THE MIND-ALIVE

FORWARD

Our minds have become alive, burning with the flames of zealous aspirations and achieved knowledge; excited by the prospect of attained goals and emerging challenges. MIND-ALIVE means seeking the building blocks of ideas from every available source. O.N.C. provides sources of truth and knowledge within a framework of "Education with a Christian Purpose." It encourages the individual's search for meaning, for peace, for identity and for God.

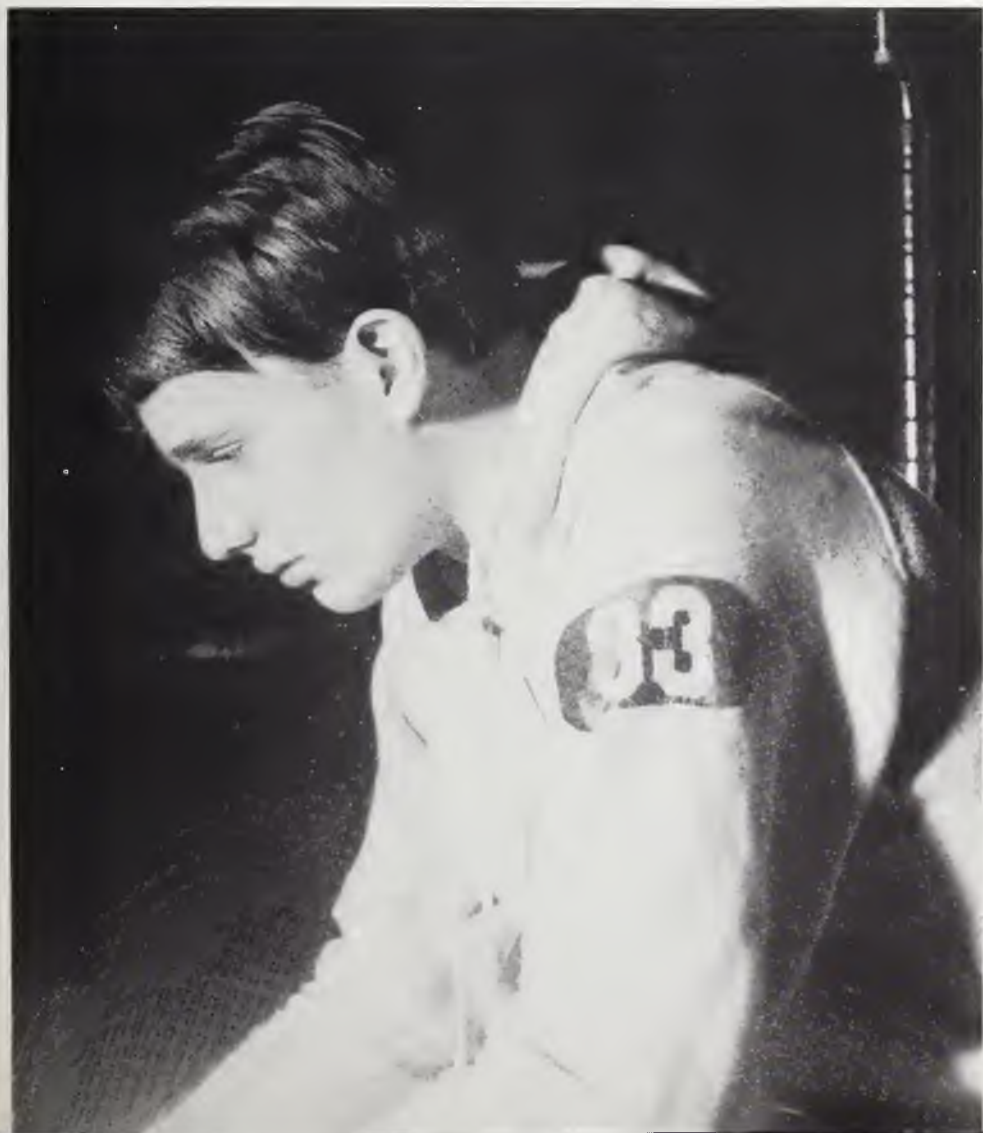

Minds are in the process of saturating themselves with impressions and experiences that ideas are made of. Each of us is an individual. We see things that aren't there. We create in our minds the kind of world we want to live in. We visualize things as we want them to be.

Mental-aliveness is not confined to dreams. Dreams are made reality through the power of motivation that floods from deep within, encouraging us to work, to strive, to learn in preparation for reaching our goals.

MEANING

"Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace!
 Where there is hatred . . . . let me sow love.
 Where there is injury . . . . pardon.
 Where there is doubt . . . . faith.
 Where there is despair . . . . hope.
 Where there is darkness . . . . light.
 Where there is sadness . . . . joy. . . . ."
 St. Francis of Assisi

Minds can be used for both good and evil.
 In the search for something that satisfies many diverse roads are taken.
 People try to tune-in, turn-on and drop-out through drugs, alcohol and riots. They end up finding more uncertainty than the peace that satisfies.
 The perfect answer for peace is God.
 When God is the end of the search, true peace is discovered. The peace of love and goodwill expressed through service and commitment allow minds to become turned-on all of the time through God.

PEACE

IDENTITY

"You only achieve identity by being the best of whatever you have in you to be, by giving full expression to your own unique spirit, to your own ideals and values, to your own gifts and talent, to your own concept of beauty and truth."

"Remember always that you have not only the right to be an individual, you have an obligation to be one. You cannot make any useful contribution in life unless you do this."

Selected

GOD

What is really needed is a fundamental change in our attitude toward life. We have to know ourselves and realize that it does not really matter what we expect from life, but rather what life expects from us. We need to stop asking about the meaning of life and instead think of ourselves as being questioned by life. "Life ultimately means taking the responsibility to find the right answer to its problems and to fulfill the tasks which it constantly sets for each individual.

"These tasks, and therefore the meaning of life, differ from man to man, and from moment to moment." God is the ultimate answer to each man's search and through Him each man finds meaning for his life. We, therefore, not only have minds—alive, but minds alive unto God.

DR. VERNAL H. CARMICHAEL

"A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops."

Henry Adams

From 1915, through 1970 one such man has been influencing countless numbers of students. Throughout his life, he has directed his efforts toward giving young people interests and goals for bettering theirs and others' lives. His many articles and lectures reflect this philosophy.

A native of Brown County, Indiana; he resided in that scenic area of the state until his marriage in 1918. He earned his bachelor's and master's degree from Indiana University and his Ph.D. from the University of Pittsburgh.

