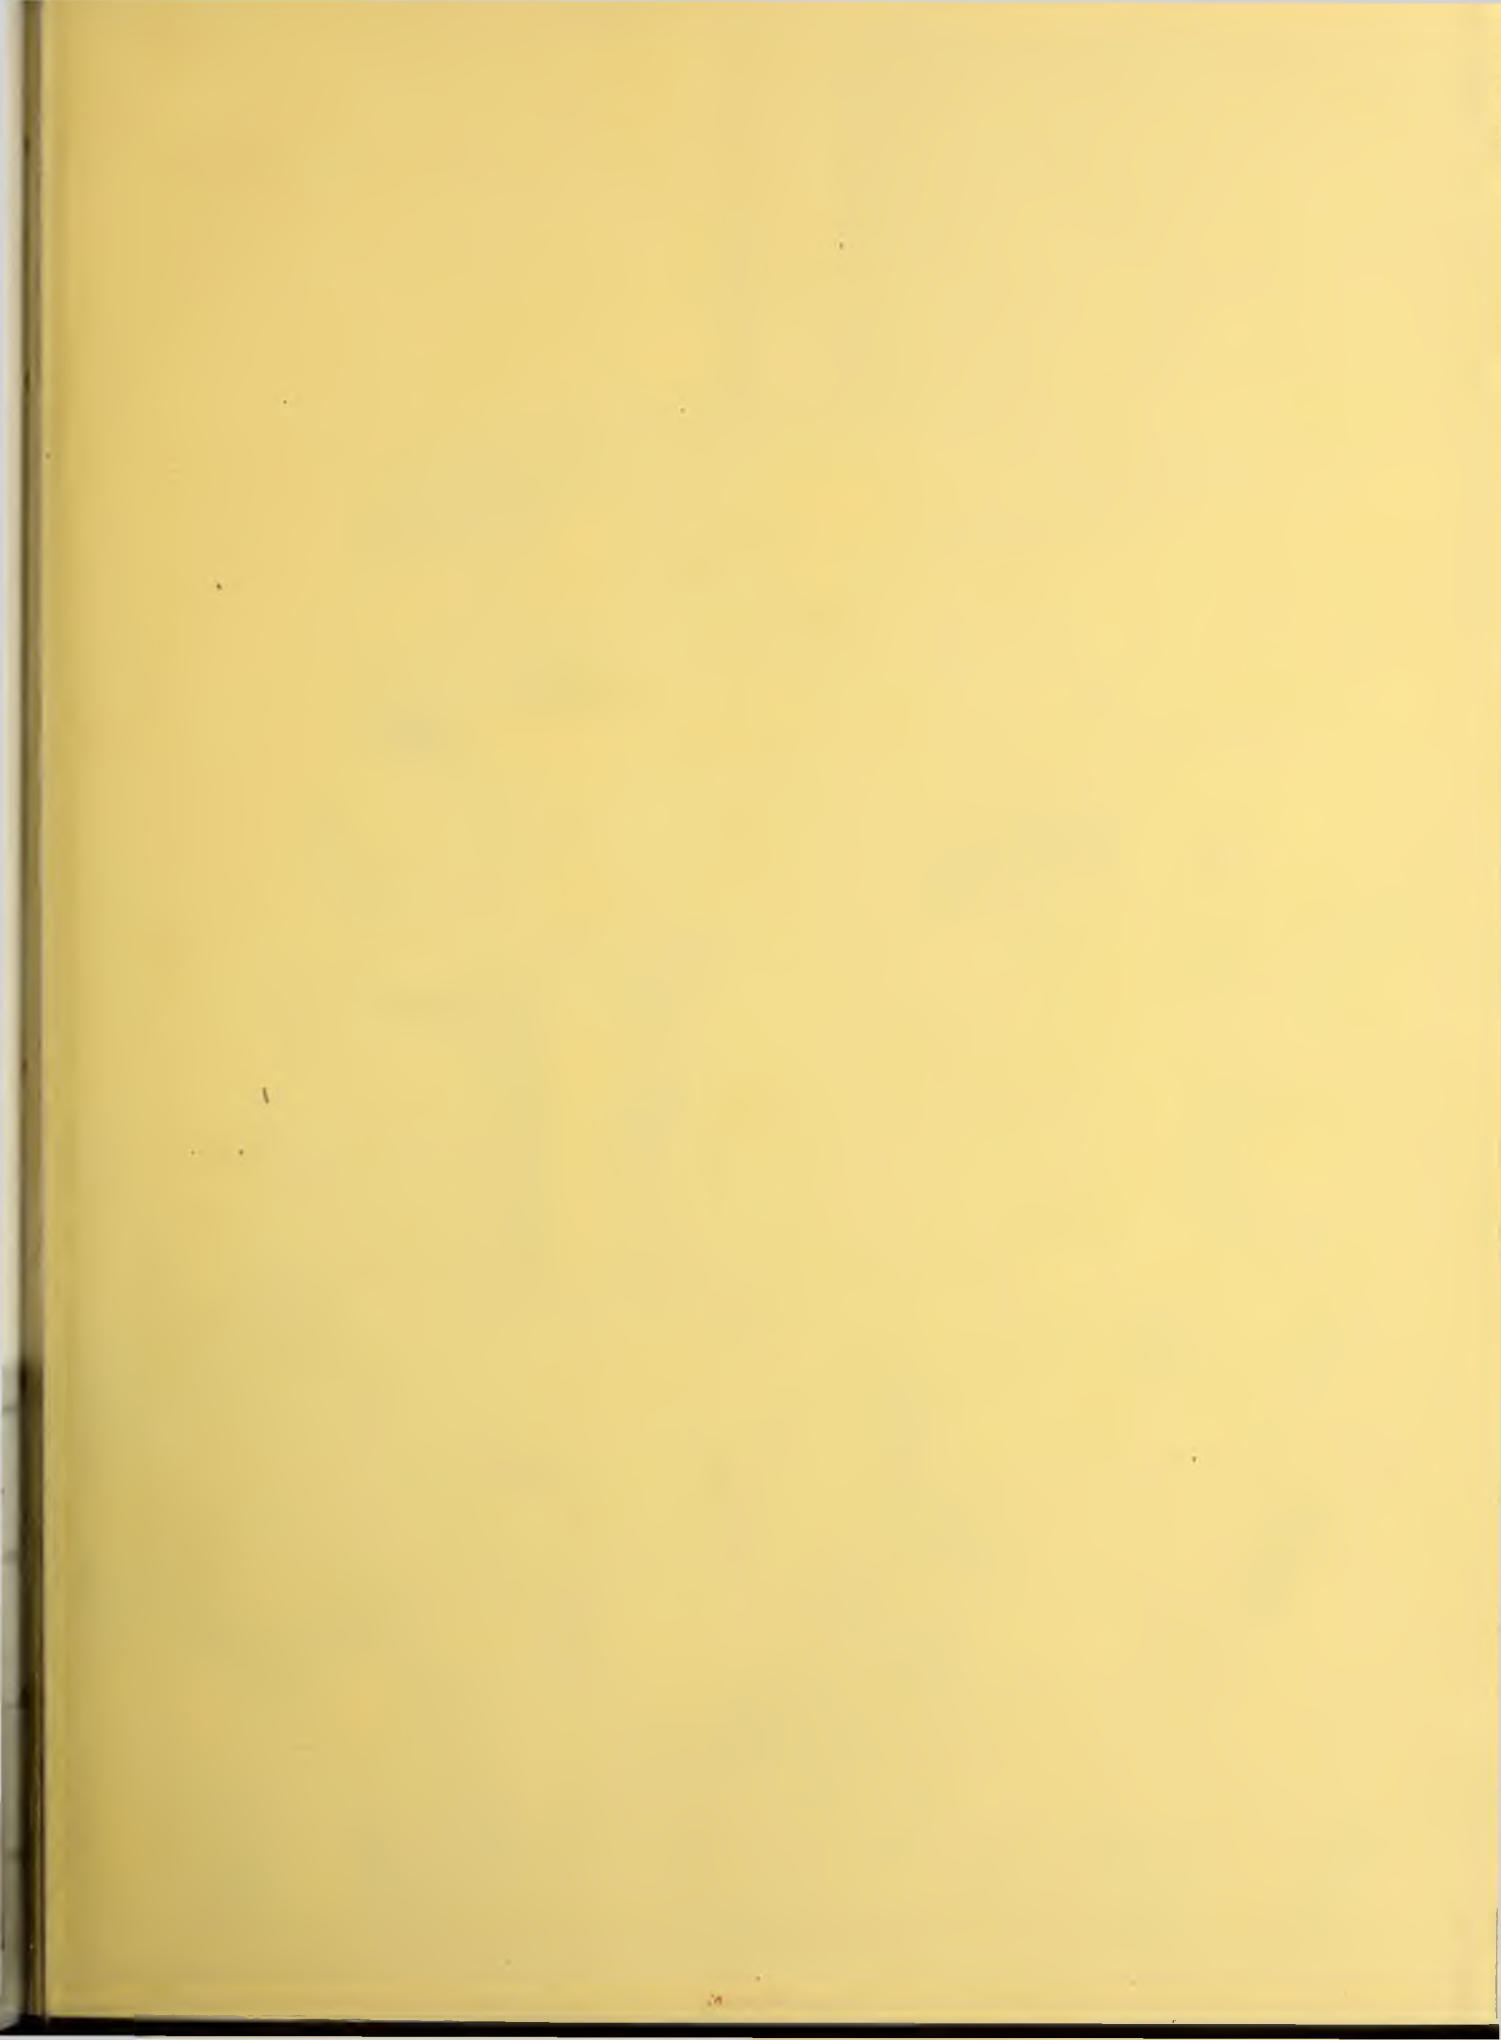

This year's softball team is composed of four Trojans, four Indians, and two Spartans. They were chosen as having outstanding ability on the diamond and will receive letters as rewards for their achievements.