He taught in the elementary grades and the high school in Van Buren Township, Brown County, from 1915-18, and was in military service from 1918-19. From 1919-26, he was head of the commercial department at Frankfort, Indiana, High School and taught in the commercial department at Fort Wayne Central High School in 1926-27.

An active churchman, he served for many years as Sunday School superintendent and on the board of trustees of the South Side Church of the Nazarene, Muncie. He has also been a member of the Church of the Nazarene for thirty years and has served as secretary of the advisory board of the Northeastern Indiana District of the church.

He is the co-author of a textbook, Business Letter English, which has been published in second edition.

He has been editor of the National Business Quarterly, the American Business Education magazine, and associate editor of the American Business Education yearbook.

He has also served on executive boards and chaired committees for state and national business education associations, and has held membership in Phi Delta Kappa, Beta Gamma Sigma, Delta Pi Epsilon, and Pi Omega Pi, national honorary fraternities.

He retired from Ball State in 1962 after 35 years on the faculty. For the past eight years he has been professor of business education at Olivet Nazarene College in Kankakee, Illinois.

DR. VERNAL H. CARMICHAEL, professor emeritus of business education at Ball State University, was honored January 16, when the universities' first "living and learning" residential instruction program was dedicated Carmichael Hall.

It has been said that "you radiate what you are. You go forth to others in love, in hate, in indifference, in warmth, in coldness, in cheer or in gloom. What you truly are, deep down inside, thunders silently as you meet and mingle with people."

This is surely the case with DR. CARMICHAEL. His life radiates vitality, enthusiasm, and dedication to teaching and in comparison he puts many younger professors to shame.

With sincere admiration, love and respect we proudly dedicate the 1970 Aurora to DR. VERNAL H. CARMICHAEL.

FALL REVIVAL REFRESHES

- a. Preaching to filled services, Dr. Stowe presented vital messages for today.
- b. Excellent cooperation between Pastor Don Irwin and Evangelist Stowe enhanced the week of revival.
- c. Inspiring music by Gene Braun captured the attention each meeting.

The human spirit can never be satisfied "by bread alone"—by material things. We have been made for God and can never find rest until we rest in Him. He said, "I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger and he that believeth on me shall never thirst again."

Fall Revival, September 21-27, brought a refreshing spirit to our campus. Dr. Eugene L. Stowe, General Superintendent, Kansas City, Missouri, presented the theme "Open Mine Eyes." Many students received help from his inspiring messages. Gene Braun, a full-time song evangelist from Springfield, Ohio, ministered to us in music.

DAILY DEVOTIONS

The purpose of chapel is to provide a time of unity for students and faculty to praise God in different ways. Various programs include student participation, guest lecturers, and special speakers. Class Chapel has proven itself successful. The separation of each class provides an opportunity for classmates to be drawn closer together by planning and participating in their own programs.

PLANNING TAKES THEIR TIME

Every Tuesday the social committee, consisting of five elected members from each class, plans activities to keep Olivetians entertained. This year you could visit Hong Kong or the Grand Canyon by attending the travelogues, or study the philosophy of Peanuts when Robert Shore lectured in March.

Music also played a large part in their programs. Each year the responsibilities of the social committee get greater. This year they met the challenge of planning "something to do" for the 1,600 Olivet students.

Linda Williams, Vice-President in Charge of Social Affairs, has a busy job as chairman of the committee.

The fresh style and easy-going manner of Kent, Cliff and Phil complimented their display of musical artistry. The original composition by Cliff was just one highlight of the evening. Comments such as "great," "best we've heard for a long while," and "fantastic" seemed to indicate the favorable reaction of those attending. Next to our own "Weather," Kent, Cliff, and Phil seemed to have gained the best support from an Olivet audience. So good, in fact, they were invited back in February for a repeat performance.

GUITARS, GOSPEL, AND GUYS

WINDS AND STRINGS PERFORM

"Hi lily, hi lily, Harlowe" referring to Prof. Hopkins was often sung by the Concert Band members between Sonatina by Giovanni and the "Git on Board" by Paul Yoder. Music ranging from the Renaissance fugue to the Negro Spiritual indicated the versatility of the members. The band personnel practiced faithfully, in trying conditions, to create the best sound. The results were evident. Their music was warmly received by grade schoolers when they visited the Alan Shepard school, and by oldsters in the small churches in southern Indiana. One of the most popular musical groups on campus and community is the Concert Band; it was worth hearing at every opportunity. As Olivet players begin to warm-up, Prof. Young steps to the podium and scans the strenuous yet exhilarating music of Bach, Beethoven or Bartok. Imported from the Kankakee area, are numerous professional musicians to create the full orchestra sound.

GHOSTS AND GOBLINS GATHER

"Or the goblins will get you if you don't watch out!" This could have been the thoughts of many students of Olivet on October 30. They were duly frightened at the annual Halloween Party by the witches and warlocks of the Junior Class under chief witch, Jane Mosshart. Ghosts, goblins, and ghastly creatures gathered in a dark, muddy field to spook the best. Later, inside the spacious barn, entertainment bewitched the sometimes attentive audience. The class of '71' is to be congratulated for a hauntingly good evening of Halloween magic.

b

The weekends became a time for fun and relaxation as WRA provided numerous activities. Twirp was the name of the game as the girls took their dates to the Penny Arcade.

A shopping excursion to Chicago allowed the co-eds a chance to spend their earnings. In the Homecoming Style Show the girls modeled hand-made outfits. The highlight of the year was the Mother-Daughter Weekend which once again proved successful.

- a. Turn about was fair play as gals twirped guys for the Penny Arcade.
- b. The selection of "Little Miss Olivet" gave the Penny Arcade an added flair.
- c. Hair styling tricks were shared by Mr. Gary Grubbs.
- d. WRA members modeled styles for Homecoming at the annual style show.
- e. Marrying Sam hitches another happy couple at the Penny Arcade.

HARRIERS SCORCH THE EARTH

Determination and hard work, along with willing and excellent running, made Olivet's Cross Country team. In the dual meets this year, Olivet won nine and lost one. And they crossed it well enough to place 11th at Wheaton, 7th at Taylor, 4th at Greenville and 9th at Earlham. Again this year Dana Schrok proved to be an outstanding runner. The first ONC athlete ever to compete in NAIA national competition, Dana's standing was 141 out of 259. Next year's outlook seems bright as nine out of the eleven harriers return to face the tough competitors.

ASTRONAUT BLASTS OFF

Scott Carpenter,
one of America's pioneer astronauts,
spoke on October 10.
Carpenter became the second man in space when he orbited the earth three times on May 24, 1962.

His visit to Olivet was well-received by a capacity audience. Although many thought him a better engineer and hoped for more about outer space than the sea, he was an interesting and provocative speaker.

His 45-day experiment in the depths of the Pacific Ocean was his main topic of his talk. The experiment was designed to test man's ability to live and work undersea. Scott Carpenter proved an enjoyable speaker for the scientifically-minded.

STRAVINSKY SPELLS VIRTUOSO

Quality, but not quantity, was the byword of the Lyceum Committee. Sergio Stravinsky, son of famous composer and violinist, Igor Stravinsky, followed in his father's footsteps by performing in an excellent piano recital. Playing to an Olivet audience, his musical talent and accomplishments shown, were of superior quality.

SPURRLAWS SWING

The Spurrllows, led by Thurlow Spurr, put on a show that got better as the evening went along.

"Oh, Happy Day" climaxed the first half and proved to be the best soul-singing on this campus. The patriotic number, complete with pictures recently taken by the astronauts, sent chills through more than one earth-bound ONC'er. The background of constantly changing, pertinent, and vivid pictures contributed greatly to the atmosphere of the evening.

MRA BLAZE SETS OFF HOMECOMING FESTIVITIES

CORONATION REVEALS IDENTITY OF QUEEN

The residence associations began the homecoming celebration on Wednesday evening. At the WRA-sponsored style show girls modeled outfits which they had made for the weekend. Later, spirit ran high as students, the band, the basketball team and cheerleaders, and the queen candidates converged on the athletic field for a pep rally and the largest bonfire in ONC's history.

The coronation of the queen held the spotlight on Thursday evening. As each candidate was introduced, she presented a gift—a song or poem—to the audience. Then the long-awaited moment arrived as Mike Neely pronounced Miss Jane Burbrink queen. A reception for the queen and her court was held in Ludwig Center following the Coronation.

a. The queen and her court relax at the reception.

QUEEN JANE LEND'S AIR OF ELEGANCE

Jane Burbrink, a lovely example of Olivet's standards and ideals, was crowned 1969 homecoming queen on Thursday night. Her gift to the audience was "One Little Candle" sung by her brother Curt. A senior, majoring in zoology, Jane has the distinction of being the third queen from Columbus, Indiana. Reigning over the four day's activities, her warm smile and gracious charm impressed all. The queenly qualities displayed in Jane made her royalty not soon to be forgotten.

The Speer Family concert, sponsored by Prayer Band, won a warm response from students, faculty, and community.

Kelly Prayer Chapel is the scene for Prayer Band four evenings a week. This spiritually refreshing devotional period is open to all students. With the effective leadership of George Lyons, Prayer Band has made a spiritual impact on our campus, through panel discussions, special groups, testimonies, and prayer. One of the highlights was the love feast led by Professor Lunsford. The students showed their love and appreciation of each other by sharing chunks of bread. Prayer Band becomes a part of the students and enhances their Christian lives.

Although MRA usually offered activities for the male residents, many of this year's frolics involved the entire student body. During Homecoming week the MRA proposed to build the largest bonfire in Olivet's history. Even though no one could measure the exact height of the leaping flames, all who attended witnessed a red hot success. Another highlight of the year was the donkey basketball game. Other unpredictable activities gave ONC men a most interesting year.

- a. MRA members find ticket collecting a pleasant task.
- b. Professor Hopkins and his friend take a break during MRA's donkey basketball game.

GAMMA REPEATS IN SOFTBALL

A great attraction during the autumn months, besides getting to know the campus again after a three month vacation, is intramural softball. Almost any afternoon the Olivet boys would take bat and ball and head toward the southeast side of the school. The games featured hard hitting, good pitching and tight defense. Although the competition was keen, Gamma fought hard and won for the third year in a row with an 8-1 record.

DELTA DOMINATES FLICKERBALL

Flickerball catches Olivet's fancy as a replacement for football. It is a combination of basketball and football. The game requires agile running and accurate passing. This year's competition was won by Delta as they went undefeated during the season and through the tournament with a 10-0 record.

Basketball, favorite past time of many Olivet men, became available this year with the organization of "B" league basketball. The "A" league also provided fans with plenty of action and excitement during the ten week schedule. Kappa captured the title with a record of ten wins and no losses. Balanced scoring and good bench strength characterized the champion team. Overall, the games made basketball a way to spend a Monday night or Saturday morning with the guys doing their own thing.

HOLIDAY SEASON CELEBRATED

December 14th was highlighted by a new kind of Christmas party open to the entire student body. Saga outdid themselves with a bounteous smorgasbord for the eight hundred and fifty attending. In beautiful Ludwig Center, flocked Christmas trees, candlelight and gaily decorated windows united all in the yule spirit. Folk-rock music, provided by the Sands of Time from Taylor University, echoed through the dining hall. Many appreciated the change in tradition and enjoyed the Christmas Party in the best of holiday moods.

Fast action and stiff competition characterized Olivet's intramural program. The season ended with Kappa edging out the other societies. The highlight of the year was the selection of the Society All-Stars. A unanimous choice for Most-Valuable-Player was Jim Fisher. Others honored were Greg Leach, Jim Nash, Ron Ferris, Denny Nordentoft, Al Dicer, John Howald, Herb Hunsucker, Merrill Stanley and Larry Huffman. “WE CAN’T

The Olivet Tigers Basketball season started off with bright hopes with the opening victory over Marion. The next five games were similar, Olivet destroying Goshen, Grand Rapids, Trinity, McKendree and Judson. Seven was the unlucky number. Though fighting hard, Olivet lost to Greenville. We lost next to Iowa Wesleyan, then back to victory over Blackburn. Olivet then participated in the North West Nazarene Tournament, in Nampa, Idaho. The first game was lost to Nampa but we then conquered Whitman from Washington. Olivet dropped two games to Pasadena then lost to Eureka. The next two games Olivet trounced Lincoln Christian and Illinois College. The Taylor Trojans slid by in overtime to win the game by two points. Again Olivet vs. Greenville, and victory was ours. The game against Marion was again a victory for Olivet; to Coach Ward it was his 100th win while coaching at Olivet. After a disappointing loss to Iowa Wesleyan, the Tigers traveled to Aurora to chalk up another victory mark. Principia and Bethel both went down in defeat, Olivet again winning with ease.