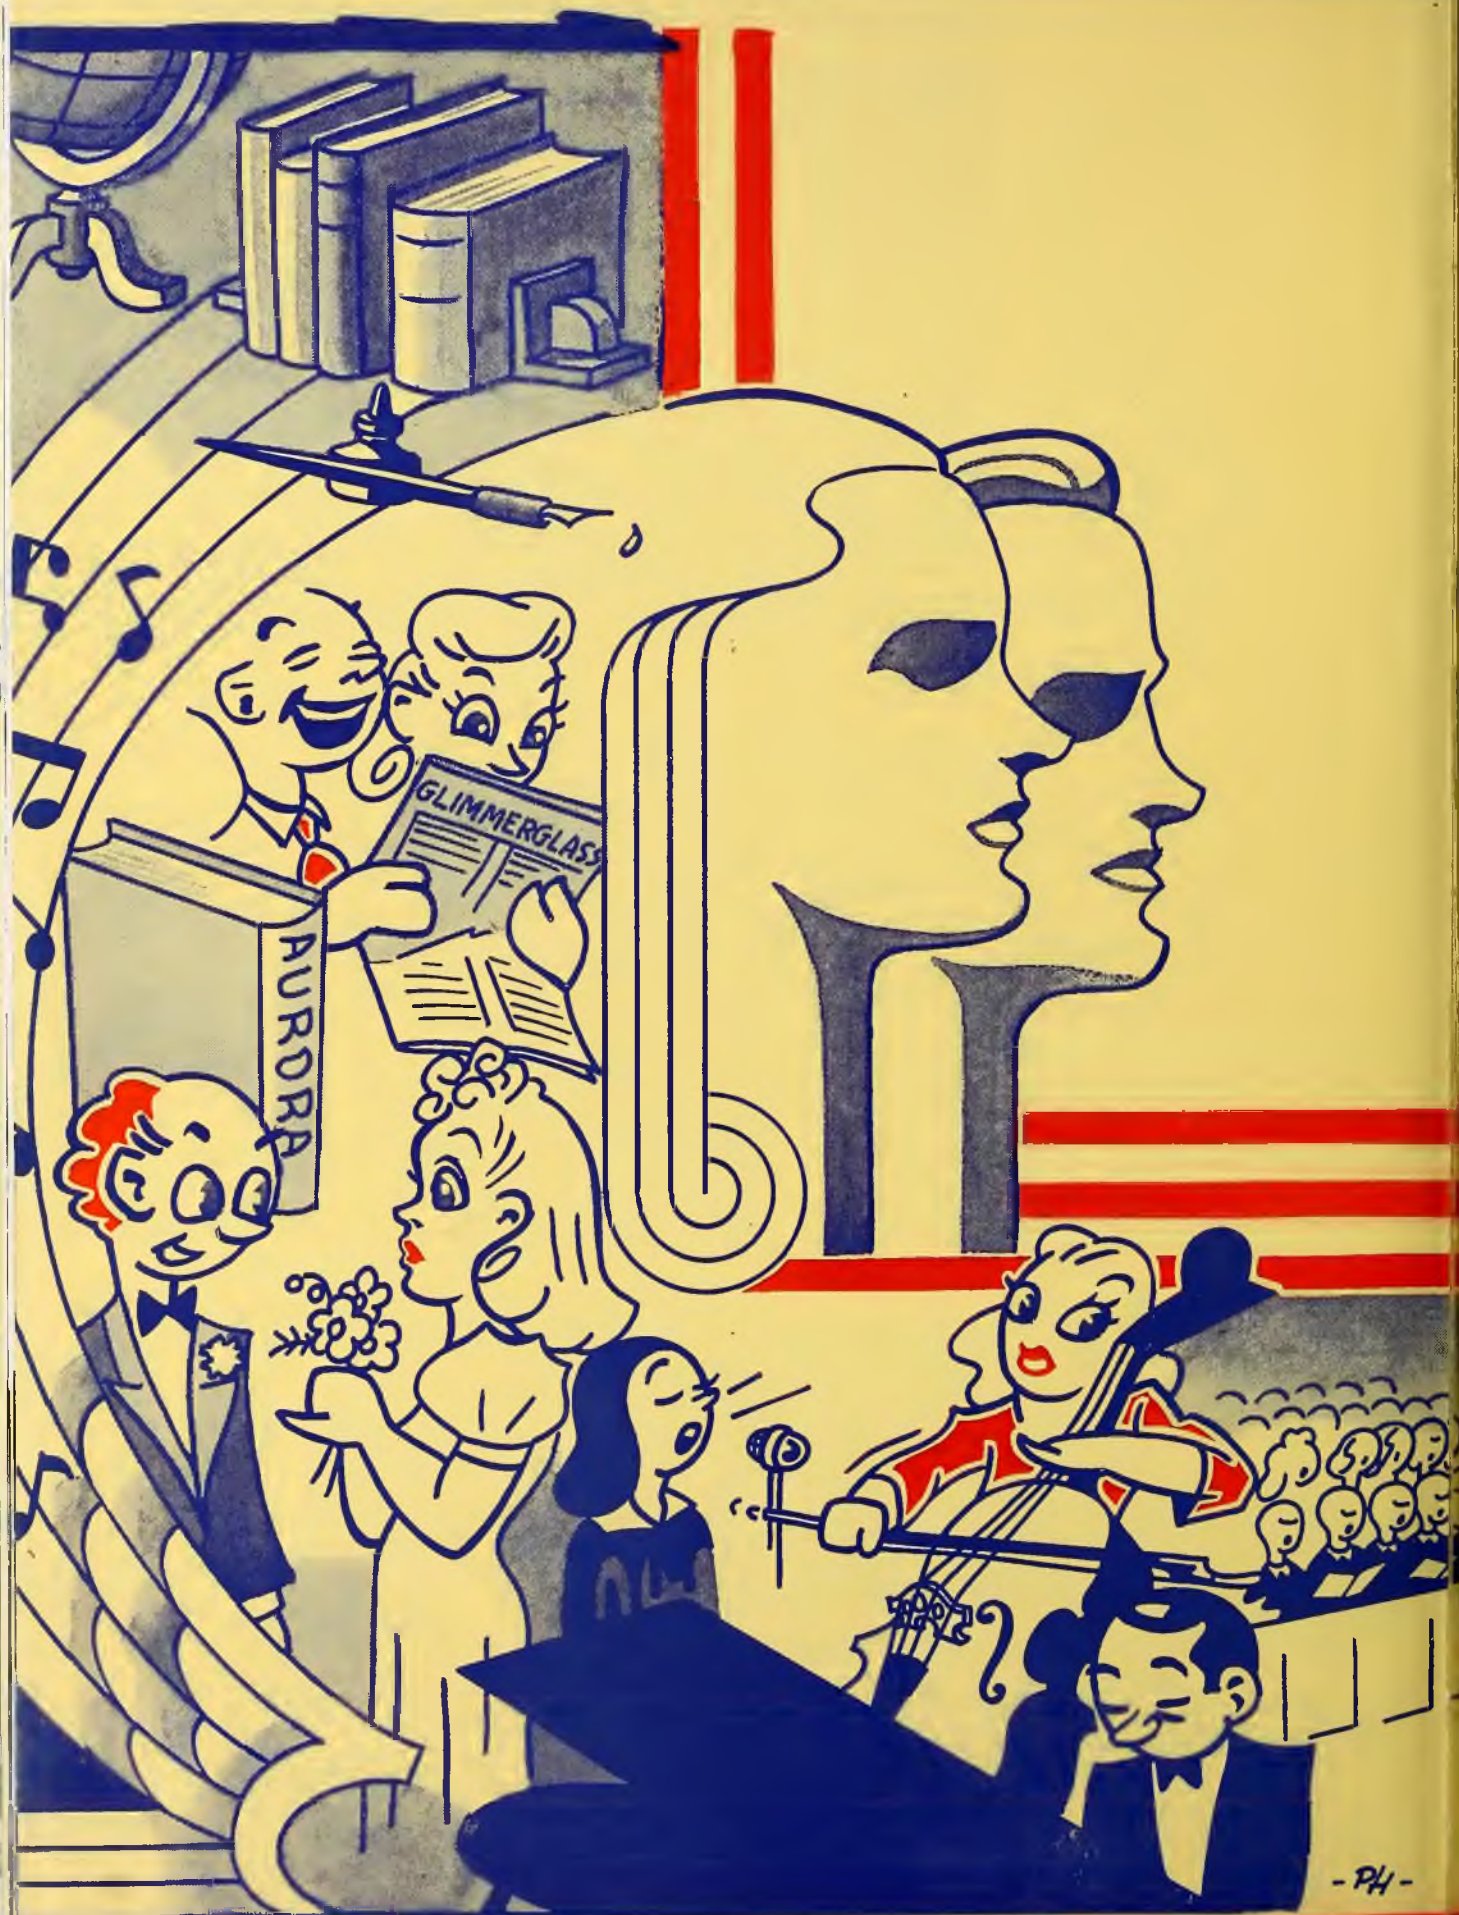

The race for the 1944 cage All-Star championship was exciting and close until the final gun of the season. Five men were chosen most distinctive, the Trojans placing three men, the Indians and Spartans one each on this squad.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Olivet Nazarene College Alumni Association is attempting to enroll all of the alumni as active members this year. Any individual with a diploma or certificate from Olivet College is automatically eligible to active membership.

President Remiss Rehfeldt is assisted in the administrative duties of the association by Fred Reedy, vice-president; Linford A. Marquart, executive secretary; Ruth E. Gilley, treasurer, and Katherine Howe, historian. Dr. Hugh Benner is at present the Alumnus representative on the Board of Trustees. The most important gathering of the group is the annual Alumni Dinner.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council of 1943-1944 has served its purpose as the link between the student body and the administration. Under the leadership of Craig Blanchard as president and Virgil Sprunger as secretary-treasurer, the group has been especially active this year.

The formal Christmas dinner in the dining hall, with Dr. Selden Dee Kelley as guest speaker, and the All-School Spring Frolic were among the activities sponsored by the group this year. The council was also responsible for the Friday evening dining hall programs and the Friday chapel programs.

The pedestals under the busts in the foyer of the Administration Building were purchased by this year's Council. The Council, with the aid of Dr. Howe, provided attendance for the students at the Forum in substitution for Lyceum Lecture Series.

Credit should be given to Prof. McClain, whose wealth of experience as director of student organizations has capably advised the activities of the Student Council.

Here are students who through consistent, well-directed study, persistent tenacity, and mental superiority have distinguished themselves scholastically.

The national honor society of the Church of the Nazarene, Phi Delta Lambda, was officially inaugurated at the 1940 General Assembly. Alpha Tau Delta constitutes an undergraduate chapter of the organization.

Prerequisite to membership in the Olivet chapter is a 2. average for the previous year. Of the graduating senior members of Alpha Tau Delta, fifteen per cent may be chosen to Phi Delta Lambda, the national chapter.

It is encouraging to note that Alpha Tau Delta is larger this year than it has ever been before.

SWEAT THE "IN

Our job is our pleasure! Let it not be said that college students go out into the world without an appreciation for honest labor, not all college students at least. We are proud to say that most of Olivet's student body busy themselves with some kind of employment to supplement Dad's resources. And some who do not need to earn their expenses have discovered that there is value and fun as well as remuneration in brow-sweat.

The Nook and the Dining Room offer the greatest attraction for part-time work on the campus. These hundreds of hungry mouths must be fed . . . and on time, too! They've given us super-service. The boys in the boiler room have more opportunity to fulfill the text quoted above. We hope that their benefits are proportionately great. They keep the rooms warm and take all weather complaints in good nature.

The executive offices are located on the first floor of the Administration building. Those white-collared lads and lassies who are so innately adept at the three R's find versatile employment in these offices. They get us in debt and out again; registered and passed (we hope); on and off the "Carpet". The postoffice employees make us extremely happy with three letters and a package from home in the same day or make us nostalgic by their persistent neglect. The Bookstore fellows are experts on books, text and otherwise, and handle a complete line of college supplies. Music supplies are handled through a special office known as the Music Office. Their employees form the nucleus for business transactions of the music department of the college.