TIGERS TRAVEL WEST

How would you like to spend eight days of Christmas vacation on a west coast trip? The Tiger basketball team did just that. After losing December 29 to Northwest Nazarene College of Nampa, Idaho, the Tigers took third place in the NNC Tournament by defeating Walt Whitman College of Walla Walla, Washington, 84-76. Can you imagine spending a crisp winter afternoon on the slopes of Bogus Basin ski resort?

Our basketball team did just that, also. But the four days in Idaho passed quickly into the four days of California.

The team arrived in Los Angeles on December 31. The Rose Bowl Game attracted the Tiger's attention on New Year's Day. Two clashes with our sister school, Pasadena, proved disappointing as the Ward men lost both times. They recovered long enough to visit Disneyland, the Los Angeles Coliseum and the sunny beaches of Southern California. Then it was back to the chill, grey midwest and more basketball.

The dynamic moving spirit of revival was experienced during, and following, the week of February 4-8. Rev. The history-making, five-hour chapel on Monday has greatly affected the churches of the educational zone. Truly, revival became a reality during this week and the weeks to come.

LOVE FEAST: ONC STYLE

Meeting the initial needs of new Christians, the ever-joking Paul Martin responded with fresh ideas for Christian growth. He reinforced his far reaching message by invading men and women's dorm after his regular evening services. The revival effect was enhanced by the reverberating voice of Jim Bohi in song. The revival emphasis was sung nightly in "I will serve Thee because I love Thee." Love did abound after the lasting effect left by Paul Martin and Jim Bohi.

REACH OUT!

Were you one of the "in" students at Olivet this year? One of the best ways to become "in"-volved was through the Spiritual Outreach program. Divided into five main committees, the program allows Olivetians to share their Christianity.

Gospel Crusades, led by Peggy Stark, and Lay Witness, led by Chuck Watson and Dean Jetter, traveled on weekends, conducting church services and aiding needy churches.

Paul Ramey directed the Evangelists, who spent Sunday afternoons in the area witnessing. Servants of Christ regularly visit the same church and help it develop into a strong institution. Carol George directs the Scope program which services the community by tutoring in the grade schools and working at the state boys school. Involved were over four hundred students, who exposed their Christ to others.

Enthusiasm for teaching, serving, preparing and training others requires a love of God and dedication to His service these students experienced. They demonstrated Christianity in action. The vital concern for the unsaved and the desire to reach them for Jesus Christ united all in the Spiritual Outreach programs.

SOME WARM "WEATHER"

SENIOR RECITALS CULMINATE FOUR YEARS OF MUSIC STUDY

Senior Recitals are the culmination of four years of hard work. For parents, friends, and senior music students, it is, indeed, a proud evening as perfected talent is displayed. This performance is a requirement before a senior music major may graduate. The wide variety of music used in the recital gives each senior an extended repertoire for later use. Senior Recitals represent the ultimate goal of each music major. It is, indeed, an evening to remember as triumphant.

ELEGANCE PLUS

The elegant blue and gold Waldorf Room of the Conrad Hilton in Chicago set the mood for the entire Valentine Party. Formally attired in their best, Olivetians delighted in the excellent food served by the efficient corps of waiters. The singing of Steve and Maria Gardner from Wheaton, Illinois, was entertainment at its finest.

Highlighting the evening was the announcement of Don Neal and Debbie Balmer as the 1970 Sweetheart Couple. Many other couples were honored by the traditional announcement of engagements. Ask any of the 300 attending about the night, and one receives only a glowing smile or a faraway, dreamy look of reminiscence. The Valentine Party of 1970 was indeed a time to remember what love is.

The beautiful lounge of the Waldorf Astoria provides a perfect setting for the 1970 Sweetheart couples Dan Harris and Brenda Norton, Don Neal and Debbie Balmer, and Jack Stepp and Kay Howk.

This year's baseball team shows great promise. The team is characterized by experience, enthusiasm, strong pitching and a tight defense. With improvement in hitting, the Tigers should improve on last year's record. The roster includes thirteen lettermen, and a talented group of newcomers.

A tougher schedule will motivate accomplishments beyond expectations.

HUSTLE SQUAD

Left to right: Row 1: M. Roberts, D. Tucker, S. Fraily, D. LaBerge, M. Sayes, L. Jones, A. Longbrake; Row 2: D. Call, D. Shrock, L. Moore, D. Doerhing, D. Kirk, P. Gambrell, M. Guffie; Row 3: Coach May, Coach Craig, P. Fredrickson, B. Greenlee, B. Zell, G. Rainey, S. Bressler, S. King, R. Hodges.

Olivet's track team for 1970 deserves only praise for the effort each of the members has made. Under Coach Barry May and Coach Ron Craig, the thinclads placed 5th in the Midwest Invitational and 2nd in the NAIA District Indoor Meet. Both events were held at North Central College in Naperville, Illinois. The outdoor meets matched Olivet against such track powers as Milliken, Elmhurst and Carthage. They also participated in the Ecumenical Invitational, Carthage Invitational and the NAIA District 20 Championships. Congratulations to a fine team.

TRACK TEAM ON "CLOUD NINE"

Although the tennis team lost several key players from last year, the season is still quite optimistic. The reason for optimism is the talented crop of new players. Along with Larry Huffman, a returning letterman, there are newcomers such as Steve Arden, Terry MacKay, and Dave Hudson. Arden and MacKay are expected to be in contention for the top spot. A fine season awaits this young but emerging team. Only time, and practice, will tell.

NETTERS SERVE AND SLAM

GREENS BEGUILE THE GOLFERS

Olivet's golf team promises to be one of the strongest and best teams in the area. The duffers have three returning lettermen, led by Larry Schmalfeldt, who last year set a course record with a fine 65. Coach Ward is optimistic about his team's chances at the NAIA District 20 Match, the North Central College Invitational and the Prairie College Conference meet at Principia.

WOMEN'S INDIVIDUAL SPORTS

ONC offers a wide variety of individual sports for the female student. These activities supply each girl with the opportunity to participate in one or all sports, therefore, bringing out the individuality of each person. The skill performed by one individual proves her particular talents and abilities and through her participation in such activity she can find self-recognition and achieve her desired goal. Through individual sports minds come alive.