Fourteen bookish students are employed to aid the knowledge-thirsty in their quest for printed truths in our growing stacks of books in the library. Thanks to the Powers-That-Be, our library has been practically rebuilt since the fire at old Olivet.

Throughout the year the school employs a number of maintenance workers who care for our seven buildings and forty-two-acre campus. Many improvements have been made by this ambitious crew, including new sidewalks and a newly decorated Administration building. We are justly proud of our debt-free million-dollar campus and those who so ably maintain it.

In addition to the employment furnished by the school, neighborhood factories, offices, and stores provide incomes for those who find it necessary to earn a larger per cent of their college expenses.

OLIVET DEBT FREE

Dr. Parrott held sixty-nine services in the college debt campaign, visiting all the districts and raising more than $30,000 on the debt.

Dr. R. T. Williams, Senior General Superintendent of the Church of the Nazarene, delivered the Commencement address and conducted the mortgage burning service May 24, 1944.

Dr. Leist, signing the last check for $21,000, completing the Debt Payments.

Mrs. J. F. Leist traveled many weeks and held more than one hundred fifty services and raised many thousands of dollars on the debt.

Standing, l. to r., Prof. McClain, Prof. Marquart, Prof. Strickler. Seated, Dr. White and Dr. Leist look at the debt payment checks. These six checks, written within eighteen months and totaling $175,000, give us a debt-free college.

DEDICATION

To the Administration of the College, District Superintendents, Pastors, and Laity of the Central Educational Zone who under the hand of God have willingly worked together to liquidate this debt, we students owe an immense debt of gratitude.

To them we respectfully dedicate this thirty-first volume of the Aurora.

The redheads are fast coming out of the minority class at Olivet and have organized themselves under the title "Vermilion Vagabonds." All natural redheads are accepted for membership, but no artificialities are tolerated. The faculty sponsor was Prof. Leonard Goodwin. Harold Meadows acted as President; Lois Grey, Vice-President; and Lois Yingling, Secretary-Treasurer.

The Giant's Club, composed of misses less than five feet in altitude, was organized three years ago to preserve law and order on the campus. Big rousements were held at the Leist Manor on sundry occasions, where the group provided their own special speakers. Anna Morris was the Generalissimo Presidante; Martha Craig, Vice-Generalissimo Presidante; Mary Sanborn, Secretarial (pencil pusher); Henrietta Mayes, Comptroller of the Currency; Anna Sherwood, Secretarial of the Interior (eats); Pauline Eversole, Majorette Recreationale; Lottie Tresner, Poet Laurette; Nondas Taylor, Minister Plenipotentiary without portfolio (historian); and Maximus Sponsorius, Prof. Leist.

This was the initial year for the Midget's Club and all male collegians whose stature has developed in height to six feet or above were eligible for membership. The membership committee thought of launching a campaign drive to develop new members by means of stretching exercises. Don Starr, president, said, "It has been rumored that the Midgets don't know which way is 'up,' but from the appearance of the situation we are arriving in that direction." Other officers were Kenneth Sparks, vice-president; James Honaker, secretary-treasurer; and Dr. James Garner, sponsor.