LOOKING FOR LOVE

"....looking, each of us, for something to rush through our veins like fire and explode in our lungs with the fresh dynamics of LIFE.
....looking, for a bedrock something that is still there after the fires of feelings... still there in the nitty gritty, the irritations.
....looking, for merging fingers and feelings of oneness beyond paper-doll games of blah LOVE-dull-LOVE—love dry and empty when the kick is gone.
....looking, for the something secure beyond M-14 rifles, lifeless creeds, phony spokesmen—something secure beyond a world that's just a brown balloon surrounded by kids with needles scratching in their initials.
....looking, for trips of joy and flowers and colors of luminous greens and purples and splashing tangerine
—but not the kinds that end with teeth-filled blackness and waking up shivering, empty, afraid.
....looking for something
beyond a sports outfit to buy, a test to pass, a date to groove with, a game to win—something beyond our petty microcosm...
....LOOKING—so few are finding,
but some of us have touched; tasted!
Something is turning us on, something impossible to fully describe.
Like trying to tell a rice-eater
how a fresh, cold orange tastes.
Like trying to tell a hated slave
what it means to be free...
to be loved.
It's real! Not an empty creed.
Not a dull involvement. LIFE!
We've touched it. We've touched HIM.
He made our sensors for love.
He made the color receptors in our eyes, the power in our muscles
....we've touched HIM!"
And this is what life's all about.

PREPARATION FOR TOMORROW'S CLERGY

Future pastors find help in their preparation through the Ministerial Fellowship. Special speakers give practical advice concerning the world of the minister. Members learn about the various areas of the church and their importance.

This year the Ministerial Fellowship built a Homecoming float concerned with the gospel in today's world. They also sponsored chapel programs and had many guest speakers.

- a. In a world of war and riot, Christ still says, "My peace I give unto thee."
- b. Dr. Forrest Nash, Chicago Central district superintendent, addressed the Ministerial Fellowship.

Missionary Band is open to all students interested in missionary work. During the year a weekly offering was taken from the student body for the annual missionary project. This year's project honored Betty Linn, a national worker, and Pat Burgess, missionary to Taiwan. Betty and Pat were killed in an airline crash. A dormitory will be built in their names at Nazarene Theological College in Taiwan. Missionary Band also sponsored a missions workshop in October, and presented their witness to the community in the annual Homecoming parade.

- a. Missionary Band Homecoming float expressed the need for Christ's love in all the world.
- b. Betty Linn and Pat Burgess, missionary to Taiwan, will be memorialized as a result of Missionary Band.
- c. President Bill Selvidge recruits Missionary Band members.

ENTHUSED PEP CLUB CHALLENGED OLIVETIANS TO BACK THE TIGERS

Come alive and cheer our team to victory! ONC's Pep Club roused the spirits of the campus sports fans to support our team. Dynamic rallies boosted the players' morale on our home courts. Buses provided transportation to some away games. The enthusiasm of these students encouraged the team onward to victory.

- a. Ludwig Center was invaded by enthusiastic Tiger supporters.
- b. Pep Club members demonstrated their support of Olivet's Tigers.
- c. Pep Club members cheered the Tigers to victory during the Homecoming game.

INTEREST IN PHYSICS DRAWS GROUP TOGETHER

Popularizing the interest in physics among the general collegiate public is the duty of the Society of Physics Students. The club is a chapter of the SPS national organization, which is supported by the American Institute of Physics. Activities included bimonthly meetings in which current topics of physics were discussed. Field trips were also taken to such places as the Dresden Nuclear Power Station.

- a. Physics Club members could often be found intensely working in their laboratories.
- b. Big Al rolled down the Homecoming parade route.

SEA AIDS TEACHERS-TO-BE

As a professional organization, Student Educational Association allows the students to better prepare themselves in the teaching fields. This year's activities included a Christmas Party for mentally retarded children and films presented on the values of teaching. In keeping with current events, SEA sponsored a speaker who talked about the school and the striking unions.

- a. SEA attracted prospective members on Club Day.
- b. Future teachers prepared Christmas gifts for mentally retarded children of the Fox Home.
- c. SEA officers took part in the annual Homecoming parade.

Olivet women who show excellence in athletic ability are chosen to be members of "O" Club. However, the activities they sponsor are enjoyed by the majority of the student body. "Snack & Yak" provided refreshments and fun for all. This club supervised coat checks at the basketball games. Members enjoyed a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Doenges. One of the highlights of the year was the "Weather" concert, sponsored by the "O" Club. The annual Steak Fry with the presentation of awards culminated a successful year.

- a. Basketball games found cheerful "O" Club members busy checking coats.
- b. "Pin the Tail on the Donkey" added an air of humor at the Penny Arcade.
- c. "The Weather-In Concert" was presented by the "O" Club for the entire campus.

MUSIC EDUCATORS INSPIRE FUTURE MUSICIANS

Attending music clinics was one of the outstanding events of the Music Educators. Other activities included special speakers and panel discussions. An evening at the opera was enjoyed by several members. A reward for all involved in this organization was the winning of first place in the clubs' division in the Homecoming parade. The float cleverly depicted the demolition of Flierman Hall. Chickens provided live music aboard the float. The club gave its members a wider view of the importance of music in our educational world.

- a. Future music educators added to their club roster.
- b. Music Educators' prize winning float depicted the wrecking of Flierman Hall.

ORGANISTS AIM FOR PERFECTION

In co-sponsoring an organ and choral workshop, the Gale Organ Guild contributed its views on the musical level. Organ Guild kept its members informed with a variety of studies throughout the year. This was accomplished through a series of lectures and demonstrations concerning the organ. A field trip was also an interesting activity.

- a. Organ Guild members attend workshop.
- b. Dr. Austin Lovelace demonstrated organ techniques.

STUDENTS DESIRE BUSINESS CAREERS

- a. The Business Club's Bookmart offered members practical experience while providing a service for fellow students.
- b. Mr. Don Williamson spoke at the annual Homecoming breakfast for former Business Club members.
- c. Membership increased on Club Day.

What better way is there to learn about business than from a businessman himself? Members of Business Club held special meetings to hear outstanding speakers in their field. Observation trips saw practices put into action. Alumni were served breakfast at another gathering. Once again the student body benefited from Business Club as the Bookmart sold used books. In a variety of ways, members prepared to become the businessmen of tomorrow.

A TOUCH OF HOME LIFE

Homemakers of tomorrow learn about the techniques of today during informal meetings of the Home Economics Club. This year, during spring vacation, Home Ec. featured an exciting trip to Washington D. C. and New York. Members visited a home furnishings industry plus the fashion design houses. As another aspect of the club, the faculty enjoyed a succulent international dinner which included ten foreign foods.

- a. Refreshments were a part of regular club meetings.
- b. The Home Economics Club displayed their talents in the bookstore showcase.
- c. Members practiced social graces.

LINKING COLLEGE AND COMMUNITY

As a branch of Kankakee's Kiwanis Club, Circle K devoted itself to the development of Christian citizenship. The Circle K Christmas card project encouraged our servicemen in Viet Nam with messages of hope and good cheer. Members also acted as ushers at several school functions. At weekly informal meetings, speakers from the community challenged these young men to respond in areas of leadership.

- a. Ron Cunningham with project director Greg Williams discuss Circle K's Christmas card project.
- b. This is the symbol of International Circle K—the world service club.
- c. Circle K members participated in the annual Homecoming parade.

INTERCHANGES SPARK MUTUAL UNDERSTANDING

In order to gain peace throughout the world, people of all nations must be able to communicate with one another. Regular meetings of the International Students offered opportunities to discuss the various cultures of the world. Members from the four corners of the globe shared their country with others. International Students Club also gave its members an active voice in the campus activities. Their participation in the Homecoming parade and other activities added an international flair to campus life.

- a. Issa Saliba added another name to the membership list.
- b. International Students pictured Olivet's international influence in the Homecoming parade.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE RECOGNIZED

Alpha Tau Delta honors scholastic excellence. New members were initiated at a formal tea in Ludwig's lounge. For the first time, lectures were presented by various professors and were followed by reactionary panels. Alpha Tau Delta added much to the intellectual life at Olivet.

- a. Kathryn Jorden entertained at the initiation tea for new members.
- b. Officers of Alpha Tau Delta met to discuss club activities.

b

STIMULATING THE WHOLE INTELLECT

a

The English Guild, under the direction of Mrs. Jorden, featured many exciting activities this year. Speakers presented book reviews which were educational as well as entertaining. Informal sessions combined "Pop and Poetry." Later in the year the club sponsored a trip to Chicago to see the "Merchant of Venice." Inkspots, a magazine featuring student written articles, was published.

- a. Sigma Tau Delta members enjoyed an evening at "Pop and Poetry."
- b. Phi Alpha Theta officers discuss club activities.

Necessary requirements to gain membership in the History Honor Society include the completion of twelve hours of history resulting in a 3.2 average. An outstanding event of this year was the trip to the Regional History Conference. Professor Harvey Humble entertained members earlier in the year with the slides of his summer journey through Europe. Yesterday's happenings are tomorrow's history might prove a worthy motto for this group.

KNOWLEDGE OF OURSELVES

The tension of a busy schedule was relieved as members of Pre-Med Club met informally to discuss the latest medical happenings. Hospital practices were observed as the students toured Riverside Hospital. For the freshman members, lectures informing them of the academic curriculum to follow provided helpful instruction.

People learn how to cope with themselves, their neighbors and the community through speeches presented by the sociology-psychology organization at ONC. An outstanding feature of the year was a tour of the prison in Joliet by Key Club members.

- a. Pre-Med officers sought new members at their Club Day booth.
- b. Key Club entertained twirp dates at the Penny Arcade.

"TO HAVE AND TO HOLD"

Through the Married Students Organization, couples find an outlet for social activities without paying a high cost for entertainment. A picnic in the fall attracted many members for a day of baseball, but emptying picnic baskets proved the most popular sport. Gym nights helped keep the group in good physical condition.

- a. Professors and students shared opinions on current issues.
- b. Discussions gave members a broader view of world affairs.
- c. Baseball was only one of the activities enjoyed on the Married Students' outing.

NURSES SHARE IN-TRAINING EXPERIENCES

With eyes on the future, the Nursing Club added to their knowledge of their chosen field. An exchange visit with nursing students from a Chicago school of nursing gave members an opportunity to compare their nursing programs. Social graces as well as professional knowledge were established at a progressive dinner.

Several faculty wives, who hold R. N. degrees, feted the Nursing Club on this occasion. Freshman nursing students were entertained earlier in the year at a tea.

a. Members of the nursing class participate in the dedication service at College Church.

b. Mother and father enjoyed the reception in Ludwig's formal lounge following the service.

GOVERNING BODIES GUIDE OLIVET

Elected representatives from each class as well as executive representatives join together to form Olivet's democratic student government, which gives the student body a voice in Olivet's administration. The Associated Students is responsible for the distribution of student body funds for various student organizations such as the Aurora, the Glimmerglass and WKOC. The Student Tribunal, an auxiliary body of Associated Student, interprets the constitutional questions of this body.

In September the Student Administrative Workshop gave these student leaders an orientation in Olivet's governmental functions. Some of the new innovations of the council included class chapels, student representation on faculty-administrative committees, and the development of the Wagon Wheel.

COED REPRESENTATIVES GUIDE WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES ON CAMPUS

The governing body of the WRA is a council composed of the executive officers and representatives from each class. Acting in behalf of the Women's Residence Association, the council administers rules of conduct and plans social events. This year the council provided a wide variety of social activities for coeds. HER Week gave gals a chance to twirp their favorite guys. The annual fall fashion show offered hints for Homecoming apparel. This year WRA made the plans for the Homecoming Queen's Coronation. The council kept coeds posted on the latest in fashions throughout the year with events like "An Evening of Hair Styling." Variety described the WRA council perfectly.

WITHOUT EDUCATION— WHAT?

From the designing of bulletin boards to the psychology of the underprivileged, the science of teaching must be learned by those in the Education Department. With two hundred graduating in the education program, full INCATE and State accreditation, this department shows a definite, sound program in education.

Olivet's Department of Education possesses one of the best Curriculum Centers in this part of the country. Dr. Mayo, department chairman, is also proud of the good interest on the part of the student. Students become involved in helping the underprivileged in area schools beginning their sophomore year. It is definitely a growing department in the art of helping others.

QUIET! STUDENTS AT WORK

At the command of ONC students lie thousands of volumes of supplementary information for their area of study. An addition of 23,000 items in the past three years has brought the library to an above average level in comparison with other institutions of the same size. A coin operated copier, which costs a dime, has been added for the convenience of patrons.

If there is ever a problem finding what is needed, the giant frame of Mr. Wiens is there to assist. His one deep concern is "for the students to be informed adequately on how to use the resources of the library."

CREATIVITY CORNER AT ONC

b

Creativity is the key to the progressiveness of this department. Ceramics is perhaps the most extensive art studied at Olivet. Beginning students learn fundamental methods of pot building. Various stages of ceramic development from greenware to glaze firing come alive for these creators.

Dr .Shaffer's Art for Teacher's class experiments with different types of texture to obtain varying art presentations.

Not only does texture become the proverbial guinea pig, but also various colors are used to change designs. Studio painting displays the talents of portraits and scenery painters.