The students from South of the Mason-Dixon Line banded together under the sponsorship of Dr. and Mrs. Leist in an endeavor to form a common tie for those in a strange land. They named themselves the Dixie Club. Meetings were held bi-monthly and were conducted by President Leila Dell Miller. Her staff of helpers consisted of Vice-President Carmal Carroll; Secretary Kathryn Wood; and Treasurer Irene Meador.

The Big Little Sister Club was organized for the purpose of acquainting the girls coming to college for the first time with our campus and its many activities. A reception was held in the Dining Hall in the fall and before the Christmas Holidays the co-eds gathered in the college parlors for a housecoat party. The officers were Darlene Christiansen, president; Dorothy Wilson, vice-president; and Dorothy Totel, secretary-treasurer.

BIG LITTLE SISTER CLUB

The International Relations Club of Olivet Nazarene College is a chapter which is affiliated with the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. It was organized the second semester with the purpose of promoting a better understanding of international relations and to unite the nations in a friendly cooperation for world peace. Books and various material are furnished the club so they can more clearly understand the international situation.

The club meets monthly under the faculty direction of Dr. James Garner and student direction of Benny Garriss. Other officers include Arthur Payne, vice-president, and Ruth Crosier, secretary-treasurer.

An outstanding program was provided by a returned Presbyterian missionary who spoke on "Brazil in the Post War Era." The club also sent representatives to the annual regional meeting which the endowment sponsors.

LENSMEN

In the fourth year of its existence, the Lensmen, the college photographic organization, focused its attention to the task of creating a print exhibition of professional caliber. This, of necessity, required the development of its members in the knowledge and practice of camera tactics. Consequently, demonstrations of picture taking and darkroom technique highlighted the bi-monthly meetings which were open to those individuals interested in the art and science of photography. The proof of the correct exposure of its members to proper procedure was seen in the enlargement of the spring salon, yearly viewing of the society's prize prints, in spite of wartime shortages of photographic supplies.

In the foreground of the picture are Donald Starr, head of the camera addicts, and his capable assistant, Roger Kincaid, who charted the programs for the year. Don Bell, the record holder, acted also as a guardian of the exchequer, while Professor Harold M. D'Arcy, professor of chemistry and physics, was sponsor to the shutter clickers.

The Orpheus Choir, under the direction of Professor Walter B. Larsen, carries high the standards of culture and aesthetic achievement that a liberal arts college should maintain. Keeping up with its eleven-year tradition, the choir once again performed brilliantly in another year's ministry to people of several faiths. Once again it caught the spirit of those special events which fall on the academic calendar, transforming them into deeply significant events.

The outstanding event of the year was the Christmas concert tour, on which the choir rendered Handel's Messiah to five appreciative audiences in Kankakee, Chicago, Detroit, Lansing, and Grand Rapids. This was especially eventful because it was the Choir's first time to present this oratorio on a concert tour.

The Choir's second public event was the spring concert at the First Evangelical Church in Kankakee. Their consistent presentation of fine music is the result of excellent leadership and hard work.

WALTER BURDICK LARSEN
DIRECTOR

Walter B. Larsen, who received his Mus.M. last year from the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago, has been an instructor in the Music Department at Olivet since 1930. He was the first, in 1927 at Northwest Nazarene College, to organize a traveling male quartet in any Nazarene College. The Orpheus Choir was organized under his leadership in 1932, and almost every year the group has made a concert tour. Mr. Larsen is a charter member of the Louise Robyn Musical Foundation.

TREBLE CLEF

Once a month this exceptionally fine girls' choir thrilled the Sunday evening audiences of our College Church with splendid arrangements of gospel songs and hymns. Under the direction of Professor Naomi Larsen the Choir grew from twenty-four to fifty-five voices, and has been very outstanding in performance. In addition to their monthly performance for the church, they appeared at the Alumni Dinner February seventh and at Parish Hall, Kankakee, on May second. Although this group is large, it is to be noted that the baton of Mrs. Larsen never failed to bring out close shading and great flexibility of interpretation.

HIGH SCHOOL CHOIR

A special achievement this year was the organization of a high school choir by Miss Blanche Garner, Professor of Music Theory.

Under her direction, the choir sang once a month in the Sunday evening service, sang at an assembly program and in the spring presented a concert in conjunction with the band.

The choir, which averaged twenty-six in attendance, was represented first semester by Dudley Powers, secretary; Ruth Farris, librarian; and Eva Kurtzweil, pianist. Second semester officers were Julia Dennis, president; Joseph Bredon, vice-president; Mary Dennis, librarian; and Margie Leitsch, pianist.

BAND

Rapid baseball enthusiasts were at their height this season as Olivet's marching band rolled off "The Pep Song." At every basketball game held in the field house the men of the "lyre" were present to add accompaniment to the already aroused competing societies.

The Christmas season found the band complying with the spirit of good tidings. The brass sextet, active in past years, jubilantly played "Joy to the World," followed by a band arrangement of "The First Noel."

Under the baton of Director Gibson the concert band gave its annual spring performance. Everyone enjoyed its presentation of some of the old hymns of the church set to band arrangement. John Hammond, trumpet soloist, astonished the audience with his interpretation of the ever beautiful "Stars in a Velvety Sky."

We hope in the future we can have a continuous growth in this organization as we have had the past year.

FORENSIC

The Forensic Society provided for those students interested in speech and literature an outlet of expression for the seventh year in O.N.C. To be admitted into the organization, the literary enthusiast must present an interpretive reading or speech to the society which judges the applicant on the basis of his performance. The number of members in the group is limited to approximately thirty.

Executive duties were delegated to James Rice, president, with Robert Ross in the second chair. John Rogers was responsible for the programs, and Mabel Grubb mustered the minutes and monies. Miss Louise McKinley sponsored the organization.

Following tradition, the initial program of the year was presented by the new members. The group traveled by bus to Ottawa, Illinois, for a Christmas party at the home of their president. Highlighting second semester programs was an interpretation of American Negro literature by Miss Bertha Supplee, professor of literature. A variety of interesting events rounded out another successful season for the Forensic members.

OMICRON MU KAPPA

Omicron Mu Kappa, music club of the college, enjoyed its third successful year under the capable leadership of President Eva Kurtzweil. Those assisting Miss Kurtzweil were Mable Grubb, vice-president; Ruth Anna Griffith, secretary; George Snyder, treasurer, and John Rogers, program chairman. Professor and Mrs. Larsen were unanimously elected as sponsors of the society.

Membership was different this year in that tryouts were held. Only those having freshman standing in voice, piano, violin, or organ were eligible for a try-out. A limited number was chosen from the entries by a special music faculty committee.

Two of the more outstanding meetings were an original composition program and a Brahms piano recital with a sketch of the great composer's life.

Omicron Mu Kappa's purpose is to elevate the standard of music appreciation among the students, to provide platform experience for its members, and to bring in outstanding musicians from the musical world.

LOUISE McKINLEY

Miss Louise McKinley, a graduate from Miami University in Ohio, is the head of the Speech Department and has added much to our school with the Chi Sigma Rho and the girls' choral verse choir. She has attended both Columbia and Northwestern Universities. Miss McKinley teaches rhetoric along with her speech classes. She is a member of Beta Phi Theta, National French Honorary Society.

CHI SIGMA RHO

This comparatively new organization celebrated its second birthday with a most successful year under the leadership of its talented director, Miss Louise McKinley. The society had regular class sessions and was incorporated into the academic schedule of the college. The introduction of movement and an increase in the size of the speaking choir helped label this season as the best to date.

Heading the speech choristers for the second straight year was Frank Watkin, outstanding student in interpretative speech. Jim Rice filled the vice-president's chair, while Mable Grubb scribbled out notes and collected the dues.

The outstanding presentation given during the season was Stephen Vincent Benet's "Nightmare at Noon." It was given in the College Auditorium and before the W.C.T.U. This presentation received much praise and stamped Chi Sigma Rho as one of the most outstanding organizations in the college. Other programs were given, including a special Easter service. One of the finest organizations on the campus, symbol and reality of speech culture, is Chi Sigma Rho.

PHI TAU OMEGA

The Future Teachers of America movement grew out of the Horace Mann Centennial in 1937 and has been developed by the staff of The Journal of the National Education Association. The FTA organization is based upon a most important fact: That the future of mankind is in the youth of today.

Two projects, the Investigation of Teachers' Salaries and an Evaluation of Student Organizations, were begun by the Charter members. The Charter was presented by Dr. Parrott at a special Chapel service. The twenty members enjoyed interesting meetings and a banquet was held near the close of school.

The officers of this organization were Dorothy Knight, president; Darlene Christiansen, vice-president; Dalene Zimmerman, secretary; Jane Starr, treasurer; Wayne Donson, parliamentarian; Vada McNutt, historian; Dorothy Ahlemann, librarian; and Mable Grubb, song leader.

KATHRYN RUTH HOWE
HEAD OF THE EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT

Miss Howe is an alumnus of Olivet and a member of Phi Delta Lambda. The Educational Department is showing rapid progress, especially in the modern methods of instruction. This year she aided in the organization and is sponsor of the Phi Tau Omega, the local chapter of the Future Teachers of America, student organization of the National Education Association.

THE PLATONIAN PHIL

The Platonian Philosophical Society is a society whose constituents are possessed with the gray matter and the ability to use it. Philosophy concerns them most vitally and its queerest problems tickle agreeably their senses of subtlety and ingenuity. They deal in the most sublime and the most trivial of human pursuits; theirs is the science that delves into the minutest crannies and opens out to the widest vistas.

PHILOSOPHICAL SOCIETY

The program notes for the year include addresses by Dr. Harry Jessup, Dean of the Chicago Evangelistic Institute; Dr. Orton Wiley, president of Pasadena College, Pasadena, California; Dr. Will Durant, eminent contemporary philosopher; Professor Linford A. Marquart, registrar and head of the history department of Olivet College; and Dr. Allan Rosenwald, psychologist and psychiatrist. The initial meeting of the society was made outstanding by Mr. Edmund Day's brilliant review of Dr. Garnett's recent book entitled, A Realistic Philosophy of Religion.

The Platonian Philosophical Society moved forward this year under the competent and sympathetic direction of Dr. S. S. White, Edmund J. Day, whose unexpected death left an irrevocable vacancy. Frank Watkin, Jr., and Leslie Parrott.

The Platonians feel that the far-flashing beams of light which philosophy sends over the world's perspectives more than compensate for its doubting and challenging, its quibbling and dialectics.

The publication of this year's AURORA was made possible by the combined efforts of the entire AURORA Staff. This year Professor Strickler took many of the fine shots scattered through the annual with the new Graphic View camera equipped with a Turner Reich lens, a gift of last year's staff. A fine enlarger and contact printing box was added to the photographic equipment later in the year.