This busy department has acquired considerable chemicals of diversified types for glaze mixing, a new kiln with a 36" firing chamber and a new potter's wheel.

This not-often-heard-of department projects its interpretation of life through the media of artistic creation.

DEVELOPING LITERARY SKILLS

Aeropagitica, T. S. Eliot, and Hardy, are not all one will gather from the wonderful world of the English Department. Who knows what else? English Club uniting with Sigma Tau Delta, participating with twenty Illinois colleges in "Teaching of English in High School," Miss Phillip's book, and new courses in Modern English, show advancement in English. Dr. McClain, department head, is proud of the ten full-time professors, new freshmen classification in English and the well-prepared graduates who go out teaching in high schools and studying in graduate institutions.

Talk, talk, talk . . . that's all you hear all day. But, "if you can't talk, what can you do?" is a familiar phrase from the lips of department head, Dr. McCombs.

A faculty presentation of "Arsenic and Old Lace" topped the schedule of the Speech Department. "Winnie the Pooh," a student presentation, in the Spring was also on the schedule. A debate team, traveling from Iowa to New York City, in competition with fourteen other teams, is also a growing organization in the speech department. A great speech curriculum is offered to those interested in the act of orally expressing themselves.

Culture Stimulates Language

Study French in Paris? This happens in the summer when a group of students and a professor go to France to study and travel.

The study of foreign language not only teaches a student a language, but also customs, geography, and other important studies. In Olivet's Foreign Language Department, the enrollment has increased steadily. Two new professors, Professor Elliott, and Dr. Clapp, have joined the teaching staff. Whether it be French, German, Russian, or Spanish, people are still people and language study is one way to learn about them.

Even with the smell of pyridine and the yellow-stained hands from nitrogen compounds, Olivet's chemistry students are privileged to work in modern, well-equipped laboratories. New courses, such as Instrumental Analysis, spell advancement. The well organized Science and Technology Department headed by Mr. Irby spells improvements. After long hours spent in the labs, products of this department leave to become doctors and chemists, applying what they learned for dedicated services.

In the world of science, physics goes hand-in-hand with chemistry. Mechanics of the department include a two-week course with the Radioisotope Lab. from Oak Ridge, Tennessee, and an affiliation with Argonne in atomic and nuclear physics. "Through government funds we have acquired expensive equipment making definite improvements in the department," says Dr. Sharpton, department head.

COMPUTERS AND CLASSES AND...

Take a computer; add to it the mathematics of calculus. The result—a new educational method for presenting limits of integrals, areas under curves, and a first year calculus class taught by Dr. Hobbs.

Math students don't just sit around. A group will be attending a convention in Washington, D.C. for prospective teachers; also majors are used as assistants in math and computer labs. Dr. Hobbs has stated that his department has a good sound curriculum in the preparation of teachers and graduate school students.

FORWARD MOVEMENT OF BIOLOGY

The purchase of new materials and supplies, microscopes, and zoomscopes for about $30,000 show the efficiency and forward outlook of the Biology Department. An ecology field trip to the Southwest shows the activeness of the Department.

The Biology Department is the largest in the Natural Science Division. Twenty-five majors and a host of minors are the products of the department. The modern green house and animal house, the tremendous additions to the museum by W. E. Eigsti, and the coming of two new professors, show the forward movement of biology at Olivet.

A NEW AND GROWING SCIENCE

Feldspar, X-ray diffraction, Crystallography, topographical, are all working terms to the steadily growing three-year old Department of Earth and Space Science.

The advent of the space program and the recent Apollo excursion to the moon generated an increased interest in this area of study. Department chairman, Dr. Reams, states, "We're striving to develop a curriculum in accord with the requirements of future job potential."

The Smokey Mountains saw the arrival of the upper division geology class where they determined the history of the area. Local field trips saw the geology students searching for fossils and constructing topographical maps of the Kankakee River area. Stargazers may not have been so evident, but this department has a varied and active curriculum and student personnel working on the study of the earth.

What is one's philosophy of life? Does he have twenty pages worth? If not, he should not enroll for the Intro to Philosophy course. If a student wants to think, to learn about himself, this course is for him. The by-word of the department is hard work, and it has paid off. This is indicated by increased enrollment in the logic, ethics, and introductory philosophy courses, and an increased number of majors. The quality of the department has been helped greatly by the addition of Dr. Price, who obtained his Ph.D. in philosophy from the University of Southern California. This department's growth is well worthy of recognition.

RELIGION ENCOUNTERS THE NOW

What happens when the nursing department gets together with the religion department? You get a student-faculty forum about a contemporary problem of ministering to drug addicts.

Theology, Religious Education, Philosophy, and Biblical Literature, but that's not all the religion department has to offer. The division has been strengthened with faculty newcomers, Professors Wise and Price, and is following throughout the new curriculum for Bible that began this year. "We're trying to let our action speak for us in making ministers and in awakening the lay students in general education to their part in the church," states Dr. Sayes, Chairman of the Religion Department.

COURSES RELATE TO SOCIAL NEEDS

How does man relate to the social needs of society? Where do the social problems of suicide and alcoholism originate, and how can they be solved? The department of Sociology attempts to give the answers. Dr. Nielson, Department chairman, states, "We are striving to meet the social and spiritual concerns of people."

The new courses of Culture and Personality and Modern Social Theory, along with the initiation of a Social Service Workshop, involves the students in active social work. This is a primary goal of the Department. Dr. Nielson looks to the future for a departmental major in social work and a minor in anthropology.

YESTERDAY BECOMES TODAY

How in the world does one take good notes in Russian History class when he can't even spell words like Riasanovsky and družhina?

The history of a people is largely determined by its geography. This is one of the primary things to learn in Professor Humble's history class.

The History Department supports one of the few academic societies on campus, Phi Alpha Theta, and boasts of having many of its students attending the conventions of the American Historical Society. The Department of History and Political Science has incorporated two new courses, Negro History and History of the Far East. It looks to next year's coming of Dr. Snowbarger to strengthen its academic position.

MOVING TO MODERN SKILLS

"Department in motion" is the only phrase to describe the department of Home Economics. Electronic ovens and counters cook only the best goodies that can be turned out. Refreshments for the drama club plays, dinners for the faculty, alumni breakfasts, Mother and Daughter Weekend Tea, and many other functions receive the benefits of the girls in Home Economics.