The GLIMMERGLASS

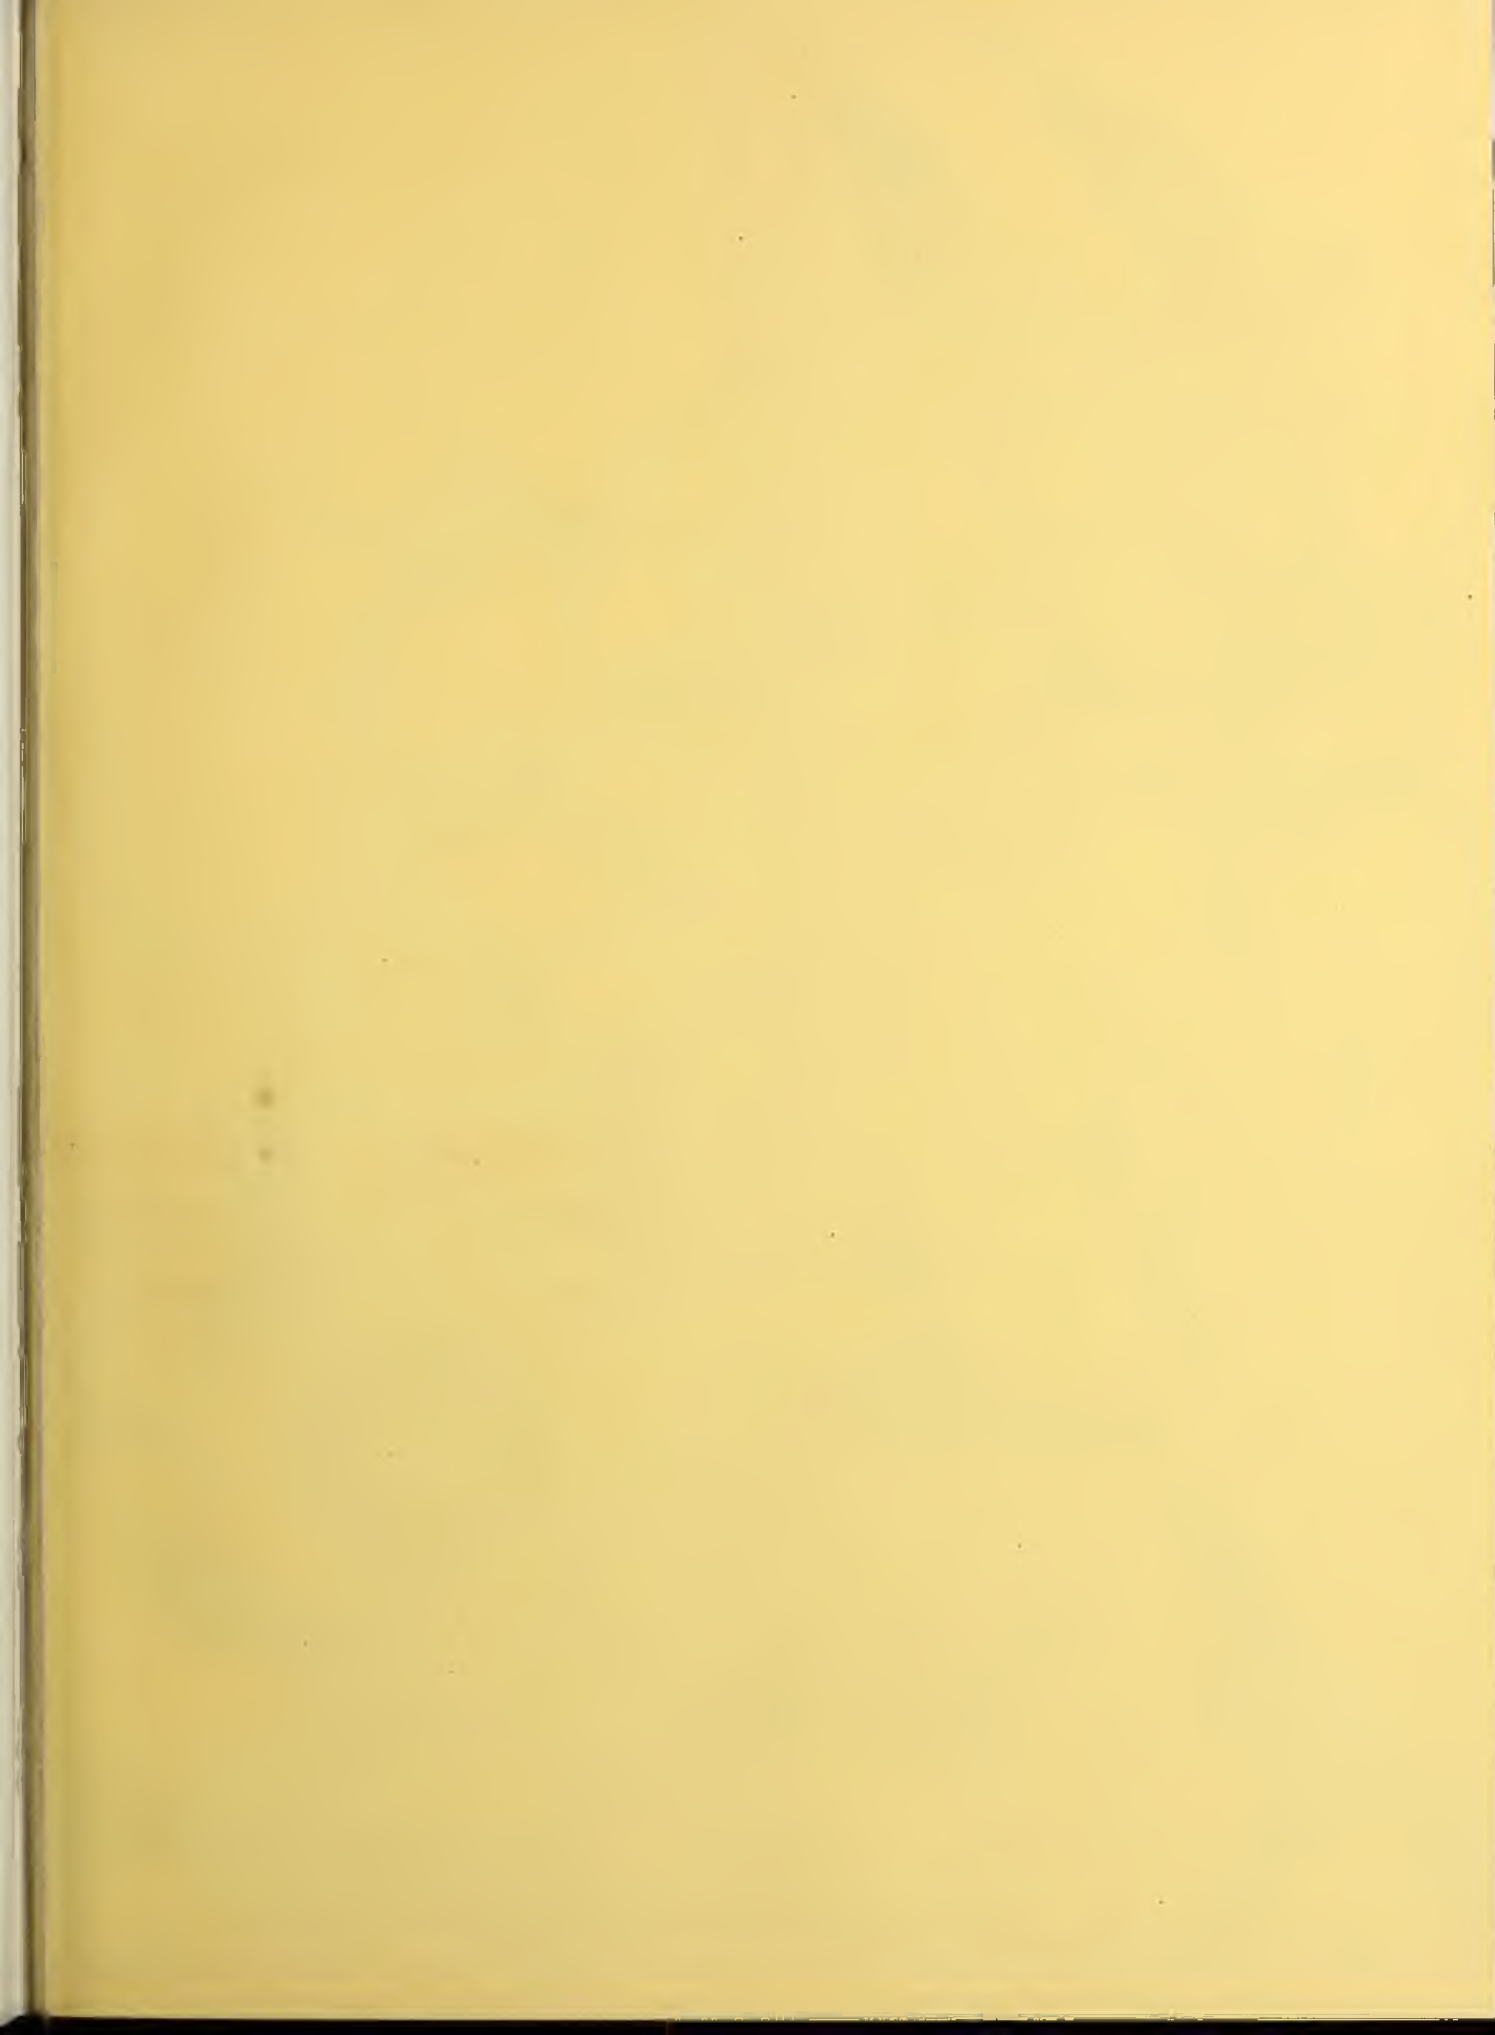

Paul Oman has done a remarkably fine job this year as editor of the Glimmerglass. The students look forward to the yellow campus newspaper, which comes out every Friday morning following chapel.

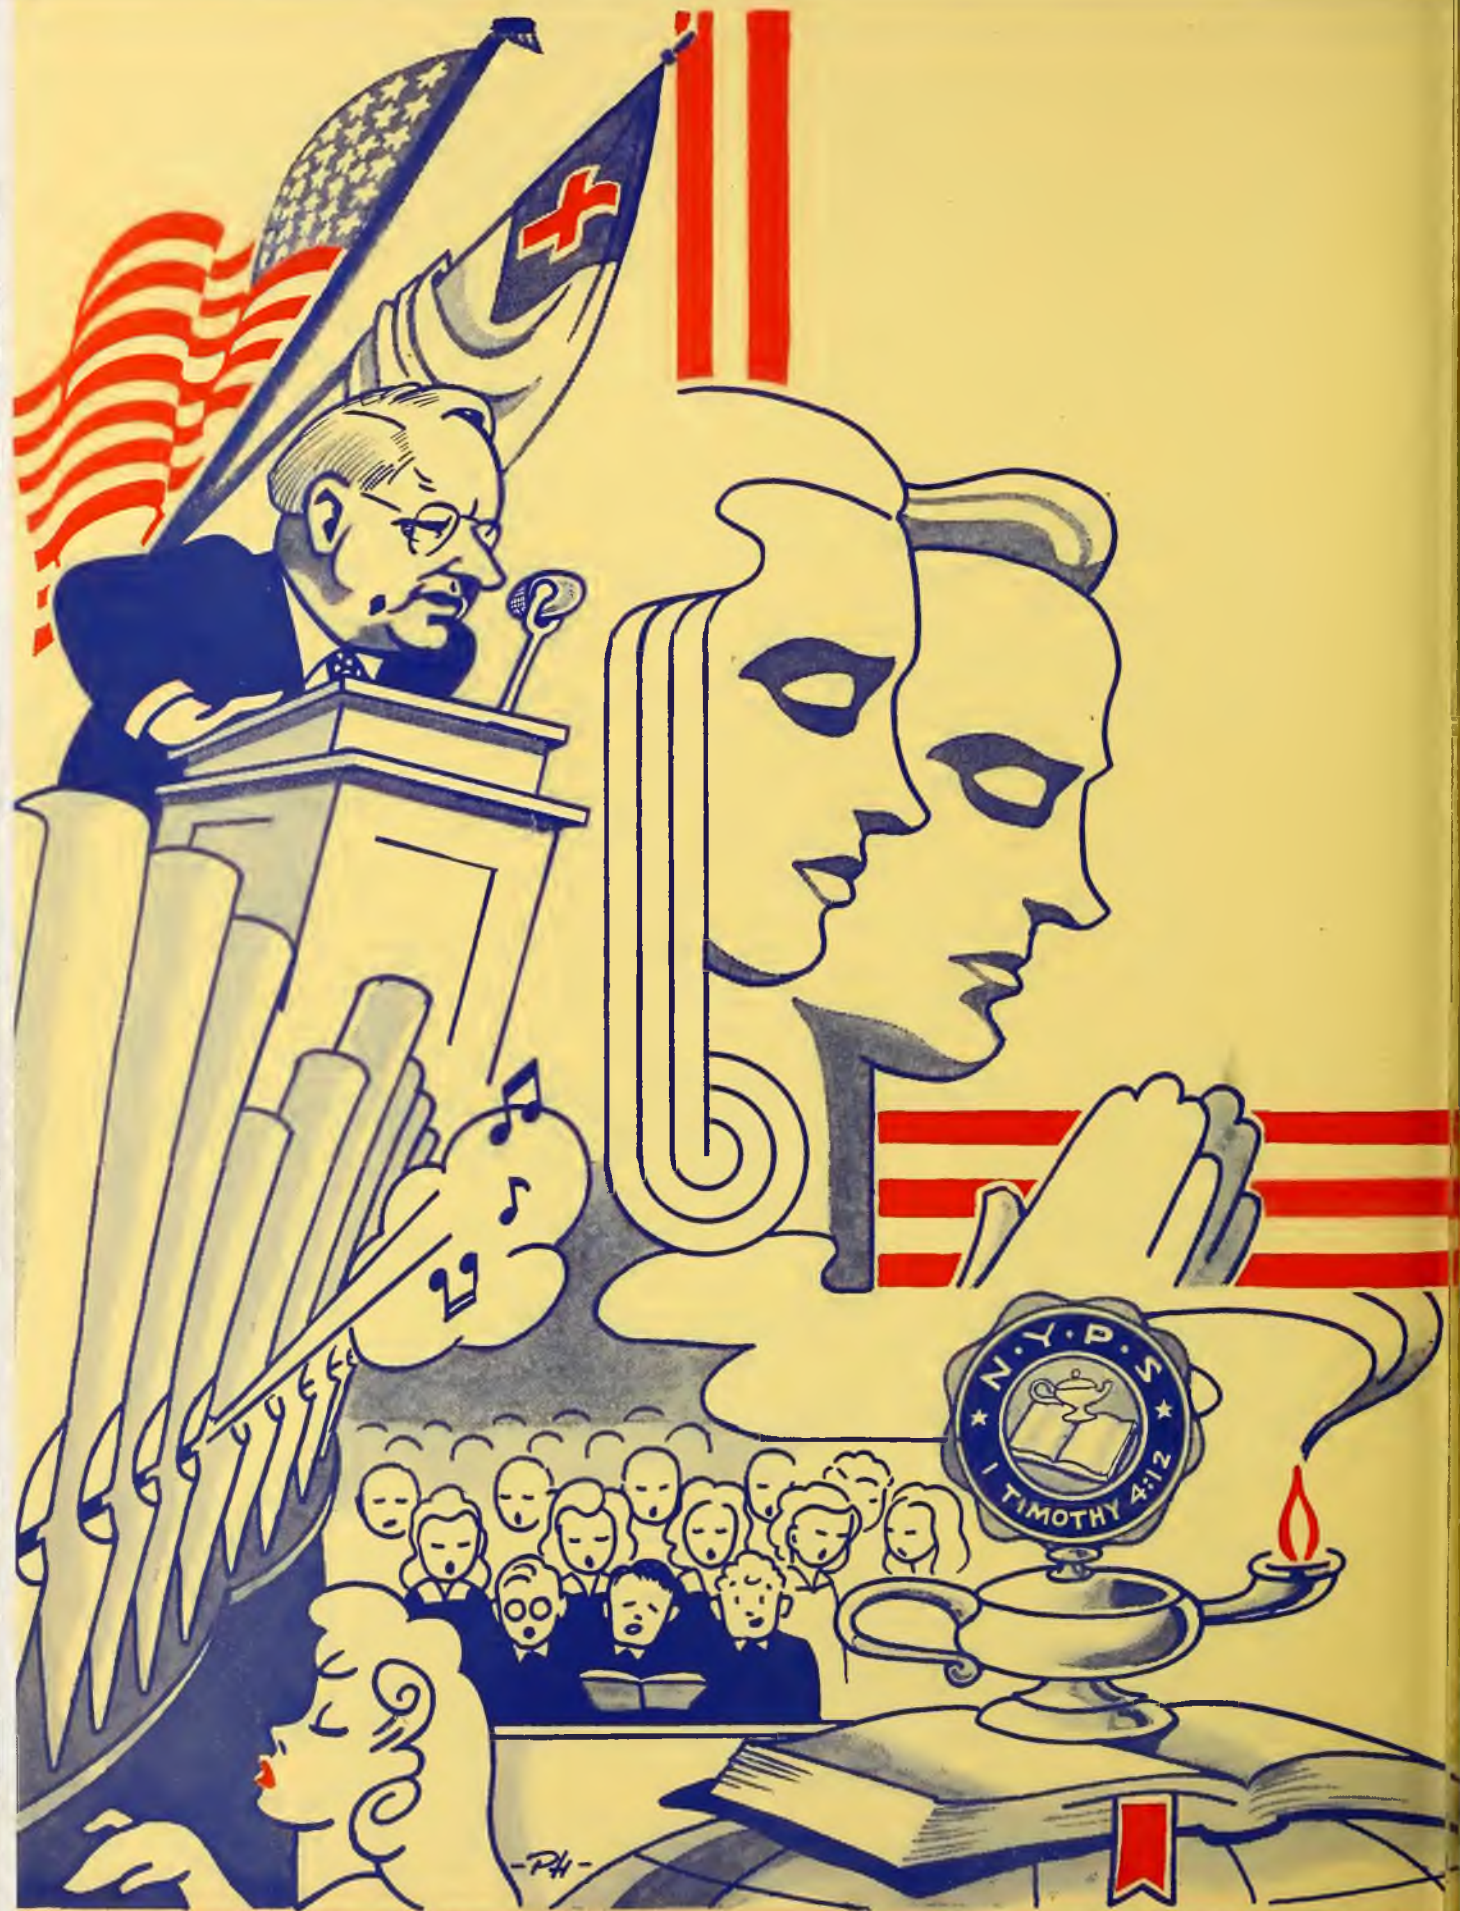

Especially popular is the Poison Ivy column, and many are the third period classes surreptitiously enlivened by the Sports page.

In the spring, the Glimmerglass sponsored the election and presentation of two trophies: one to the best sportsman; the other to the most outstanding athlete.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Sunday School department of the College church is under the able leadership of Professor D. J. Strickler.

Along with a college education, it is necessary that there be a special time set aside for Bible study. Olivet's Sunday School department meets this need.

The teachers are drawn largely from the college faculty, giving the students eager for a deeper understanding of the Scriptures a rich background for interpretation.

The Children's Department of the Church School

Because we cannot remember much of our first years, we may think them unimportant. However, it has been proven that the decisions and actions in later years are largely influenced by the feeling and attitudes built in early childhood. For this reason, we realize the importance of an efficient department for the children of the College Church School.

Under the capable supervision of Mrs. Boneita Marquart great advancement has been made this year. Even the tiny tots have been given a place in a new nursery department, with Miss Virginia Arnold in charge, where amid their natural play activities the little folk can hear the stories of Jesus. The kindergarten children have their separate department with Miss Emily Bushey and Miss Eva Kurtzweil as their teachers, who try to provide for them not mere busy work, but meaningful activities in worship, songs, stories, and handwork to teach them the love of their Heavenly Father.

Mrs. Marquart, who for several years was a regular contributor to the Children's Worker, is author of a recently published book on teaching methods and unit plans for use in teaching children of Junior High School age level, for both Sunday Schools and Junior Missionary Societies.

THE JUNIOR CHOIR

Once a month, under the direction of Professor Naomi Larsen and Miss Mabel Grubb, the Junior Choir sings for the Sunday Morning Worship Service. These boys and girls are quite young to begin such a career of service in an institution of higher learning, but in such as these lies the hope for a better Olivet tomorrow.

COLLEGE PASTORS

Several years on the mission field and many years in numerous pastorates have well equipped Rev. and Mrs. Walter C. Morris for their ministry at Olivet Nazarene College. Facing many problems common only to college pastors, they have, under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, proven themselves equal to their task.

The College Church has increased both spiritually and materially since the arrival of Rev. and Mrs. Morris three years ago. The increase this year has been attested to by two great revivals and by the ease with which the budgets of all departments have been met.

We shall not soon forget the influence shed by the tender and kindly lives of Rev. and Mrs. Morris.

CHURCH CHOIR

The worshipful atmosphere of the Sunday morning service in our College Church is heightened by the very fine music of the organ and choir. A soft organ prelude with Professor Larsen at the console marked the beginning of the service and the vested choir could be seen in a beautiful processional to the choir loft. This group, trained under Professor Walter B. Larsen, was noted for its excellent technical and spiritual interpretation of anthems. During the Christmas season the choir sang the cantata, "The Birth of Christ." Their faithful service was helpful and inspirational.

N. Y. P. S.

The N.Y.P.S. is a vital part of the Church and College program, providing opportunity for student participation in religious activities. This year four efficient group leaders were chosen: Mr. Walter Eichenberger, Miss Essie Frost, Miss Dorothy Knight, and Mr. Frank Watkin. Instead of an arbitrary division of the student body, an enthusiastic campaign was held for soliciting members to the four groups.

Outstanding programs have been: The Life of Christ, Intelligent Christians, Dr. Parrott's Life Story, The Bee Hive, Electioneering for Christ, and the missionary services conducted by Ray Tucker.