Sewing contests, Head-Start projects, conventions, style shows, antique furniture shows, and various other student activities are just some of the many activities the Home Ec. girls take part in. The highlight of the year came when all their money-making projects went toward a trip to New York City and Washington, D.C. with the newest professor in the department, Rubalee Morris.

ADMINISTRATION

The duties of a college president grow more complex each year. On the campus, a) Dr. Reed is often asked to speak in chapel or to smaller groups of students. In addition to his administrative duties, Dr. Reed represents Olivet in the community. b) One such occasion was accepting an endowment from Sears. Mr. Elmer Brodien, the Sears representative presented the check to Dr. Reed. c) The Reeds also serve in an official capacity as hosts of many social functions.

Olivet Nazarene College is an exciting place to live, to study, and to prepare for life. Here it is possible to explore, to test, to feel, to share, to acquire knowledge and understanding.

Your quest is not limited or confined. There are lectures, learned papers, Lyceum programs, research, field trips, concerts, distinguished speakers, and guest artists. Professors with minds alive and hearts aflame lead the way. You are free to pursue the wonders of our universe through astronomy, geology, physics, and the planetarium. Marvel at God's handiwork in botany and biology. Drink deeply from the fountain of Living Water. Learn the lessons of history. Prepare to serve mankind through sociology, home economics, business administration, teaching, nursing, preaching. Become aware of the beautiful world of art. Thrill to the inspiring music of choirs, bands, and symphony. Read widely in the field of literature. Communicate with others in French, German, Spanish, Russian. Feel the excitement and participate in the challenge of athletic competition. At Olivet, a sincere attempt is made to minister to the whole man.

It stretches the mind to attempt to measure this great universe and to know that this Supreme Personality, who is creator, has a life plan for each individual, and also has a blue print for every community and every nation.

The academic program with its long-time history of excellence gives prestige to our endeavor.

The spiritual emphasis awakens the receptive soul to God and makes all of life meaningful and ALIVE.

ADMINISTRATION WORKING FOR PROGRESS

Offices of the administration have been filled this year by new men. Moving up the ladder to fill new positions and to adequately supply the needs of the college have been John H. Cotner, S. David Beeman, and Curtis Brady. Charles Beatty has remained Business Manager. These men not only hold one job but are burdened with many responsibilities of added offices and acting positions. Yet each is a constant example to an upcoming generation. Through the administrative heads, Olivet moves forward to accept the higher challenges of tomorrow.

SENIORS PROVIDE STUDENT LEADERSHIP

Seated: Coach Watson, sponsor; Phyllis Humphries, secretary; Jane Hill, treasurer.
Standing: Don Neal, vice-president; Don Dunning-ton, president.

The class of '70 appeared at Olivet the fourth time to begin the end of a long career of schooling and to continue their search for truth.

Although they spent much time in applied academic pursuits, the seniors took time to build a very impressive class float. Putting their creative minds to work, members of the class produced inspiring class chapels each week. In keeping with tradition, they served breakfast to the junior class before sending them off on their winter retreat. In addition to their other contributions to Olivet, the class of '70 presented as their class gift, a monumental fountain to be erected in the vicinity of the girls' dormitories.

Sophomores Return With New Awareness

Seated: Sandra Mellish, treasurer;

Standing: James Vidito, vice-president;

Alan Rowlison, president

The class of '72 re-entered Olivet with new ideas and goals. They kicked off the year with a Freshman-Sophomore get-acquainted party held in Ludwig Center. Next the class co-sponsored the successful presentation of Thurlow Spurr and the Spurrlovs. At homecoming, Sophomores assumed responsibility for the coat-check at the Friday evening concert, and their float entry placed first in the Class Division. Other activities during the year included a class hayride and a booth at the Penny Arcade. Members of the class grew spiritually as a result of their class chapels, planned in co-operation with the freshmen.

Sandy Davis, secretary
Standing: David Kirk, president;
Emery Lindsay, vice-president

As the new freshmen arrived on campus, they were frustrated by long registration lines, early classes, and crowded dormitories. They adjusted quickly, elected officers, and began planning their initial ONC activities.

Their first project was construction of a homecoming float. The class of '73 brightened the end of first semester by decorating a Christmas tree in the quadrangle and caroling at each dorm. Perhaps their greatest contributions to ONC were an all-school party, "Let's Make A Deal", and their enthusiasm at pep rallies and basketball games. Freshmen also showed much imagination and talent in class chapel and Prayer Band programs.

I want to thank the staff members who gave of their time and talents to complete the 1970 Aurora. As in any organization, there are a few that willingly give a little extra. To those few is the reward not only of completing a goal, but of completing a goal well.

A very special thank-you is extended to Interstate Printers and Publishers; Blankenburg Photographers; and Durand Cover Company for all of their advice and help. Also I would like to thank Simon and Schuster, Inc. Publishing Company, Washington Square Press, and Beacon Press for giving permission to us for use of quotations from Wilfred A. Peterson's Adventures in Art of Living and Viktor E. Frankl's, Man's Search for Meaning, respectively.

HIGHLIGHTING THE HAPPENINGS

a.) The destructive boiler room fire delayed opening of the fall semester by one long week. b.) Routine was soon established and special programs, including the presentation by Astronaut Scott Carpenter, became a way of life. c.) Another phase of student participation was chapel and afterwards rushing to the Round Table for coffee and rolls. d.) Highlighting November was the Homecoming Queen, games, and the chance to reunite alumni and students.

a) Sub-zero cold with freezing winds greeted Olivetians after a four-week Christmas vacation. b) Peering into empty mailboxes was common to most students. c) The spiritual atmosphere on campus intensified as the Youth Revival brought many to their knees in prayer. d) Construction reveals modern new facilities to be ready in the near future. e) Idle moments shared on a park bench soon turn to memories of spring as students prepare to return home for summer.

Today is the age of renaissance, not only a new decade, but a new approach to solving the problems of the 60's.

As college students, our lives are encompassed by a disgruntled and searching society. Our lives are confined within limits of our own making. We strive to relieve our frustrations and anxieties, and to expand and enrich our lives. Our minds, with an emphasis on academic achievement, are reaching out to grasp new concepts and conquer new fields of scholastic endeavors. The scope of our mind is infinite. We become exceptionally rich when we discover the adventure within; when we are conscious of the oneness of all life; when we experience kinship with nature; when we know the power of meditation.

At ONC we can grow spiritually as we become part of the atmosphere, the life of a busy, working society where learning does not stop in the classroom, but stretches to the extremities of our existence. It is apparent that enthusiasm for God is a priority within our lives and through Him our minds become truly Minds-Alive unto God.