The Society has sponsored a reading contest among the four groups, awarding worthwhile scholarships to the winners. These programs have proved a source of inspiration and blessing to all.

The elected officers were: Orville Maish, president; Edmund Day (deceased), vice-president; Emily Bushey, secretary; and Robert Sheppard, treasurer.

We wish to pay tribute to our late vice-president, Edmund Day, who spoke to the society at the first of the year, describing the various attitudes students could take toward the College N. Y. P. S. and emphasizing the importance of individual faithfulness. After Mr. Day's death, Miss Essie Frost was chosen to finish the year as vice-president.

Deepening the spiritual life of our students and providing opportunities for religious service, stands the Student Prayer and Christian Service Band, one of the most worthwhile organizations of the school. It meets every evening for a devotional period usually led by some student, and each Sunday afternoon sponsors religious services in the jail and other institutions.

The organization is led by Forrest Whitlatch and his assistants, Ben Lemaster and Ruth Anna Griffith, and is sponsored by Dr. J. F. Leist.

EVENING EVANGEL

The evening services of the College Church have been both enjoyable and helpful. The spirit-filled evangelistic messages of the pastor, Rev. Morris, have been a blessing to the congregation. Under his ministry many young people have found definite help for their spiritual needs.

No little part in the evening services has been filled by Robert and Madge Killion, Sunday night music directors. Under their supervision the musical program of the services has been an inspiration to all. Margaret Pickart at the piano and Madge Killion at the console of the organ were the regular Sunday evening accompanists. Their organ-piano arrangements were unusually beautiful and inspirational. Various choirs, quartettes, trios, and ensembles assisted in the musical program. Especially featured was the Apollo quartette, whose harmony proved a blessing to many listeners.

REV. MARTHA ANN WINES

The Daughters of Martha Ann Wines

A new organization takes its bow this year on our campus. This organization has for its purpose to promote the spiritual life, develop the talents, and provide fellowship for young women who are called to the Christian ministry.

The society was named in recognition of Mrs. Martha Ann Wines, who has given more than fifty years of faithful and effective preaching to the doctrine of Holiness. She is a member of the Indianapolis District and has been a beloved and revered minister of the Church of the Nazarene since its beginning. The officers are as follows: Dorothy Ahlemann, president; Wanda Donson, vice-president; Eleanor Reasoner, secretary; and Mildred Click, treasurer. The sponsors are Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Leist.

Activities of the club include a Christmas party. Mrs. Leist and Miss Supplee were special speakers at their gatherings. In the spring Mrs. Martha Ann Wines spoke to the group at their banquet.

Student Pastors

The following students are filling pastorates regularly during the school year:

James Hillman has recently purchased a church building valued at $9,500 for his growing church at Paxton, Illinois. Ancil McQueen travels six hundred miles weekly to Newtonsville, Ohio. The work at Gibson City, Illinois, pastored by Irwin Windoffer, is showing progress. J. P. Foster at Wilmington, Illinois, is hoping to move to a more desirable location soon. The church at Lowell, Indiana, has recently been taken by Charles Ide, while A. Leslie Parrott has moved from Lowell to a prospering church in Mishawaka, Indiana. Leo Steininger has raised $5,000 in cash and pledges for his new church in Blue Island, Illinois. Warren Faber, pastor at St. Anne, Illinois, has built up the Sunday School. The prospects seem good for Orville Maish, who has recently taken over a church at Toledo, Ohio.

After pastoring the church at Momence, Illinois, for two years, Earl Gardner is looking forward to buying a new church building. Lyndon Walls reports that his church at Dwight, Illinois, is growing rapidly. The church at Mendota, under the leadership of James Rice, has started its building fund campaign for a new church, Donal Donahoe's Sunday School attendance at East Side, Chicago, is showing a rapid increase. Wilbur Beeson is pastoring a growing church near Hagerstown, Indiana. Sunday finds Frank Hawthorne in the pulpit at Pittwood, Illinois, where he recently started a growing church. The church at Sidney, Illinois, under the ministry of Carl Noffsinger, is progressing well. James Stevenson has recently taken up pastoral duties at Homer, Illinois, where he has begun a new church.

REV. C. B. COX

REV. GENE PHILLIPS

DR. C. WARREN JONES

SPECIAL SPEAKERS

The Reverend C. B. Cox, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, Dayton, Ohio, was the evangelist for our fall revival. An excellent speaker, Rev. Cox was especially adept in the art of story-telling, making his stories a living part of his messages. Remaining true to the tradition and spirit of our school and our church, he placed special emphasis upon entire sanctification. A challenge was embedded in each and every message, a challenge which kept the revival fires burning throughout the entire year.

The Reverend Gene Phillips came to us from his pastorate, the First Church of the Nazarene, Indianapolis, Ind. Under his Spirit-filled preaching, Olivet enjoyed one of the greatest spring revivals in our history. Most outstanding was his deep sincerity and burden for souls, he himself being the very embodiment of his faith. The revival reached every person in the school. Many were saved, others were sanctified, and all were drawn closer to the Lord.

Dr. C. Warren Jones, Foreign Missions Secretary, paid us a very welcome visit in October. He spoke to the entire student body at the morning chapel service and to the Called Missionary Band in the afternoon. Special interviews were arranged for those students who plan to enter the missionary field. The Missionary Board of our church is attempting to guide its young missionaries in their preparation from the time they enter college. His ardent messages made the entire student body more conscious of our Lord's Great Commission, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations."

DR. J. W. MONTGOMERY

Dr. J. W. Montgomery, Superintendent of the Fort Wayne District, was the visiting speaker for a series of missionary addresses during the week of January tenth. In his travels through South America, he has gained an urgent missionary insight which he passed on to us as he gave us a picture of a needy continent in the summary of his journeys. These sermons were of special interest to the called missionaries, but they also challenged the entire student body to spread the gospel throughout the world.

MISSIONARY BAND

The Called Missionary Band has been one of the most active groups this year at Olivet. As its purpose it had the closer fellowship of those called to foreign fields. Members were kept informed of the work in mission stations of the Nazarene fields and were shown the great needs of these fields.

Among their special speakers were Dr. C. Warren Jones, who interviewed most of those students preparing for missionary work, the Rev. and Mrs. Osborne, and Dr. and Mrs. Wesche.

This group, sponsored by Dr. Clinton Bushey and headed by Ray Tucker, president, who was ably assisted by Norman Bloom, vice-president, and Anna Morris, secretary-treasurer, enjoyed their second annual breakfast in the spring in honor of all those called missionaries who were graduating.

LETTERS FOR VICTORY

..... You Aren't Right, If You Don't Write

From time to time, as Uncle Sam sees fit, service men and women, loyal ONC sons and daughters, return to dip fleetingly into campus life with campus friends. In the long stretches between their visits, the Victory Letter Club writes regularly to the four corners of the earth where these old friends are scattered. The Glimmerglass is posted weekly within the States to them, and students send the newspaper by airmail overseas. Here, as everywhere, co-eds nod dreamily over the closely written, nocturnal V-Mail, with its silent volumes interposed between each line.

A militant, evangelistic pulpiteer; interested in youth; with a message which appeals to all ages.—Olivet students enjoy him.

ADOLPH GROSS
Music Director

Robed chorus choir of sixty voices, conducted by Chicago's most versatile evangelistic chorister.

"Any educational process which fails to reckon man as an immortal soul, made in the image of God and capable of being redeemed and transformed by the power of God unto salvation, can doom any society constructed upon its own folly and blindness. That education which unites the revealed Word with the finest scholarship of man should be the central objective of our people and those in charge of education."—Chicago First Church of the Nazarene subscribes to the above philosophy.

Congratulations we extend To Olivet Nazarene College,
For spiritual help it gives our youth
And also secular knowledge.
Our prayers are for each teacher
there,
Each officer and scholar;
We know full well that God will bless
Each effort and each dollar.

The Fair Store

KANKAKEE'S FAVORITE STORE

Specializing in fashions for women, clothing for men and boys, fabrics, shoes, lingerie, sportswear, and accessories of every type. A store in which excellent quality is obtainable at reasonable prices. . . .

Geneva Schramm chooses her new bag from a wonderful showing while Mrs. Lanove explains the beauty and styling of each design.

Naomi Bearinger (standing) and Sarah Breedon (seated) shop for dresses in our modern Fashion Center. Mrs. McCaffrie is showing the newest styles.

This is our 50th Anniversary Year—
